Paul Born,2023-04-11 Discover a powerful methodology for bringing communities together to uncover hidden assets and transform deep rooted challenges Veteran community organizer Paul Born s work has contributed to lowering cancer rates in Maine improving mental health for young people in Florida and reducing poverty rates in Canada by 20 percent In this much needed new book he shares stories of how he was able to catalyze local communities and guide them to make significant progress on seemingly intractable community problems Born has found that the secret to success is to organize and unite around a common agenda This is not a list of topics like a meeting agenda nor a strategic plan He offers a process for bringing leaders from businesses human service organizations and governments together with people who have a lived experience of a specific community problem A common agenda is a statement of shared aspirations a map of the assets in the community and a road map for how to work together to make those aspirations a reality Part I of this book describes how to identify your community s readiness for change form leadership action and strategy teams create a common agenda and establish plans for community engagement Part II presents the approaches and skill sets needed to do the work described in part I Remarkably enormous systemic problems such as climate change poverty disease racism housing and many more issues can be best addressed at the local level Communities can develop solutions tailored to their unique circumstances and can collaborate at a magnitude that can result in a truly transformative impact This book shows how to make change happen

Track III Actions Helena Desivilya Syna,Geoffrey Corry,2023-01-30 Since the end of the Cold War in the early 90s a multi track approach to peacemaking has been developed by academics and practitioners to bring political and civil society leaders together from across the divide of contested societies to find ways out of the conflict Much of the focus up to now has been given to the strategic contribution of Track II conflict analysis and problem solving workshops This book puts the spotlight on the role that grassroots leaders and citizens can play at Track III level in the community in building and strengthening a bottom up approach to conflict transformation following protracted conflicts In Part 1 the focus is on the post conflict situation of Northern Ireland twenty years after the Belfast Good Friday Agreement Part 2 portrays scholarly and practitioners perspectives and actions in communities and organizations designed to build partnerships in order to counteract the legacies of active protracted conflict Plots the role of Track III approaches within a multi track peacemaking pyramid in the protracted conflict and post conflict phases of conflict transformation Provides case studies on how to engage community leaders in thinking together how to work with deep seated legacies of protracted conflicts Explores the contribution of bottom up models to build intergroup partnerships within and between local communities Focuses on the interface between research and practice School Partnerships Handbook , Learning to Lead James R.

Davis,2003-02-28 Leadership is an activity that not only manifests itself in formal positions but also bubbles up in various places within an organization Perhaps given the importance of leadership to any endeavor the literature on this topic has burgeoned Yet among these titles Learning to Lead stands out as one of the best texts available on leadership for college and university administrators Critical skills such as managing people resolving conflict and making rational and legal decisions are explored within the context of the campus The book also addresses the needs of those who facilitate leadership workshops serve as mentors to potential leaders and teach courses on higher education leadership and administration While presenting all sides of key issues the author calls for the reader to define his or her own position through a series of provocative reflection questions in each chapter Thus the book invites interaction and teaches administrators not what to think about leadership but how to think about it Exploring Leadership Susan R. Komives,Nance Lucas,Timothy R.
