Taught by the Students Ruth Gurgel, 2015-10-22 Within public schools in the United States students of color are truncating their music education experiences at higher rates than their white counterparts Music educators have searched for explanations of this phenomenon as well as effective interventions yet there has been little overall improvement of these statistics Ruth Gurgel presents and analyzes the perspectives of eight students and their teacher in a pluralistic 7th grade choir classroom at Clark Middle School located in a large Midwestern urban school district Through the eyes of the students music teachers gain insight into the complexity of the engagement cycle as well as interventions that increase and maintain deep engagement Ruth Gurgel looks at the intersection of instruction relationships and music in the classroom highlighting how each component affects students Taught by the Students provides an analysis of music education through the lens of Culturally Relevant Pedagogy connecting this body of literature to Ruth Gurgel's research in the music classroom at Clark Middle School

Becoming Apostolic Catherine Sexton, 2024-07-01 This book explores the experience and understanding of Roman Catholic sisters of their vocation to the apostolic form of religious life as they age Based on interviews with twelve religious women it draws on the practice of Lectio Divina to explore how these women describe their call to service and activity at a time in life when these might be curtailed by physical diminishment and increasingly reduced social interaction and influence As the very institutions of religious life are themselves under threat the book identifies new emerging forms of ministry through presence to each other and to their carers

Pastoral Care and

Counseling in Large/Mega Congregations Jean Beedoe, 2016-08-04 Church growth in metropolitan communities motivated a short study concerning the pastoral care and counseling of immigrants specifically Black Caribbean congregants in large mega congregations Culture denomination history and interpretations of scripture enter into the dynamics of defining not only the pastoral office of leaders but their perception of care The phenomenological cycle of care is said to exist as an exchange happens between caregivers and care receivers Such an exploration of three congregations opened up rare concepts of the psycho social and spiritual nature that guide interpersonal relationships of family systems across cultures Large mega congregations desire women s as well as men s style of nurturing and of fellowship that form the characteristics of a sharing caring congregation The study implicated a need for more comprehensive interdisciplinary teaching methods to train church leaders and clergy It signals for an approach in practical theology to develop curricula for spiritual health of cultural plurality in congregations and community

The SAGE Handbook of Grounded Theory Antony Bryant, Kathy Charmaz, 2010-02-11 This Handbook gives a comprehensive overview of the theory and practice of grounded theory taking into account the many attempts to revise and refine Glaser and Strauss original formulation

Practice-Led Theology Neil K. Ferguson, 2024-03-11 Following a series of economic and political changes in the late 1980s art design schools and performing arts academies were incorporated into the university system To justify their teachings as academic research they developed the idea of practice led research Practice led research recognizes two or more languages that is the validity of both explicit propositional knowledge and embodied tacit knowledge allowing for the researcher s corresponding output expressed through both the written word and relevant practice Christians often find themselves living a life of two languages a set of intellectual beliefs and the practice of being a Christian This book develops this methodology and translates it for use in theological research Most importantly it clearly develops key elements of this methodology using a comprehensive model and detailed definitions This is a book which not only presents a fully articulated and flexible model of practice led research but also presents Christian researchers with an approach they could incorporate into their theological work

Ethnographies in Pan Pacific Research Robert E. Rinehart, Elke Emerald, Rangi Matamua, 2015-06-26 The book is about exciting ethnographic happenings in the vibrant and growing global interface which includes Australia New Zealand and some of the Asian geographical regions as well as more broadly the global South It explores ethnographic writing as culture s re produced positionalities of authors tensions between authors and others multi faceted groups and as co productions of these works The contributors describe and discuss a variety of topical areas of interest from Facebook to memory work from children s sexuality to urban racism from meanings of Indigenous knowledge to how communities can come together to retain what is valuable to themselves The authors also manage to locate themselves and others positionings in the research hierarchies tensions This is a valuable guide to the effects of 21st century ethnography on the qualitative research project

Motherhood and Autism Eilidh Campbell, 2021-10-29 While autism is gaining increasing attention as an important subject of theological inquiry the maternal experience of caring for a child with autism has had less attention Traversing issues of gender embodiment disability and motherhood this book explores the distinctness of mothering within the context of autism examining how theology currently responds to the challenges this lived experience presents Weaving together an honest reflection on her own experience with analysis of contemporary theological works on disability and motherhood the book reflects on mothering and especially mothering of autistic children as a unique site of struggle and resistance

Gender Equality in UN Peacekeeping Sally Anne Corcoran, 2024-04-23 This book investigates to what extent UNSCR 1325 WPS agenda has functioned in practice to advance women's equality and empowerment in the peacekeeping context and beyond The book examines whether widespread implementation of UNSCR 1325 and the broader WPS agenda via gender mainstreaming in UN operations has translated into increased gender equality in peacekeeping operations the broader UN institutional context and by extension the host countries in which missions are situated via norm dissemination The book investigates this via a review of the implementation of UNSCR 1325 in the operations chosen as research sites over three snapshot years The book undertakes a comparative analysis that scrutinizes if how and under what conditions gender mainstreaming has succeeded as a strategy to advance gender equality by analyzing the factors conditions that have led to successful gender mainstreaming across the operational context and those that have impeded this outcome The book concludes that despite rhetorical commitments to women's equality in peacekeeping since the passage of UNSCR 1325 progress on the ground has remained minimal and that the operational environment continues to be discriminatory against women Both quantitatively and qualitatively women do not participate as equal partners in peacekeeping and continue to have less access to resources and decision making power overall The book interrogates that by exploring the spaces available within law policy and practice of the UN to pursue the human rights agenda of gender equality and considers whether UNSCR 1325 has enlarged those spaces It also points to the irony of internal UN structures failing to adequately adapt to their own gender mainstreaming mandates while those same structures have delivered some gender equality mandates successes externally at local levels This book will be of interest to students of peacekeeping gender studies and International Relations ECRM2015-Proceedings of the 14th European Conference on Research Methods 2015 Dr Vincent Cassar, Dr Frank Bezzina, 2015-06-01 Complete proceedings of the 14th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business and Management Studies Valletta Malta Published by Academic Conferences and Publishing International Doing Ethnography Today Elizabeth Campbell, Luke Eric Lassiter, 2014-06-27 Doing Ethnography Today explores the methodologies and theories behind contemporary collaborative ethnography and provides an opportunity to cultivate experience with included exercises Presents ethnography as creative and artful rather than analytical or technical Emphasises the collaborative nature of ethnography Structured exercises cultivate practical experience Includes a discussion on indexing and interpreting project materials Provides guidance on interview questions and selecting appropriate field equipment
