Kuan-yin Chün-fang Yü, 2001-03-22 By far one of the most important objects of worship in the Buddhist traditions the bodhisattva Avalokitesvara is regarded as the embodiment of compassion He has been widely revered throughout the Buddhist countries of Asia since the early centuries of the Common Era While he was closely identified with the royalty in South and Southeast Asia and the Tibetans continue to this day to view the Dalai Lamas as his incarnations in China he became a she Kuan yin the Goddess of Mercy and has a very different history The causes and processes of this metamorphosis have perplexed Buddhist scholars for centuries In this groundbreaking comprehensive study Ch n fang Y discusses this dramatic transformation of the male Indian bodhisattva Avalokitesvara into the female Chinese Kuan yin from a relatively minor figure in the Buddha s retinue to a universal savior and one of the most popular deities in Chinese religion Focusing on the various media through which the feminine Kuan yin became constructed and domesticated in China Y thoroughly examines Buddhist scriptures miracle stories pilgrimages popular literature and monastic and local gazetteers as well as the changing iconography reflected in Kuan yin s images and artistic representations to determine the role this material played in this amazing transformation The book eloquently depicts the domestication of Kuan yin as a case study of the indigenization of Buddhism in China and illuminates the ways this beloved deity has affected the lives of all Chinese people down the ages The Archetypal Imagination James Hollis, 2002-11-25 Also available in an open access full text edition at <http://oaktrust.library.tamu.edu/handle/1969/1/85764> What we wish to know and most desire remains unknowable and lies beyond our grasp With these words James Hollis leads readers to consider the nature of our human need for meaning in life and for connection to a world less limiting than our own In The Archetypal Imagination Hollis offers a lyrical Jungian appreciation of the archetypal imagination He argues that without the human mind's ability to form energy filled images that link us to worlds beyond our rational and emotional capacities we would have neither culture nor spirituality Drawing upon the work of poets and philosophers Hollis shows the importance of depth experience meaning and connection to an other world Just as humans have instincts for biological survival and social interaction we have instincts for spiritual connection as well Just as our physical and social needs seek satisfaction so the spiritual instincts of the human animal are expressed in images we form to evoke an emotional or spiritual response as in our dreams myths and religious traditions The author draws upon the work of the poet Rainer Maria Rilke's Duino Elegies to elucidate the archetypal imagination in literary forms To underscore the importance of incarnating depth experience he also examines a series of paintings by Nancy Witt With the power of the archetypal imagination available to all of us we are invited to summon courage to take on the world anew to relinquish outmoded identities and defenses and to risk a radical reimagining of the larger possibilities of the world and of the self International Handbook of Holistic Education John P. Miller, Kelli

Nigh, Marni J. Binder, Bruce Novak, Sam Crowell, 2018-09-14 Providing a comprehensive overview of holistic education's history conceptions practices and research this Handbook presents an up to date global picture of the field Organized in five sections the Handbook lays out the field's theoretical and historical foundations offers examples of holistic education in practice with regard to schools programs and pedagogies at all levels presents research methods used in holistic education outlines the growing effort among holistic educators to connect holistic teaching and learning with research practice and examines present trends and future areas of interest in program development inquiry and research This volume is a must have resource for researchers and practitioners and serves as an essential foundational text for courses in the field

Apologetics for a New Generation Sean McDowell, 2009-03-01 Many teenagers leave home for college but don't take their faith with them Popular writer and speaker Sean McDowell offers a solution for this problem a new way of approaching faith that addresses the questions the emerging generation is asking and that incorporates a radically humble and relational approach An impressive list of contributors including Dan Kimball They Like Jesus but Not the Church Brian Godawa Hollywood Worldviews and Josh McDowell show that today's apologetics must employ a clear connection with everyday life an invitation for people to express their doubts and wrestle with tough questions a culturally savvy understanding of the way secular people view Christians an engaging methodology that captures the imagination before engaging the mind a strong emphasis on the resurrection and how it changes everything This resource is imperative for leaders who are ready to engage a new generation with the claims of Christ
