Comparative Education The Dialectic Of The Global And The Local:

Comparative Education Robert F. Arnove, Carlos Alberto Torres, Stephen Franz, 2013 Now in its fourth edition Comparative Education The Dialectic of the Global and the Local remains the same groundbreaking book when it first debuted its collection of outstanding scholars in examining the changing transnational landscape of education With the addition of new coeditor Stephen Franz the book provides new perspectives on the dynamic interplay of global national and local forces as they shape the functions and outcomes of education systems The book calls for a rethinking of the nation state as the basic unit for analyzing school society relations and emphasizes the need to study social movements in relation to educational reforms It also emphasizes the value of feminist postcolonial and culturally sensitive perspectives for inquiry into the potential of education systems to contribute to individual development and social change This new edition incorporates recent developments in scholarship especially in education policy and practice the impact of the global economic crisis and a new chapter on education in the European Union

Comparative Education Robert F. Arnove, 2013 Provides new perspectives on the dynamic interplay of global national and local forces as they shape the functions and outcomes of education systems The book calls for a rethinking of the nation state as the basic unit for analyzing school society relations and emphasizes the need to study social movements in relation to educational reforms

Comparative Education Robert F. Arnove, Carlos Alberto Torres, 2003 Bringing together some of the leading names in comparative and international education this second edition provides new perspectives on the dynamic interplay of global national and local forces as they shape education systems in specific contexts

Arnove, Carlos Alberto Torres, 2022-07-21 Emergent Trends in Comparative Education The Dialectic of the Global and the Local addresses the changes and multiple new topics that arise in education vis vis processes of globalization and social transformation As such it complements and expands the scope of Comparative Education The Dialectic of the Global and the Local Fifth Edition Chapters systematically examine the intersecting global crises in society and education occasioned by COVID 19 across types and levels of education geographic and linguistic contexts and fields of theory and practice Topics addressed include the African ethic Ubuntu Global Citizenship Education GCE UNESCO STEM teacher education low fee schools social movements and protest ecopedagogy sustainability media and technology testing and the economics of education Furthermore this book offers insight into how education systems can contribute to environmental social justice Various authors employ a social justice lens to analyze the global regional local dialectics shaping the working of education systems with regard to who pays for and who benefits from current policy initiatives around the world

Comparative Education Robert F. Arnove, 2013 Provides new perspectives on the dynamic interplay of global national and local forces as they shape the functions and outcomes of education systems The book calls for a rethinking of the nation state as the basic unit for analyzing school society relations and emphasizes the need to study social movements in relation to educational reforms      Comparative Education Philip G. Altbach, Robert F. Arnove, 1989-05-01      Community College Models Rosalind Latiner Raby, Edward J. Valeau, 2009-03-22 Increasingly students worldwide are seeking post secondary education to acquire new skill sets and credentials There is an explosion of community college models that provide educational opportunities and alternative pathways for students who do not fit the traditional higher educational profile This book focuses on economic models to help local and national economies develop strong workforce training humanitarian models to bring about social mobility and peace transformative models to help institutions expand and keep up with societal needs and newly created models that respond to the educational and training needs of a constantly changing world These models seek to capture the imagination of those who are committed to learning about what works in higher education and in particular the impact community college models are having on the changing nature of world social political and economic landscapes With contributors representing 30 countries this book presents an international perspective      International Handbook of Comparative Education Robert Cowen, Andreas M. Kazamias, 2009-08-22 A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a r rate job We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked We know that some of our authors worked in very dif cult private circumstances as they were nishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of dif culties and disasters overcome The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were wo ing and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer Rolland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook

Comparative Education Research Mark Bray, Bob Adamson, Mark Mason, 2014-06-09 Approaches and methods in comparative education are of obvious importance but do not always receive adequate attention This second edition of a well received book containing thoroughly updated and additional material contributes new insights within the longstanding traditions of the field A particular feature is the focus on different units of analysis Individual chapters compare places systems times cultures values policies curricula and other units These chapters are contextualised within broader analytical frameworks which identify the purposes and strengths of the field The book includes a focus on intra national as well as cross national comparisons and highlights the value of approaching themes from different angles As already demonstrated by the first edition of the book the work will be of great value not only to producers of comparative education research but also to users who wish to understand more thoroughly the parameters and value of the field      Ecopedagogy and the Global Environmental Citizen Greg William Misiaszek, 2025-03-31 This edited volume collates over a decade of Greg William

Misiaszek's work on ecopedagogy with a new focus on insights and possibilities for global citizenship education GCE scholarship Rooted in critical theories and originating from Paulo Freire's popular education models of Latin America ecopedagogy is centered on understanding the struggles of and the connections between human acts of environmental violence social injustices and Nature's unsustainability The book brings together diverse understandings of ecopedagogy introduces key concepts of teaching for local to planetary citizenship and explains how both are essential for socio environmental justice and planetary sustainability Grouped into three parts it includes new detailed introductions with crucial GCE threads explored throughout the chapters This includes discussions of how non critical teaching for environmentally sustainable development that opposes critical GCE's essence instills anti environmentalism rather than countering it As a comprehensive and fresh curation of Misiaszek's work on timely and critical topics it will appeal to academic scholars educational researchers teachers and social environmental movement leaders participants among others who have interests in GCE environmental sustainability sustainable development environmental teaching and social environmental justice

The Production of Educational Knowledge in the Global Era, 2008-01-01 What impact does globalization have on the production of educational knowledge and on the way scholars envisage education systems and education in general Western education systems are being transformed and their role redefined in light of the processes of globalization education targets are being reshaped in response to global economic needs education systems are rated according to international rankings and education itself has been packaged into a commodity that can be commercialized worldwide In addition globalization prompts more intimate contact with different types of societies cultures and knowledge that defy our universal foundations and research tools Has educational knowledge developed in a way that enables us to disentangle the new education configurations In order to respond to this question this edited volume addresses four major challenges to understand the denationalization of education and the need to re conceptualize this transformation to uncover the agents and the tools of educational globalization such as the knowledge producers international organizations and role of statistics to explore the implications of the emerging international educational institutions and international curricula to understand non western education and integrating it into western educational knowledge These challenges are located at the core of the production of educational knowledge and are treated from a variety of viewpoints sociological quantitative and qualitative scholarship ethnographic accounts socio historical perspectives and philosophical reflections This book contributes to critical thinking about globalization and educational knowledge and at the same time opens our spirits to the theoretical opportunities and educational enrichment that the globalization era offers This is a compelling collection for anthropologists sociologists educational researchers and anyone who seeks to understand the need of new modes of thinking about education in the global era CONTRIBUTORS Robert Arno Aaron Benavot Eyal Ben Ari Roser Cuss Yossi Dahan Roger Dale Oren Lallo Julia Lerner Orna Naftali Julia Resnik Susan Robertson Philip Wexler and Yossi Yonah Beyond Borders

Néstor Herran, Tayra Lanuza-Navarro, Josep Simon, 2009-05-27 How does scientific knowledge circulate Does scientific communication shape the making of science Is the making of science a national endeavour or does it have an international or transnational dimension Are teaching and research equally relevant in this endeavour How can history of science react to the challenges posed by the changing practices of science in historical context Beyond Borders is a book generated at the heart of these fundamental questions In the last decades the history of science has attained a high degree of disciplinary maturity and sophistication However perception of disciplinary crisis is apparent behind calls for the search of new big pictures and their implementation in teaching and communicating the history of science to wider audiences Temporal and narrative fragmentation are seen as major drawbacks hindering the development of the discipline In addition national linguistic and methodological division is increasingly afflicting its practice Like other areas in the humanities and in contrast to the sciences the history of science has nowadays a pronounced local character which clearly constrains its intellectual output Challenging this state of affairs is a major aim of this book which argues for a resolute call for intellectual and methodological pluralism and internationalism Through a broad diversity of subjects periods and geographies covering from studies of sixteenth century astrological texts to contextual analysis of twentieth century X ray spectroscopy this collection of papers and historiographical essays offers a fresh overview of the field and its major questions Beyond Borders revisits five major topics in history of science namely the early modern map of knowledge pedagogy and science science popularization science and the nation and the geography of scientific centres and peripheries Engaging with a broad diversity of historiographical and methodological approaches in an international perspective Beyond Borders is a rich and plural manifesto contributing to the reflective appraisal of history of science as a discipline Universities and the Public Sphere

Brian Pusser, Ken Kempner, Simon Marginson, Imanol Ordorika, 2012-05-22 Universities have been propelled into the center of the global political economy of knowledge production by a number of factors mass education academic capitalism the globalization of knowledge the democratization of communication in the era of the Internet and the emergence of the knowledge and innovation economy The latest book in the International Studies in Higher Education series Universities and the Public Sphere addresses the vital role of research universities as global public spheres sites where public interaction conversation and deliberation take place where the nature of the State and private interests can be openly debated and contested At a time of increased privatization open markets and government involvement in higher education the book also addresses the challenges facing the university in its role as a global public sphere In this volume international contributors challenge prevalent views of the global marketplace to create a deeper understanding of higher education s role in knowledge creation and nation building In nearly every national context the pressures of globalization neo liberal economic restructuring and new managerial imperatives challenge traditional norms of autonomy academic freedom access and affordability The authors in Universities and the Public Sphere argue that universities are uniquely suited to have transformative democratic potential as global public spheres      Comparative Education Robert F. Arnove, Stephen Franz, Patricia K. Kubow, 2016      The World Bank and Education Steven J. Klees, Joel Samoff, Nelly P. Stromquist, 2012-09-07

World Bank and Education Book Blurb For more than three decades the World Bank has been proposing global policies for education Presented as research based validated by experience and broadly applicable these policies are ideologically driven insensitive to local contexts and treat education as independent of international dynamics and national and local economies and cultures Target countries needing resources and unable to generate comparable research find it difficult to challenge World Bank recommendations The World Bank and Education Critiques and Alternatives represents a powerful challenge to World Bank proposals Probing core issues equity quality finance privatization teaching and learning gender and human rights highlights the disabilities of neoliberal globalization The authors demonstrate the ideological nature of the evidence marshaled by the World Bank and the accompanying policy advice Addressing key education issues in developing countries the authors analyses provide tools for resisting and rejecting generic policy prescriptions as well as alternative directions to consider Robert Arnove in his preface says whether the Bank is responsive to the critiques and alternatives brilliantly offered by the present authors the book is certain to influence development and education scholars policymakers and practitioners around the globe      PISA Under Examination Miguel A. Pereyra, Hans-Georg Kotthoff, Robert Cowen, 2012-03-24 From the 23rd to 26th of November 2009 in La Palma island in the Canaries the Comparative Education Society in Europe CESE organized an international symposium entitled PISA under Examination Changing Knowledge Changing Tests and Changing Schools During four days seventeen leading scholars of Europe and America presented their contributions to debate the different problematiques of the remarkable phenomenon represented by the OECD Programme for International Student Assessment or PISA PISA is not merely an educational event It is also a media circus which involves the public rehearsal for reasons for failure or success and even in some cases public and political and academic explanations about why failure was not really that and why success was not really that either At the centre of all these indications we find the growing influence of international agencies on education and schooling which is decisively contributing to a marketisation of the field of education in the context of an increasingly multilevel and fragmented arena for educational governance based on the formulation the regulation and the transnational coordination and convergence of policies buttressed at the same time by the diffusion of persuasive discursive practice Organized in four sections entitled The Comparative Challenges of the OCDE PISA Programme PISA and School Knowledge The Assessment of PISA School Effectiveness and the Socio cultural Dimension PISA and the Immigrant Student Question and Extreme Visions of PISA Germany and Finland the contributions of this book offers a comprehensive approach of all these challenging and significant issues written from different and distinct research and academic traditions      Second International Handbook on Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda, 2015-01-06 This handbook presents a global overview of developments in education and policy change during the last decade It provides an accessible practical and comparative source of current research that examines the intersecting and diverse discourses of this important issue Divided into two parts the handbook first examines globalisation and education policy reforms including coverage of main trends as well as specific policy issues such as gender equity minorities and human rights Next the handbook offers a comparative perspective that evaluates the ambivalent and problematic relationship between globalisation the state and education reforms globally It features coverage on curricula issues and education reforms in schools around the world as well as the curriculum in the global culture Now more than ever there is a need to understand and analyse both the intended and the unintended effects of globalisation on economic competitiveness educational systems the state and relevant policy changes all as they affect individuals the higher education sector schools policy makers and powerful corporate organisations across the globe By examining some of the major education policy issues particularly in the light of recent shifts in education and policy research this handbook offers readers a comprehensive picture of the impact of globalisation on education policy and reforms It will serve as a vital sourcebook of ideas for researchers practitioners and policy makers in education

Education Quality and Social Justice in the Global South

Leon Tikly, Angeline M. Barrett, 2013-06-07 How we understand education quality is inextricably linked with perspectives on social justice Questions of inclusion relevance and democracy in education are increasingly contested most especially in the global South and improving the quality of education particularly for the most disadvantaged has become a topic of fundamental concern for education policy makers practitioners and the international development community The reality experienced by many learners continues to be of inadequately prepared and poorly motivated teachers struggling to deliver a rapidly changing curriculum without sufficient support and often using outmoded teaching methods in over crowded or dilapidated classrooms Education Quality and Social Justice in the South includes contributions from leading scholars in the field of education and development The text draws upon state of the art evidence from the five year EdQual research programme which focuses upon raising achievement in low income countries and demonstrates how systems of high quality universal education can be sustained By exploring recent research initiatives to improve education quality the importance of supporting local policy makers educators and parents as agents of change and students as active inquirers is highlighted and the challenge of taking successful initiatives to scale is explained The book is divided into three main parts Framing Education Quality Planning and Policies for Quality Implementing Quality in Schools Education Quality and Social Justice in the South argues that implementing a high quality of education using theories of social justice can inform the understanding of inclusion relevance and democracy in education The book should be essential reading for both students and researchers within the fields of international and comparative education along with educational policy poverty and development studies

Dignity of Labour for African Leaders Shoko Yamada, 2018-04-12 From 1910 to the 1930s educating Africans was a major preoccupation in the metropole and in the colonies of imperial Britain This richly researched book untangles the discourse on education for African leaders which involved diverse actors such as colonial officials missionaries European and American educationists or ideologues in Africa and diaspora The analysis is presented around two foci of decision making one is the Memorandum on Education Policy in British Tropical Africa issued by the British Colonial Office in 1923 another is the Achimota School established on the Gold Coast Colony present day Ghana as a model school in 1927 Ideas brought from different sources were mingled and converged on the areas where the motivations of actors have coincided The local and the global was linked through the chains of discourse interacting with global economic political and social concerns The book also vividly describes how the ideals of colonial education were realized in Achimota School

Researching Global Education Policy D. Brent Edwards Jr., Antoni Verger, Marcia McKenzie, Keita Takayama, 2024-07-30 The movement of policy is a core feature of contemporary education reform Many different concepts including policy transfer borrowing and lending travelling diffusion and mobility have been deployed to study how and why policy moves across jurisdictions scales of governance policy sectors or organisations However the underlying theoretical perspectives and the foundational assumptions of different approaches to policy movement remain insufficiently discussed To address this gap this book places front and center questions of theory ontology epistemology and method related to policy movement It explores a wide diversity of approaches to help understand the policy movement phenomena providing a useful guide on global studies in education as well as insights into the future of this dynamic area of work
