New Kinds Of Smart: Teaching Young People To Be Intelligent For Today'S World Lucas, Bill, Claxton, Guy, 2010-03-01 New Kinds of Smart presents the most important of these changes to practising teachers and educators and invites them to think about their implications for school

New Kinds of Smart: Teaching Young People to Be Intelligent for Today's World Bill Lucas, Guy Claxton, 2010-03-16 How people think about education depends on how they understand the notion of intelligence Teaching reflects assumptions about what kinds of mental qualities are worth having and about the extent to which those qualities are fixed or malleable As the idea of intelligence changes so should the aims and methods of education It s time to bring intelligence into the real world In the early 21st century our understanding of the smart mind is changing fast The demands of society are now quite different from those when schools were first designed so the kinds of smart necessary to craft a happy and fulfilling life have changed As life becomes more complex ambiguous and uncertain so a different set of mental and emotional attitudes are needed to thrive Meanwhile researchers in the cognitive affective and learning sciences are developing new models of the smart mind that make it clear that bodies tools and social contacts are as much a part of intelligence as abstract problem solving New Kinds of Smart presents the most important of these changes to practising teachers and educators and invites them to think about their implications for school Each chapter illustrates the research behind one of the emerging new kinds of smart summarises the messages that this research has for practitioners and presents practical examples tools and templates that educators can use to weave this new strand of thinking into their work as teachers and their lives as learners

American Craft , 2006

Confucian Philosophy for Contemporary Education Charlene Tan, 2020-05-28 Most people would not associate Confucian philosophy with contemporary education After all the former is an ancient Chinese tradition and the latter is a modern phenomenon But this book shows otherwise by explaining how millennia old Confucian ideas and practices can inform inspire and improve school administration teaching and learning today Drawing upon major Confucian texts such as the Analects and Mencius as well as influential thinkers such as Confucius Zhu Xi and Empress Xu the various chapters address current educational issues and challenges such as the following What roles do schools play in fighting the coronavirus pandemic How can humanity resolve the climate emergency What more should school leaders do to promote education for girls Is there more to lifelong learning than just skills upgrading What is missing in the existing frameworks on 21st century competencies What new initiatives are needed to champion sustainable development Confucian Philosophy for Contemporary Education answers the above questions and more by presenting a Confucian model of education The author proposes a Confucian school where Dao a shared vision of human excellence is realised through a mindful learning centred action oriented and ultimately humanising form of education This book is a useful resource for academic researchers educators students and general readers on Confucian philosophy and its continual relevance for present day education
