Urban,2020-04-02 Urban provides an intellectual history of Harvard presidency of James Bryant Conant 1933 1953 situating it within the broader international landscape and drawing out the implication for the current state of higher education with reference to specific leadership policy issues in the sector Throughout this volume Urban explores the ways in which Conant achieved largely successful attempts to modernize Harvard by upgrading both its student body and its faculty He explores the intellectual excellence agenda that Conant pursued both with students and academics and the ramifications of this He also considers the nature of Conant s part time handling of the role of president the way he delegated campus control to his Provost Paul Buck and the ways the two operated together and separately Urban also looks at Conant s own intellectual breadth as scientist and humanist which showed itself prominently in his activities in pursuit of general education reform Conant s combination of intellect and agenda was unusual for a president in his own time and is exceedingly rare if not completely missing in contemporary university presidencies In exploring this innovative president s time in office at Harvard Urban offers pertinent ideas to today s leaders of higher education      Review of Current Military Literature ,1991
