Competency Based Resumes:

Competency-Based Resumes Robin Kessler, 2004-11-15 Millions of job hunters and employers are frustrated Why aren't they working together more effectively Because employers have changed the job search playing field and too many candidates are using yesterday's strategies Do you want the key to the best jobs with the best employers It's time to play offense instead of defense Competency Based Resumes shows today's job candidates a new more targeted way to write resumes to get them back on the same playing field with the best employers and improve their odds of winning the job they want The system an employer uses when filling jobs has changed significantly in the past few years and it is still evolving Rather than simply looking at an applicant's past jobs companies are instead looking at candidate's experiences in certain key areas including measurable work habits and the personal skills known as competencies used to achieve objectives at work Competency Based Resumes offers you a new and effective way to create resumes that emphasize the knowledge skills and abilities that you have and employers need Many sophisticated U.S. and international organizations are using competency based systems to recruit interview select and promote Corporations such as American Express Coca Cola Sears and MetLife are all looking for specific competencies Creating your own competency based resume will Confirm to the employer that you have the expertise or competencies they are looking for Improve your chances of being selected for interviews for the position you want Help you to be perceived as being more competitive Enable you to explain sticky areas in your background in a more positive way Most applicants do not know how to apply for jobs based on this new dynamic Few candidates write their resumes so their critical competencies are obvious Competency Based Resumes will move your resume to the top of the pile giving you the edge you need in any job market no matter how competitive

Competency-based Resumes Robin Kessler, Linda A. Strasburg, 2005-01-01 This book shows today's job candidates a new more targeted way to write resumes to get them back on the same playing field with the best employers and improve their odds of winning the job they want The system an employer uses when filling jobs has changed significantly in the past few years and it is still evolving Rather than simply looking at an applicant's past jobs companies are instead looking at candidate's experiences in certain key areas including measurable work habits and the personal skills known as competencies used to achieve objectives at work Competency Based Resumes offers you a new and effective way to create resumes that emphasize the knowledge skills and abilities that you have and employers need

Competency-Based Performance Reviews Robin Kessler, 2009-04-02 Competency Based Performance Reviews offers you a new and more effective way to handle performance reviews and to coach your employees to emphasize the knowledge skills and abilities that they have and the organization needs Most sophisticated U.S. and international employers are using competency based systems to select and interview their employees as well as evaluate the performance of those employees Fortune 500 corporations such as American Express Anheuser Busch Coca Cola Disney Federal Express IBM Johnson Johnson and Pfizer are all looking for specific competencies Competency

Based Performance Reviews includes sample phrases to use on reviews as well as sample accomplishment statements to help employees write and improve their own Competency-Based Performance Reviews (EasyRead Large Bold Edition)

Robin Kessler, 2008 Managers working in today's organizations often focus more on results than on the people who achieve those results. But regularly evaluating the performance of your employees is critical to improving the efficiency and output of your organization. Performance reviews have changed significantly in the past few years. Companies today are looking for the key characteristics known as competencies that help the most successful people in their field to be so successful. Managers and employees need to focus on those competencies especially during performance review discussions.

Competency-Based Interviews, Revised Edition Robin Kessler, 2012-06-22 People interviewing for jobs today often fail because they are using yesterday's strategies. Technology is becoming more sophisticated and virtual assessment centers are being used to assess how strong candidates are in key competency areas. Global competencies are being used to help organizations choose people for international assignments or simply to work on diverse international teams. The best employers are constantly changing the way interviews are done. This newly revised edition of Competency Based Interviews offers you a new and more effective way to handle the tough new interviews so that you will emphasize the knowledge, skills, and abilities that you have and that employers demand. Preparing for a competency based interview will give you the strategy you need to be selected for the most competitive positions. Win the best job at a new organization. Get a great first job or internship. Be chosen for that critical promotion in your current organization. Take control of your career path. Increase your salary. Secure more interesting assignments and more interesting work. Competency-Based Performance Reviews (EasyRead Super Large 18pt Edition) ,
