Martin, 2024-04-23 This book examines personal and professional understandings of religion in psychotherapy and advocates for integrity competency and cultural pluralism in clinical practice A major feature of this book is that it confirms the massive proliferation of religion oriented approaches to counseling and therapy in recent years It attributes this rise to opportunism and exaggerated individualism among therapists and to the frequent failures of professional associations clinical preparation programs and other influences In response to these influences it identifies the need for guiding principles for integrating religion into therapy discusses the religious issues that clients bring to therapy and advocates for major changes in clinical practice with emphasis on integrity and competence Building on a large volume of research and using evidence based conclusions it clarifies how these two major features of contemporary life can be integrated with integrity and competence The author maintains that religion should be a feature of the practice of counseling and therapy so long as it addresses the clinically relevant needs of clients However it also explores how the religion of counselors and therapists often expresses the needs of counselors and therapists instead of addressing the needs of their clients In the context of these questions and discussion of contentious challenges this book provides guidelines for relating religion with clinical practice and recommends needed actions by clinical preparation programs professional associations individual therapists state legislatures licensing boards social service agencies and corporations All of this stands on the conspicuous need for professional accountability in the delivery of mental health care The Wounded Minister Guy Greenfield, 2001-07-01 Every church deals with personality conflicts and intermittent discord But in some churches what should be normal clashes has become a devastating form of abuse pastoral abuse A growing phenomenon that cuts across denominational lines and impacts every level of ministry pastoral abuse leaves in its wake thousands of wounded clergymen with ruined ministries broken relationships damaged health even shattered faith The Wounded Minister Healing for Abused Clergy written by a clinically trained pastoral counselor examines the reality of evil in churches and the ways in which pathological antagonists emotionally and spiritually batter pastors A deft mix of personal experience and in depth research this resource will help wounded men and women of all ministerial positions learn how to recover their broken hearts while rebuilding their lives And as preventative medicine it also provides guidelines on how spiritually sensitive Christians can develop a church structure that protects their pastors from this tragedy Both compassionate and proactive this book is an excellent resource for hurting pastors as well as lay leadership pursuing healthy church life Why Sin Matters Mark R. McMinn, 2004 This emotionally stirring book brings readers to realize their sin and leads them straight into the arms of a grace giving God by using Rembrandt's ornate painting The Return of the Prodigal Son as an illustration Counseling Before Marriage Is a Necessity, Not an Option Isaac M. Arku, 2002 Coping with Depression Siang-Yang Tan, John Carl Ortberg Jr., John Ortberg, 2004-09 It can strike anyone and being a Christian does not exempt you But help is here The New Covenant as a Paradigm for Optimal Relations Pablo Polischuk, 2016-10-07 The New Covenant as a Paradigm for Optimal Relations regards the New Covenant primarily as a gracious and merciful redemptive deal springing from God's unilateral unconditional and proactive initiative The New Covenant is adopted as representing both a salvific and an exemplary paradigm that displays God's gracious and merciful ways toward his children Ten discrete yet interwoven principles are extracted from interpreted and abstracted from Scriptures pertaining to the promised New Covenant These principles apply to those who as dearly beloved children are invited to imitate God's loving ways God's manner of love defines the foundational basis from which the author derives and elaborates the propositions that guide the considerations pertaining to thoughts feelings motivations and behaviors that enter into play in relational transactions In terms of style an architectural design permeates the content of this book offering and encompassing a metacognitive view of God's covenantal ways a top down perspective that applies to bottom up endeavors of relational nature The challenges posed by our cultural postmodern trends devoid of absolute principles and lacking a moral compass are countered and addressed by the author in insightful fashion offering theologically based guidelines integrated to sound psychological principles applicable to psychotherapeutic and counseling endeavors as well as to pastoral care Depression and Nouthetic Counseling Johnny V N Chong Ph.D, 2014-03-03 Currently the author is a professor of the faculty of Chinese Christian counseling at the Triune Biblical University He is also a professor of the faculty of Chinese Christian counseling at the Grace Theological Institute The school is in partnership with the University of America Salt Lake Baptist College Salt Lake Bible College SLBC and is fully accredited by the Accreditation Service for International Schools Colleges and University ASIC UK where it is listed as the University of America ASIC is a UK based accrediting agency that is part of the U S Council for Higher Education Accreditation CHEA SLBC on the other hand is recognized by the National Center for Education Statistics NCES of the U S Department of Education as a participating school in their Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System IPEDS program Theological accreditation is through the Baptist Schools Accrediting Association BSAA and is recognized by the State of Utah as a private college It is listed in the state UEN Utah Education Network listings for Higher Education Private Integrating Faith and Psychology Glendon L.
