Collaborate Family Church:

Perspectives on Family Ministry Paul Renfro, 2009 A point counterpoint discussion of differing family ministry approaches Family Integrated Church Family Driven Faith Family Based Ministry Separated Contexts Shared Focus and Family Equipping Ministry Church and Home as Co Champions Collaborate Michael Chanley, 2010-03-08 Attract Families to Your Church and Keep Them Coming Back Linda Ranson Jacobs, 2014-05-20 To grow and remain vital churches need to attract families But the cultural landscape has changed and any church may have two parent families with children blended families boomerang families adult children of divorce and their families or lack of families single adults whose family is the church grandparents parenting again childless families co habitation families and children with three legal parents What ministries are helpful in attracting and keeping families active and engaged in the life and mission of the church This book will help church pastors and leaders navigate the changing tides in ministry to become the kind of church that families want to attend where the church s dynamic faith invites families who may then bring their friends This means reaching out to all kinds of families some with needs that only a church family can fulfill With practical helps and suggestions for ministries worship small groups and even facilities author and family expert Linda Ranson Jacobs will help you create a welcoming place for everyone Critical Collaboration C. Guy Robinson, 2019-07-31 Critical Collaboration is about the critical need for partnership between pastors and mental health professionals in service to urban African American communities While the historically African American church has done commendable work in its virtually exclusive role as emotional caregiver there is a disproportionate susceptibility to certain mental illnesses in the African American community which calls for a collaborative effort to advance the cause of holistic health Critical Collaboration provides historical socioeconomic theological and psychological contexts that serve to increase the awareness and cultural competence needed to bridge the gap between the professional communities of faith and mental health Church, State, and Family John Witte (Jr.), 2019-04-11 Presents a robust defence of the essential place of stable marital families in modern liberal societies Between Opposition and Collaboration Richard Ninness, 2011-09-09 This study of the Catholic Prince Bishopric of Bamberg and its largely Protestant aristocracy demonstrates that shared family ties and traditional privilege could reduce religious based conflict These findings raise fundamental questions about current interpretations of the Reformation era Prince bishops regularly appointed Lutheran nobles to administrative positions and those Lutheran appointees served their Catholic overlords ably and loyally Bamberg was a center for social interaction business transactions and career opportunities for aristocrats As these nobles saw it birthright and kinship ties made them suitable for service in the prince bishopric Catholic leaders concurred confessional differences notwithstanding This study tells the complicated story of how Lutheran nobles and their Catholic relatives struggled to maintain solidarity and cooperation during an era of religious strife and animosity Decolonizing Development and Religion Joerg Rieger, Sanjana Das, 2025-05-30 Discourses of development have been part of the modern world for good or for ill In the past various colonialisms have been justified by the notion of development but so have efforts to provide alternatives to colonization In this volume present day development and decolonial discourses are engaged together from a plurality of perspectives from various continents around the globe In the chapters that follow the work of junior and senior scholars enters into conversation around specific communities that exist in the tensions of traditional and capitalist economies and religions providing models of flourishing that produce alternatives to the prevalent neoliberal models of development that are wedded to neocolonial economic political and religious structures Part of a new series of volumes co published with the Council for World Mission s DARE Discernment And Radical Engagement programme Interorganizational Collaboration Renee Guarriello Heath,Matthew G. Isbell,2017-03-08

Interorganizational Collaboration Complexity Ethics and Communication centers around three key assertions 1 interorganizational collaboration is complex and warrants study as a specific type of leadership and communication 2 successful collaborative relationships are grounded in a principled ethic of democratic and egalitarian participation and 3 interorganizational collaboration requires a specific communication language of practice Interorganizational collaboration is influenced by increased interconnectedness shifting organizational needs and a changing workforce Collaboration invokes ethical questions and ethical responsibilities that must be considered in communication practices and structures Although there are many popular books and practitioner materials on collaboration most are not focused on introducing foundational concepts to a novice audience In addition the subject of communication in collaboration has been somewhat underdeveloped The authors focus on communication from a social constructionist stance One of their primary goals is to develop a collaboration pedagogy based on existing communication scholarship The authors present communicative practices vital to interorganizational participation and they view collaboration as something beyond an exchange of resources and knowledge Unlike group and organizational texts that approach collaboration from a functional or strategic perspective this text anchors collaboration in the assumption that democratic and principled communication will foster creative and accountable outcomes for participants in collaborative problem solving The authors articulate a collaborative ethic useful in all communicative contexts Micropractices of communication are fundamental not only to collaborating across organizations but also to fostering just and trusting relationships The book discusses the cornerstone assumptions and principled practices necessary for stakeholders to address problems for example recognizing and validating the needs of fellow stakeholders separating people s positions from underlying interests listening for things that are never quite said identifying overlapping commonalities building trust while respecting difference and constructively navigating conflict The book also focuses on building collaborative praxis based on the assumption of contingency Praxis cultivates knowledge and ethical understanding of a situation so participants in collaborations can make the best decision based on specific circumstances When Collaboration Mirrors the Trinity Avery Stafford,2021-11-30 That they all may be one was Jesus first century prayer With mind and emotions set towards Golgotha he poured out his heart to the Father But what is our twenty first century reality Local churches are siloed Pastors do not know one another and rarely work together Christians drive by church buildings on their way to Sunday worship and seldom pray for one another Vitriolic disunity spews across social media in front of an onlooking world Our culture sees our fractured reality and increasingly dismisses Christianity as a viable option for their lives And it is time for believers to recognize that it is our fault But there is hope When Collaboration Mirrors the Trinity is a timely invitation for local churches to make the practice of unity our new normal Avery Stafford presents a biblical model to actualize this invitation He details four rhythms that mirror the loving community of the Triune God Each one can help pastors lay leaders and faith communities deepen their resolve to bless the world through effective gospel partnerships This work is a bold call for believers to discover an untapped resource for the gospel the believers who attend other churches in their city
