Smarter Than You Think Clive Thompson,2014-08-26 A revelatory and timely look at how technology boosts our cognitive abilities making us smarter more productive and more creative than ever It s undeniable technology is changing the way we think But is it for the better Amid a chorus of doomsayers Clive Thompson delivers a resounding yes In Smarter Than You Think Thompson shows that every technological innovation from the written word to the printing press to the telegraph has provoked the very same anxieties that plague us today We panic that life will never be the same that our attentions are eroding that culture is being trivialized But as in the past we adapt learning to use the new and retaining what is good of the old Smarter Than You Think embraces and extols this transformation presenting an exciting vision of the present and the future

The Anarchist in the Library Siva Vaidhyanathan,2005-05-11 From Napster to Total Information Awareness to flash mobs the debate over information technology in our lives has revolved around a single question How closely do we want cyberspace to resemble the real world Siva Vaidhyanathan enters this debate with a seminal insight While we ve been busy debating how to make cyberspace imitate the world the world has been busy imitating cyberspace More and more of our social political and religious activities are modeling themselves after the World Wide Web Vaidhyanathan tells us the key information structure of our time and the key import from cyberspace into the world is the peer to peer network Peer to peer networks have always existed but with the rise of electronic communication they are suddenly coming into their own And they are drawing the outlines of a battle for information that will determine much of the culture and politics of our century affecting everything from society to terrorism from religion to the latest social fads The Anarchist in the Library is a radically original look at how this battle defines one of the major fault lines of twenty first century civilization

Digital Agency in Higher Education Toril Aagaard, Andreas Lund, 2019-11-26 Exploring how digital resources are being used to engage students in learning and improve educational quality Digital Agency in Higher Education promotes an awareness of relations and interplay between humans and digital artifacts Examining the impacts in higher education through experience based knowledge and a conceptual framework this book provides a detailed analysis of how transformative agency can be identified enacted and cultivated offers up to date cases and a future orientated perspective on technology and knowledge work addresses fundamental assumptions about how teacher education has needed to and needs to continue to develop explores issues of epistemology and ethics when facing increasingly intelligent technologies and argues for transformative agency to place a firm focus on human interests Essential reading for teachers in higher education and educational researchers with an interest in how technologies impact learning and teaching Digital Agency in Higher Education uses cutting edge research to bridge the gap between theoretical perspectives and practices

Media Audiences John L. Sullivan, 2013 Whether we are watching TV surfing the Internet listening to our iPods or reading a novel we are all engaged with media as a member of an audience Despite the widespread use of this term in our popular culture the meaning of the audience is complex and it has undergone significant historical shifts as new forms of mediated communication have developed from print telegraphy and radio to film television and the Internet Media Audiences explores the concept of media audiences from four broad perspectives as victims of mass media as market constructions commodities as users of media and as producers subcultures of mass media The goal of the text is for students to be able to think critically about the role and status of media audiences in contemporary society reflecting on their relative power in relation to institutional media producers

Knowledge and Critical Pedagogy Joe L. Kincheloe,2008-06-19 In a globalized neo colonial world an insidious and often debilitating crisis of knowledge not only continues to undermine the quality of research produced by scholars but to also perpetuate a neo colonial and oppressive socio cultural political economic and educational system The lack of attention such issues receive in pedagogical institutions around the world undermines the value of education and its role as a force of social justice In this context these knowledge issues become a central concern of critical pedagogy As a mode of education that is dedicated to a rigorous form of knowledge work teachers and students as knowledge producers anti oppressive educational and social practices and diverse perspectives from multiple social locations critical pedagogy views dominant knowledge policies as a direct assault on its goals Knowledge and Critical Pedagogy An Introduction takes scholars through a critical review of the issues facing researchers and educators in the last years of the first decade of the twenty first century Refusing to assume the reader's familiarity with such issues but concurrently rebuffing the tendency to dumb down such complex issues the book serves as an excellent introduction to one of the most important and complicated issues of our time

Learning Race and Ethnicity Anna Everett,2008 An exploration of how issues of race and ethnicity play out in a digital media landscape that includes MySpace post 9 11 politics MMOGs Internet music distribution and the digital divide It may have been true once that as the famous cartoon of the 1990s put it Nobody knows you're a dog on the Internet and that as an MCI commercial of that era declared on the Internet there is no race gender or infirmity but today with the development of web cams digital photography cell phone cameras streaming video and social networking sites this notion seems quaintly idealistic This volume takes up issues of race and ethnicity in the new digital media landscape The contributors address this topic still difficult to engage honestly clearly empathetically and with informed understanding in twenty first century America with the goal of pushing consideration of a vexing but important subject from margin to center Learning Race and Ethnicity explores the intersection of race and ethnicity with post 9 11 politics online hate speech practices and digital youth and media cultures It examines universal access and the racial and ethnic digital divide from the perspective of digital media learning and youth The chapters treat such subjects as racial identity in the computer mediated public sphere minority technology innovators new methods of music distribution digital artist Judy Baca s work with youth Native American digital media literacy and minority youth technology access and the pervasiveness of online health information Contributors Ambar Basu Graham D Bodie Dara N Byrne Jessie Daniels Mohan J Dutta Raiford Guins Guisela Latorre Antonio Lopez Chela Sandoval Tyrone D Taborn Douglas Thomas
