Where's the Wonder in Elementary Math? Judith McVarish,2012-08-21 This book argues that even in today's high stakes testing environment teaching to the test need not be teachers only focus as they introduce young children to mathematics Judith McVarish demonstrates how building a community of learners and using problem solving to engage students can help teachers encourage students disposition to creative thinking and reasoning skills that can otherwise become lost due to the pressure of the many other expectations placed upon both teachers and students This book offers strategies for infusing mathematics learning and reasoning into elementary school classrooms while meeting curriculum and testing mandates The teacher researcher component of each chapter provides a vehicle for teachers to bring their own expertise and questions back into the teaching and learning equation

Blackboard Lewis Buzbee,2014-08-05 A captivating meditation on education from the author of The Yellow Lighted Bookshop In Blackboard Lewis Buzbee looks back over a lifetime of experiences in schools and classrooms from kindergarten to college and beyond He offers fascinating histories of the key ideas informing educational practice over the centuries which have shaped everything from class size to the layout of desks and chairs Buzbee deftly weaves his own biography into this overview approaching his subject as a student a father and a teacher In so doing he offers a moving personal testament to how he an average student in danger of flunking out of high school became the first in his family to graduate from college He credits his success to the well funded California public school system and bemoans the terrible price that state is paying as a result of funding being cut from today's budgets For Buzbee the blackboard is a precious window into the wider world which we ignore at our peril Both anecdotal and eloquent The Yellow Lighted Bookshop is a tribute to those who crave the cozy confines of a bookshop a place to be alone among others and savor a bountiful literary buffet Booklist starred review
