Empire of Extinction Ryan Tucker Jones,2014-05-14 In the second half of the eighteenth century the Russian Empire already the largest on earth expanded its dominion onto the ocean Through a series of government sponsored voyages of discovery and the establishment of a private fur trade Russians crossed and re crossed the Bering Strait and the North Pacific Ocean establishing colonies in Kamchatka and Alaska and exporting marine mammal furs to Europe and China In the process they radically transformed the North Pacific causing environmental catastrophe In one of the most hotly contested imperial arenas of the day the Russian empire organized a host of Siberian and Alaskan native peoples to rapaciously hunt for fur seals sea otters and other fur bearing animals The animals declined precipitously and Steller s sea cow went extinct This destruction captured the attention of natural historians who for the first time began to recognize the threat of species extinction These experts drew upon Enlightenment and Romantic era ideas about nature and imperialism but their ideas were refracted through Russian scientific culture and influenced by the region s unique ecology Cosmopolitan scientific networks ensured the spread of their ideas throughout Europe Heeding the advice of these scientific experts Russian colonial governors began long term management of marine mammal stocks and instituted some of the colonial world s most forward thinking conservationist policies Highlighting the importance of the North Pacific in Russian imperial and global environmental history Empire of Extinction focuses on the development of ideas about the natural world in a crucial location far from what has been considered the center of progressive environmental attitudes Indigenous Enlightenment Stuart D. McKee,2023 In Indigenous Enlightenment Stuart D McKee examines the methodologies tools and processes that British and American educators developed to inculcate Indigenous cultures of reading and learning between 1790 and 1850

Enlightenment Cosmopolitanism David Adams,2017-07-05 Enlightenment Cosmopolitanism brings together ten innovative contributions by outstanding scholars working across a wide array of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences Interdisciplinary in its methodology and compass with a strong comparative European dimension the volume examines discourses ranging from literature historiography music and opera to anthropology and political philosophy It makes an original contribution to the study of 18th century ideas of universal peace progress and wealth as the foundation of future debates on cosmopolitanism At the same time it analyses examples of counter reaction to these ideas and discusses the relevance of the Enlightenment for subsequent polemics on cosmopolitanism including 21st century debates in sociology politics and legal theory

A History of the Literature of the U.S. South: Volume 1 Harilaos Stecopoulos,2021-05-05 A History of the Literature of the U S South provides scholars with a dynamic and heterogeneous examination of southern writing from John Smith to Natasha Trethewey Eschewing a master narrative limited to predictable authors and titles the anthology adopts a variegated approach that emphasizes the cultural and political tensions crucial to the making of this regional literature Certain chapters focus on major white writers e g Thomas Jefferson William Faulkner the Agrarians

Cormac McCarthy but a substantial portion of the work foregrounds the achievements of African American writers like Frederick Douglass Zora Neale Hurston and Sarah Wright to address the multiracial and transnational dimensions of this literary formation Theoretically informed and historically aware the volume s contributors collectively demonstrate how southern literature constitutes an aesthetic cultural and political field that richly repays examination from a variety of critical perspectives

Indigeneity and the Decolonizing Gaze Robert Stam,2023-01-26 Against the long historical backdrop of 1492 Columbus and the Conquest Robert Stam s wide ranging study traces a trajectory from the representation of indigenous peoples by others to self representation by indigenous peoples often as a form of resistance and rebellion to colonialist or neoliberal capitalism across an eclectic range of forms of media arts and social philosophy Spanning national and transnational media in countries including the US Brazil Canada France Germany and Italy Stam orchestrates a dialogue between the western mediated gaze on the Indian and the indigenous gaze itself especially as incarnated in the burgeoning movement of indigenous media that is the use of audio visual digital media for the social and cultural purposes of indigenous peoples themselves Drawing on examples from cinema literature music video painting and stand up comedy Stam shows how indigenous artists intellectuals and activists are responding to the multiple crises climatological economic political racial and cultural confronting the world Significant attention is paid to the role of arts based activism in supporting the struggle of indigenous artistic activism of the Yanomami people specifically to save the Amazon forest and the planet

Liberalism and the British Empire in Southeast Asia Gareth Knapman,Anthony Milner,Mary Quilty,2018-10-10 This collection of essays collects the leading scholars on British colonial thought in Southeast Asia to consider the question what was the relationship between liberalism and the British Empire in Southeast Asia The empire builders in Southeast Asia Lord Minto William Farquhar John Leyden Thomas Stamford Raffles and John Crawfurd to name a few were fervent believers in a liberal free trade order in Southeast Asia Many recent studies of British imperialism and European imperialism more generally have addressed how the anti imperialist tradition of Eighteenth century liberalism was increasingly intertwined with the discourses of empire freedom race and economics in the nineteenth century This collection extends those studies to look at the impact of liberalism on British colonialism in Southeast Asia and early nineteenth century Southeast Asia we see some of the first attempts at developing multicultural democracies within the colonies experiments in free trade and attempts to use free trade to prevent war and colonisation

Postcolonial Historical Materialism Filippo Menozzi,2025-03-27 Through a reappraisal of the work of four major figures in critical theory Ernst Bloch Georg Luk cs Theodor Adorno and Walter Benjamin Filippo Menozzi rethinks the tradition of critical theory in relation to pressing concerns in postcolonial studies Revealing these authors continued relevance to urgent issues in the 21st century from struggles against racism to social movements and the transmutations of global capitalism Menozzi reimagines them as central to an alternative genealogy of critical theory that moves beyond their European provenance and the limitations of Western Marxism In doing so this book challenges more broadly the view of critical theory as steeped in Eurocentrism culturally conservative and politically defeatist Contesting this in four chapters Postcolonial Historical Materialism inserts Adorno Luk cs Bloch and Benjamin into key contemporary sites of militancy and debate Engaging with a wide range of European and non European sources Menozzi proposes a new concept of postcolonial historical materialism indicating how the heritage of critical theory can reopen global possibilities of utopia and revolution in a non utopian age of global emergencies social unrest and the unfinished history of decolonisation     Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2003
