Enterprise And Welfare Reform In Communist Asia Author Peter Ferdinand Apr 2004:

Enterprise and Welfare Reform in Communist Asia Peter Ferdinand, Martin Gainsborough, 2004-08-02 Featuring a wide geographical scope this collection of essays surveys enterprise and welfare reforms in all the remaining four Asian communist states China Vietnam Laos and North Korea Since the collapse of the Soviet Union they can no longer place major reliance upon assistance from other fraternal states and have to devise their own strategies for survival All have shown a trend towards greater reliance on market forces though in different ways and to varying degrees Enterprise management has to adapt to this In some of them entrepreneurs have become politically and socially acceptable They may even begin to set trends for social evolution Yet since state enterprises used to be responsible for all welfare payments to employees and their families management reforms cannot be separated from those of welfare arrangements Reducing an enterprise's non commercial obligations for the sake of greater market efficiency is bound to affect welfare provision It also reopens the role of official trade unions How these regimes cope with these conflicting pressures are vital factors in their long term viability
