The Poetry of Silence: A Lay Cistercian Reflects on Silence and Solitude as He Waits Before the Blessed Sacrament Michael F. Conrad, 2018-09-25 A Lay Cistercian reflects on the poetry of silence and solitude as he waits before the Blessed Sacrament In the past few years having retired and found myself one day watching the Weather Channel as the highpoint of my day I asked myself Is there anything more to life The answer came in several parts one of which was to begin to vigil wait before the Blessed Sacrament at my parish church It is called exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and gaining in popularity as its counterpart in the World reverts to slandering people's reputation detracting from their contributions to life and prevericating against others Another part of the discovery is that of Lay Cistercian spirituality based on Cistercian practices and charisms All of it is rooted in transforming oneself from our false self to our new self in Christ St Benedict's Rule is an important part of how we apply this to our individual life experiences This book is the result of my Lectio Divina Phil 2:5 meditations before the Blessed Sacrament Many people look for knowledge from books I just sit there in contemplation and my mind is so flooded with wonderful and unexpected thoughts that I have to write them down or lose them much like St John talks about in John 21:24-25

Cistercian Spirituality Francis Acharya, 2011-04-01 Cistercian Spirituality An Ashram Perspective is a spiritual directory written by Fr Francis Acharya for the monastic community that he founded at Kurisumala Kerala India As the editor Fr Michael Casey relates in the introduction This book is offered to a wider world in the hope that it will serve as a means of making and deepening contact with the spirit of the Cistercian tradition not so much as it is written but as it has been lived for over six decades by a deeply spiritual man To those who know of Kurisumala Ashram or who have read the biography of Fr Francis it will provide a gateway to an understanding of the interior life of this remarkable monk In particular his description of the stages of the experience of prayer will certainly be helpful to many who like him are lifelong seekers of the unseen God Francis Acharya OCSO left the Belgian monastery of Scourmont in 1955 after twenty years as a Trappist to live his monastic life in India His experiences put him in contact with such other pioneering spirits as Henri Le Saux Abishiktananda Jules Monchanin In Quest of the Absolute and Bede Griffiths Return to the Centre The Golden String and led to an uncommonly successful inculturation of Christian monasticism within Indian culture and spirituality at Kurisumala where he served as Acharya teacher until his death in 2001 His biography Kurisumala Francis Mahieu Acharya A Pioneer of Christian Monasticism in India is also published by Cistercian Publications

Chumley, 2014 Early Christian spirituality is a topic of enduring fascination today among scholars and general readers alike Stories of hermits living in the desert in their pursuit of God catch our fancy What motivated them and drew them to silence on their path to God In this gracious tour Norris J Chumley introduces us to Hesychasm or the practice of silence and contemplative prayer and to the lives of its early practitioners The reader is introduced to St Anthony St Pachomius Evagrius St John Climacus and many others Then as only a teacher and mentor can he opens up the important possibilities the practice has for today A Light to Enlighten the Darkness Emma Cazabonne, 2008 God is light says Saint John and in him there is no darkness at all These passages from the works of early Cistercian monks and nuns reflect on the mystery of that divine light If we have the light of Christ in our heart we discover it is there to shine both for ourselves and for others and to guide us ever closer to the mystery of God Emma Cazabonne compiled her selections over twenty years of lectio divina and a growing fascination with similarities between Cistercian and Orthodox spirituality

The Way of Silent Love Carthusians, 1993 The Carthusian Order traces its origins to the eleventh century and its tradition has been passed on within the Order from generation to generation It is a rare occurrence for the Order's wisdom to be shared with the outside world but The Way of Silent Love does exactly that Personal transmission is stressed as the father master speaks of the tradition of the spiritual parent who can support affirm give a certain visible and concrete reality to the teaching and action of the master within The theme of this first volume of conferences is the Beatitudes and the apparent contradictions they contain are shown to offer a radical freedom to those who respond to the call to live wholly in Christ An important message of the book is that this call is not restricted to those who have a vocation to the monastic life but to all Christians The Christian is not a separate species of human being but what each person is called to be And the monk is not a separate species of Christian He tries to be what each Christian ought to be Conformity to Christ in faith hope and love this is holiness and each person is called to this holiness

Conrad,2018-08-13 A Lay Cistercian reflects on Chapter 4 of the Rule of St Benedict and how it can transform you from self to God If you want to transform your life from self to God you should know a couple of things Self as I use it means the old self the one who likes to play god makes up their own rules and gives in to temptations of the flesh acting like an animal sometimes Note that you don t do the transforming Christ does so you have to put yourself in a position to be next to the heart of Christ for that to take place Chapter 4 of the Rule of St Benedict 540 BCE is a checklist of those behaviors St Benedict would like his monks to move away from that old self to the new person in Christ These messages are the written results of blogs that I have had as I meditated on Philippians 2 5 blogs about my Lectio Divina prayers The book is laid out with my blog reflections and then space for you to reflect on what I have said It is a private retreat based on some issues you probably would never have considered on your own I use the Cistercian approach to spirituality as practiced by Lay Cistercians This is a contemplative approach to life stressing silence solitude work prayer and community as ways to seek God as you live out whatever life happens your way Https thecenterforcontemplativepractice org
