Nichter,2020-09-22 The first biography of a man who was at the center of American foreign policy for a generation Few have ever enjoyed the degree of foreign policy influence and versatility that Henry Cabot Lodge Jr did in the postwar era perhaps only George Marshall Henry Kissinger and James Baker Lodge however had the distinction of wielding that influence under presidents of both parties For three decades he was at the center of American foreign policy serving as advisor to five presidents from Dwight Eisenhower to Gerald Ford and as ambassador to the United Nations Vietnam West Germany and the Vatican Lodge s political influence was immense He was the first person in 1943 to see Eisenhower as a potential president he entered Eisenhower in the 1952 New Hampshire primary without the candidate s knowledge crafted his political positions and managed his campaign As UN ambassador in the 1950s Lodge was effectively a second secretary of state In the 1960s he was called twice by John F Kennedy and by Lyndon Johnson to serve in the toughest position in the State Department s portfolio as ambassador to Vietnam In the 1970s he paved the way for permanent American ties with the Holy See Over his career beginning with his arrival in the U S Senate at age thirty four in 1937 when there were just seventeen Republican senators he did more than anyone else to transform the Republican Party from a regional isolationist party into the nation's dominant force in foreign policy a position it held from Eisenhower's time until the twenty-first century In this book historian Luke A. Nichter gives us a compelling narrative of Lodge's extraordinary and consequential life Lodge was among the last of the well-heeled Eastern Establishment Republicans who put duty over partisanship and saw themselves as the hereditary captains of the American state Unlike many who reach his position Lodge took his secrets to the grave including some that revealed here for the first time will force historians to rethink their understanding of America's involvement in the Vietnam War Michigan Historical Collections, 1888 The Bob Dylan Copyright Files 1962-2007 Tim Dunn, 2008 This book itemizes Bob Dylan's copyright registrations and copyright-related documents from his first copyrighted work "Talkin' John Birch Blues" in February 1962 to his first registration "Song to Woody" up to "Keep It With Me" in the movie I'm Not There Also included are works he never registered e.g. "Liverpool" "Gal" and "Church With No Upstairs" and his registered cover versions of other composers' songs Annotated entries concern subjects such as recording dates co-writers and Dylan's companies Its appearance is meant to mimic the printed Catalog of Copyright Entries

Awaiting Their Feast Lori A. Flores, 2025-01-10 Though Latinx foodways are eagerly embraced and consumed by people across the United States the nation exhibits a much more fraught relationship with Latinx people including the largely underpaid and migrant workers who harvest process cook and sell this desirable food Lori A. Flores traces how our dual appetite for Latinx food and Latinx food labor has evolved from the World War II era to the COVID-19 pandemic using the US Northeast as an unexpected microcosm of this national history Spanning the experiences of food workers with roots in Mexico Puerto Rico Cuba the Dominican Republic Haiti and Central America Flores's narrative travels from New Jersey to Maine and examines different links in the food chain from farming to restaurants to seafood processing to the deliverista rights movement What unites this eclectic material is Flores's contention that as our appetite for Latinx food has grown exponentially the visibility of Latinx food workers has demonstrably decreased This precariat is anything but passive however and has historically fought and is still fighting against low wages and
