Health Informatics: Digital Health Service Delivery - The Future is Now! H. Grain,L.K. Schaper,2013-06-27 Healthcare systems around the world are going through immense changes as innovative approaches to healthcare delivery are adopted to reduce cost and improve quality of care Health informatics professionals are increasingly required to support these changes and innovation learning from experience and sharing ideas are essential to delivering the promises of e health This book presents the proceedings of the 21st Australian National Health Informatics Conference HIC 2013 held in Adelaide Australia in July 2013 The theme of HIC 2013 is Digital Health Service Delivery the Future is Now emphasising the urgency of the need to embrace and advance the field of health informatics The 28 papers in this volume examine and discuss directions successes and other factors which need to be considered by all those involved in developing or implementing new health informatics systems They present a wide diversity of work ranging from deeply theoretical to intensely practical and represent experiences not only from Australasia but also from many other parts of the world Topics covered include the design of viable and sustainable telehealth services building an educated health informatics workforce how to prepare health professionals for e health as a life long learning process improving the cancer patient journey designing a diabetes mobile application with social network support as well as many others This book will be of interest to all those involved in the current and future provision of healthcare services Sustainability Accounting Ataur Belal,Stuart Cooper,Sophie Giordano-Spring,Jonathan Maurice,Charles H. Cho,2018-04-06 Advances in Environmental Accounting Management aims to advance knowledge of the management of corporate environmental impacts It aims to increase the awareness of management accounting practitioners investors and other stakeholders of the financial and social consequences of corporate environmental impacts Children, Youth, and Participatory Arts for Peacebuilding Ananda Breed,Helena-Ulrike Marambio,Kirrily Pells,Rajib Timalisina,2024-06-14 This book demonstrates how participatory arts based approaches can help children and youth contribute to peacebuilding within post conflict contexts and to their communities Cultural forms of storytelling through visual arts drama music and dance can help to enhance post conflict community well being social cohesion and conflict prevention However in the planning and implementation of these arts based projects children and youth are often marginalised in decision making processes Drawing on cases from Kyrgyzstan Rwanda Indonesia and Nepal this book demonstrates the benefits of participatory action research with children and youth to inform education curricula and policies for sustaining peace Showing how artforms can be adapted to meet the needs of children and youth the book emphasises the need to scale up arts based peacebuilding initiatives and leverage for greater policy enactment from the bottom up It is also an excellent example of South South learning advocating for a local approach to engage with arts based methodologies and peacebuilding This book will be of interest to researchers across the applied arts sociology anthropology political science peacebuilding and international development Practitioners and policymakers would also benefit from the book s recommendations for the implementation of successful arts based research projects and interventions
