Designs for Castles and Country Villas Robert Adam, Alistair John Rowan, James Adam, Alistair Rowan, 1985

Designs for Castles and Country Villas by Robert & James Adam Rowan, 1985 Designs for Castles and Country Villas by Robert & James Adam Alistair John Rowan, 1985 Designs for Castles and Country Villas by Robert & James Adams James Adam, 1985 Reading Architectural History Dana Arnold, 2003-09-02 Architectural history is more than just the study of buildings Architecture of the past and present remains an essential emblem of a distinctive social system and set of cultural values and as a result it has been the subject of study of a variety of disciplines But what is architectural history and how should we read it Reading Architectural History examines the historiographic and socio cultural implications of the mapping of British architectural history with particular reference to eighteenth and nineteenth century Britain Discursive essays consider a range of writings from biographical and social histories to visual surveys and guidebooks to examine the narrative structures of histories of architecture and their impact on perception and understanding of the architecture of the past Alongside this each chapter cites canonical histories juxtaposed with a range of social and cultural theorists to reveal that these writings are richer than we have perhaps recognised and that architectural production in this period can be interrogated in the same way as that from more recent past and can be read in a variety of ways The essays and texts combine to form an essential course reader for methods and critical approaches to architectural history and more generally as examples of the kind of evidence used in the formation of architectural histories while also offering a thematic introduction to architecture in Britain and its social and cultural meaning English Architecture Public & Private John F. Bold, 1993-07-01 This book brings together twenty four original essays by colleagues pupils and friends of Kerry Downes The essays range from the late middle ages to the twentieth century but are concentrated on the period to the study of which Kerry Downes has contributed so much that of Wren Vanbrugh and Hawksmoor Taken together these essays display the different approaches taken by architectural historians and the rich variety of English architecture Complete Works of Robert and James Adam and Unbuilt Adam David King, 2013-09-13 This volume is a unique compendium of the works of Robert and James Adam both built and unbuilt It includes 900 illustrations The Complete Works of Robert and James Adam is reprinted here in its entirety updated and corrected This title covers every one of the 230 or so built works including 12 that have been recently discovered It is complemented by a completely new title Unbuilt Adam This mentions all the brothers important unbuilt projects and it discusses and illustrates 130 of them This volume gives an exceptionally thorough review of the brothers designs From public buildings to country houses and monuments to ceilings it is well informed and erudite It provides a mine of information for both the expert and the general reader and it uses the works covered to give an understanding of the Adam manner Dr Johnson's Friend and Robert Adam's Client Topham Beauclerk David Noy, 2016-05-11 Dr Johnson said that he would walk to the ends of the earth to save Beauclerk Other people who claimed to be his friends rejoiced at his early death How did the beautiful youth of Francis Coates 1756 portrait become a man whose greatest claim to fame was causing an infestation of lice at Blenheim Palace through lack of personal hygiene A great grandson of Charles II and Nell Gwyn he lived a privileged life thanks to fortuitously inherited wealth He employed Robert Adam to build him a house at Muswell Hill which has almost completely disappeared from the records of Adam's work due to a dispute about the bill He was one of the leading book collectors of the time with a library of 30 000 volumes whose sale after his death was a major literary event He also used his wealth to indulge interests in science and astronomy and a passion for gambling As a result he ran through his inheritance as quickly as he could sell it falling into ever increasing debt as his lawyer grew richer Beauclerk knew all the leading figures of the British and French Enlightenments He was a friend of Johnson Adam Smith David Hume Horace Walpole Sir Joshua Reynolds John Wilkes and David Garrick He met Rousseau and Voltaire and immersed himself in French salon culture He could charm people when he chose to but did not always try Recently he has been overshadowed by his wife Lady Diana Spencer whose life by Carola Hicks Improper Pursuits 2001 has made her artistic talent and unconventional life well known The story of their adultery and marriage has not previously been told from Beauclerk's point of view and many other inaccuracies have crept into authoritative works such as the ODNB he is regularly and unfairly dismissed as a bad husband This biography shows that he was much more than the close associate of Johnson known from the pages of Boswell a man of widely varied interests from the Grand Tour to the contemporary theatre who lived Enlightenment life to the full in a way which would not have been possible a generation earlier or later Based on research in unpublished letters legal documents and financial records including some concerning the Adam house as well as published diaries letters and memoirs it shows that he may have left no enduring legacy of his many talents as even his friends admitted but he made the most of all the opportunities available and lived a fascinating life which illuminates every aspect of Georgian elite society from auctions to zoology from care of one's wig to building an observatory and from mishaps in Venice to sea therapy in Brighton Robert and James Adam, Architects of the Age of Enlightenment Ariyuki

Kondo, 2015-10-06 During the second half of the eighteenth century British architecture moved away from the dominant school of classicism in favour of a more creative freedom of expression At the forefront of this change were architect brothers Robert and James Adam Kondo's work places them within the context of eighteenth century intellectual thought The Oxford Dictionary of Architecture James Stevens Curl, Susan Wilson, 2015 With over 6 000 entries this is the most authoritative dictionary of architectural history available Hidden Patrons Amy Boyington, 2023-11-02 An enduring myth of Georgian architecture is that it was purely the pursuit of male architects and their wealthy male patrons History states that it was men who owned grand estates and houses who commissioned famous architects and who embarked upon elaborate architectural schemes Hidden Patrons dismantles this myth revealing instead that women were at the heart of the architectural patronage of the day exerting far more influence and agency than has previously been recognised Architectural drawing and design discourse and patronage were interests shared by many women in the eighteenth century Far from being the preserve of elite men architecture was a passion shared by both sexes intellectually and practically as long as they possessed sufficient wealth and autonomy In an accessible readable account Hidden Patrons uncovers the role of women as important patrons and designers of architecture and interiors in eighteenth century Britain and Ireland Exploring country houses Georgian townhouses villas estates and gardens it analyses female patronage from across the architectural spectrum and examines the work of a range of pioneering women from grand duchesses to businesswomen to lowly courtesans Re-examining well known Georgian masterpieces alongside lesser known architectural gems Hidden Patrons unearths unseen archival material to provide a fascinating new view of the role of women in the architecture of the Georgian era The 17th and 18th Centuries Frank N. Magill, 2013-09-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in-depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Picturesque Designs for Mansions, Villas, Lodges, &c Charles James Richardson, 1870 Design and Plan in the Country House Andor Harvey Gomme, Austin Harvey Gomme, Alison Maguire, 2008-01-01 The way a man thinks about his day to day living and the needs of his household reveals a great deal about his ambitions his idea of himself and his role in the community And his house or castle offers many clues to his habits as well as those of the members of his household This intriguing book explores the evolution of country house plans throughout Britain and Ireland from medieval times to the eighteenth century With photographs and detailed architectural plans of each house under discussion the book presents a whole range of new insights into how these homes were designed and what their varied designs tell us about the lives of their residents Starting with fortified medieval tower houses the book traces patterns that developed and sometimes repeated in country house design over the centuries It discusses who slept in the bedchambers where food was prepared how rooms were arranged for official and private activities what towers signified and more Groundbreaking in its depth the volume offers a rare tour of country houses for scholar and general reader alike The Architects' Journal, 1986 Sir William Chambers John Harris, 1996-02-25 Published on the occasion of the exhibition Courtauld Gallery London 10 October 1996 5 January 1997 Natiobalmuseum Stockholm 20 February 20 April 1997 Articulating British Classicism Elizabeth McKellar, 2017-07-05 Whereas the past decades have seen a profound reconsideration of eighteenth century visual culture the architecture of that century has undergone little evaluation Its study unlike that of the early modern period or the twentieth century has continued to use essentially the same methods and ideas over the last fifty years Articulating British Classicism reconsiders

the traditional historiography of British eighteenth century architecture as it was shaped after World War II and brings together for the first time a variety of new perspectives on British classicism in the period Drawing on current thinking about the eighteenth century from a range of disciplines the book examines such topics as social and gender identities colonialization and commercialization notions of the rural urban and suburban as well as issues of theory and historiography Canonical constructions of Georgian architecture are explored including current evaluations of the continental intellectual background the relationship with mid seventeenth century Stuart court classicism and the development of the subject in the twentieth century

Hints for Picturesque Improvements in Ornamented Cottages Edmund Bartell, 1804 The Architects' and Mechanics' Journal ,1860 Catalogue of the Books Relating to Architecture, Construction and Decoration in the Public Library of the City of Boston, November 1, 1894, with an Appendix Boston Public Library, 1894
