Immigration Policy in the Federal Republic of Germany Douglas B. Klusmeyer, Demetrios G. Papademetriou, 2009
German migration policy now stands at a major crossroad caught between a fifty year history of missed opportunities and serious new challenges Focusing on these new challenges that German policy makers face the authors both internationally recognized in this field use historical argument theoretical analysis and empirical evaluation to advance a more nuanced understanding of recent initiatives and the implications of these initiatives Their approach combines both synthesis and original research in a presentation that is not only accessible to the general educated reader but also addresses the concerns of academic scholars and policy analysts This important volume offers a comprehensive and critical examination of the history of German migration law and policy from the Federal Republic s inception in 1949 to the present

A Story to Save Your Life Sarah Bishop, 2022-08-16 Winner 2023 OHA Book Award Oral History Association A young woman flees violence in Mexico and seeks protection in the United States only to be trafficked as a domestic worker in the Bronx A decorated immigration judge leaves his post when the policies he proudly upheld capsize in the wake of political turmoil A Gambian translator who was granted asylum herself talks with other African women about how immigration officers expect victims of torture to behave A border patrol officer begins to question the training that instructs him to treat the children he finds in the Arizona desert like criminals Through these and other powerful firsthand accounts A Story to Save Your Life offers new insight into the harrowing realities of seeking protection in the United States Sarah C Bishop argues that cultural differences in communication shape every stage of the asylum process playing a major but unexamined role Migrants fleeing persecution must reconstruct the details of their lives so governmental authorities can determine whether their experiences justify protection However Bishop shows many factors influence whether an applicant is perceived as credible from the effects of trauma on the ability to recount an experience chronologically to culturally rooted nonverbal behaviors and displays of emotion For asylum seekers harnessing the power of autobiographical storytelling can mean the difference between life and death A Story to Save Your Life emphasizes how memory communication and culture intertwine in migrants search for safety
