There's Only One Dixie Deans Dixie Deans, Ken McNab, 2011-10-08 Dixie Deans is a true Celtic legend Between 1971 and 1976 he scored 132 goals in 184 games and was part of the great Celtic team that swept to nine consecutive Scottish league titles and dominated a golden era of the national game Dixie cemented his status in football folklore by becoming the first Scottish player to hit hat tricks in two cup finals but he is remembered just as much for the special bond he struck with the fans ties that remain as strong today exactly 40 years after he first signed for Celtic from Motherwell Now Dixie a member of the Celtic Hall of Fame opens his scrapbook of memories on a lifetime of adventures in the beautiful game of football From the struggle of growing up in a one parent family to losing his beloved mother just as his career was starting to blossom to playing under the legendary Jock Stein and alongside the likes of Dalglish Macari McNeill and Connolly Dixie recalls the tumultuous days of a roller coaster career at the very pinnacle of Scottish football This is a fascinating story at times uplifting heartrending inspiring and haunting proving that there really is only one inimitable Dixie Deans

Appleton's Cyclopædia of American Biography James Grant Wilson, John Fiske, 1901

Into the Bear Pit Craig Whyte, Douglas Wight, 2020-02-14 From being the most dominant club in Scottish football history Rangers F C one of the most famous and powerful names in British sport was sold to venture capitalist Craig Whyte in 2011 for 1 When Whyte walked through the gates at Ibrox the club was mired in debt and plagued with a toxic culture which seeped everywhere from the corridors of power to a sectarian hard core in the stands The great Whyte hope was touted for a time as Rangers saviour but he was soon hung out to dry as the fall guy for Rangers misery as the unthinkable happened The club was plunged into liquidation and the reformed club suffered the indignity of demotion to the third division the lowest echelon of Scottish professional football The demise of Rangers saw Whyte s reputation eviscerated on the pages of every newspaper in the country his name vilified on radio shows TV programmes and blogs as every aspect of his professional and personal life was picked over In 2012 he was arrested and accused of fraud He was put on trial where he faced the full might and resources of the government for his role in the downfall of the club Although he was ultimately acquitted of all charges he had to endure years of false accusations from some media outlets and multiple death threats from obsessed fans Full of startling revelations this is the previously untold story of greed corruption and scandal at the heart of Rangers F C told definitively by the man who was at the very centre of the storm East Wind Tom Buchanan,2012-04-19 East Wind offers the first complete archive based account of the relationship between China and the British Left from the rise of modern Chinese nationalism to the death of Mao Tse tung Beginning with the Hands Off China movement of the mid 1920s Tom Buchanan charts the mobilisation of British opinion in defence of China against Japanese aggression 1931 1945 and the role of the British left in relations with the People s Republic of China after 1949 He shows how this relationship was placed under stress by the growing unpredictability of Communist China above all by the Sino Soviet dispute and the Cultural Revolution which meant that by the 1960s China was actively supported only by a dwindling group of enthusiasts The impact of the suppression of the student protests in Tiananmen Square June 1989 is addressed as an epilogue East Wind argues that the significance of the left s relationship with China has been unjustly overlooked There were many occasions such as the mid 1920s the late 1930s and the early 1950s when China demanded the full attention of the British left It also argues that there is nothing new in the current fascination with China s emergence as an economic power Throughout these decades the British left was aware of the immense unrealised potential of the Chinese economy and of how China s economic growth could transform the world In addition to analysing the role of the political parties and pressure groups of the left Buchanan sheds new light on the activities of many well known figures in support of China including intellectuals such as Bertrand Russell R H Tawney and Joseph Needham Many other interesting stories emerge concerning less well known figures which show the complexity of personal links between Britain and China during the twentieth century International Sport: A

Bibliography, 1995-1999 Richard William Cox,2004-04-22 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new

Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman,2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain s recent history From the 1950s the young Harold

Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick s Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean s gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person s life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in an another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non combatant to have received Britain s two highest awards for civilian bravery

Doddie Alex Macdonald,2013-10-03 This is the autobiography of a Rangers legend Alex MacDonald s compelling memoirs cover his formative years as a player with St Johnstone his rise to fame with Rangers his transfer to Hearts where he became player manager and his time in charge at Airdrie But Doddie is quintessentially a Rangers man having grown up in Glasgow supporting them and then going on to play a key role in the club's 1972 Cup Winners Cup triumph. Doddie won 12 medals in a glittering career including a highly prized European one during his time with Rangers yet as he reveals a chance meeting with Celtic manager Jock Stein might have resulted in him signing for the Old Firm's other half. Etched indelibly in his memory too is the dejection he suffered when Hearts lost the League Championship and Scottish Cup within the space of a week in the mid 1980s and his subsequent delight at leading Airdrie into Europe. Doddie is a fascinating story both for his lifelong love affair with football and his more personal story of growing up in Glasgow his love of animals and his midlife crisis when he put the car in the garage and headed out on the highway on a brand new Harley Davidson. It has been a life full of adventures and characters and the highs and lows of his life and career are entertainingly and engagingly told.
