Travel & Leisure, 1974 Alaska '98 Fodor's, Fodor's Travel Publications, Inc. Staff, 1997-12-29 This book examines what speakers try to achieve by producing laughter talk the talk preceding and eliciting an episode of laughter and using abundant examples from language corpora what hearers are signalling when they produce laughter In particular the author focuses on the tactical use of laughter talk to achieve specific rhetorical and strategic ends for example to construct an identity to make an argumentative point to threaten someone else's face or save one's own Although laughter and humour are by no means always related the book also considers the implications these corpus based observations may have about humour theory in general
