CCSS skill sets Getting to the Common Core Sharon L. Spencer, Sandra Vavra, 2015-01-01 The Common Core Standards have recently been adopted in most states across the nation and teachers are in the process of getting to the core of these standards Teaching to standards is not a new concept teachers have adapted to new standards every few years for quite some time And teachers are adaptable as can be seen in this book We are writing this book to demonstrate how teachers use research based strategies to meet Common Core Standards while still focusing on students Our goal is to help teachers visualize students in action as other teachers describe the implementation of research based strategies in their own classrooms show student work samples and provide reflections of student success in achieving the standards Many Common Core Standards books focus on the standards but our approach focuses on strategies that engage the students in the classroom showing how different teachers at varying grade levels have used the strategies to meet the standards With this focus we believe that teachers gain a new and positive perspective on approaching the new standards and see the flexibility of strategies for meeting standards across subject areas We have examined research on the strategies with the purpose of giving teachers a brief description of why these strategies work before giving actual examples from classrooms We also work closely with teachers in the public schools and have our finger on the pulse of what is happening in the public schools one of the current stressors being unpacking the Common Core Standards This book actually focuses on practice We begin by laying out a rationale in our first chapter The Core Values of Education Then each chapter focuses on a strategy including 1 a brief description about the research supporting each strategy and 2 several examples from different grade levels which include a description of how the strategy was used student work samples and a reflection on the use of the strategy The research descriptions are fairly short because while we believe professional educators aka teachers in this case should know the research that supports practice we know they are not typically interested in long diatribes about the research would be bounded by the time available in a one semester class and by resource constraints We did exploratory inquiry supported by literature reviews reports on rigorous research studies and in one case an exploratory case study The policies we chose to explore such as EFA and NCLB offered us the opportunity to examine current reform tendencies that are intended to provide access to quality education for all children the preparation of teachers to support diverse populations the organization of schools to accommodate these children in response to vague policy mandates and power issues affecting the different constituencies and stakeholders The effects of these and other policies were difficult to track because research is scant and decisions are frequently made based on ideology or political persuasion Our purpose was to explore the critical issues that originated such policies and to search for documented evidence regarding policy implementation and effectiveness We investigated the factors that seemed to interfere with successful implementation from conceptual theoretical and methodological perspectives In this class we learned that there are not ready set frameworks for policy analysis but rather that these have to be constructed according to the issues that emerge as policies are conceptualized and implemented to fit local contexts and needs The book pays particular attention to the contexts of policy including the evolving conceptualization of global and local systems of governance knowledge regimes and policy spaces The book is designed for faculty and doctoral students in education who are interested in understanding diverse frameworks for policy analysis and for those in the general public who are interested in the policies we analyze here
