Collecting Curating And Researching Writers Libraries A Handbook:

Collecting, Curating, and Researching Writers' Libraries Richard W. Oram, 2014-05-21 Academic collection practices in recent years have extended to the private libraries of notable individual authors. As a consequence, book historians have become more interested in the study of provenance of the contents of these libraries, while literary scholars have devoted more attention to authorial annotations. At the same time, the Internet has encouraged both scholarly and hobbyist reconstructions of private libraries; see for example the Legacy Libraries on Librarything.com. Although there are many bibliographies and reconstructions of the libraries of authors, this is the first general consideration of these libraries and serves as an introduction to best practices for academic libraries in their acquisition, cataloging, and issues of access. This collection begins with principal editor Richard Oram's historical overview of writers' libraries and institutional collecting, focusing primarily on English language authors. The co-editor Joseph Nicholson has provided a definitive review of best cataloging and arrangement practices that facilitate scholarly access. The bookseller Kevin Mac Donnell discusses the marketing of these collections and obstacles to placing intact author libraries in institutions. Also included are case studies by Amanda Golden and David Faulds relating to the personal libraries of the poets Anne Sexton and Ted Hughes, indicating how these collections have the potential to enhance archival research. Fiction writers Iain Sinclair, Russell Banks, Jim Crace, poet Ted Kooser, and biographer Ron Powers describe their sometimes passionate relationship with books and their own personal libraries. The concluding chapter, a location guide to over 500 individual libraries, will be invaluable to scholars and librarians who want to know where writers' libraries are currently located, what happened to them if they are known to have been sold or dispersed, and what has been written about them. Transforming Author Museums Ulrike Spring, Johan Schimanski, Thea Aarbakke, 2021-10-15 Literary museums today must respond to new challenges: the traditional image of the author's home museum as a sacred place of literary pilgrimage centered around a national hero has been questioned, and literary museums have begun to develop new strategies centered not only on biography but also literary texts, imagined spaces, different readers, historical contexts, architectural concepts, and artistic interventions. As this volume shows, the changing of spaces asks how literary museums create new ways of interlinking real and literary spaces, texts, objects, readers, and tourists.

Unpacking the Personal Library Jason Camlot, J.A. Weingarten, 2022-07-01 Unpacking the Personal Library: The Public and Private Life of Books is an edited collection of essays that ponders the cultural meaning and significance of private book collections in relation to public libraries. Contributors explore libraries at particular moments in their history across a wide range of cases and includes Alberto Manguel's account of the Library of Alexandria as well as chapters on library collecting in the middle ages, the libraries of prime ministers and foreign embassies, protest libraries, and the slow transformation of university libraries and the stories of the personal libraries of Virginia Woolf, Robert Duncan, Sheila Watson, Al Purdy, and others. The book shows how the history of the library is really a history of collection, consolidation, migration, dispersal, and integration where each story negotiates private and public spaces Unpacking the Personal Library builds on and interrogates theories and approaches from library and archive studies the history of the book reading authorship and publishing Collectively the chapters articulate a critical poetics of the personal library within its extended social aesthetic and cultural contexts Byron and Translation Maria Schoina,Alexander Grammatikos,2024-11-15 This collection of essays offers an image of Byron not only as a poet for which he is best known but as a translator of foreign literature and culture To recover this underexplored element of Byron s work the contributors examine his translated pieces in both textual and extra textual contexts including analysis of manuscripts composition history publishing history and other literary and historical factors They explore the motives behind Byron s choice to translate in the first place as well as reconstructing the translational methods he applied and his ideas on translation and the role of the translator in general The book focuses too on Byron s geographical mobility which also involved the act of translation though in a metaphorical sense The cosmopolitan poet mediated and interpreted all the time foreign cultures behaviours modes of living customs and habits In this sense translation becomes for the poet a dynamic movement between languages across texts and around various contexts offering Byron a vital space for the articulation of his ideas Byron s translation work reminds us how Romantic writers and readers sought to learn about and engage with the wider world and its various languages Contemporary Poetry Archive Linda Anderson,2019-05-23 Explores critical and creative responses to the contemporary poetry archiveProvides an innovative new dialogue between critics and creative writers on the value and practice of the literary archiveExpands the scope for understanding perspectives on and the opposition between creative and critical relations to archival materialsOpens up a new cross disciplinary agenda for thinking the archive as both a source for scholarship and a source of inspiration for creative practiceThese 13 newly commissioned chapters examine the impact of archival poetry collections on both literary scholarship and poetic practice They examine what we can learn from the drafts notebooks and personal libraries left behind by poets and look at the ways in which the growth of poetry archives has changed the way poets think about their work The contributing poets and scholars including Susan Howe Sean O Brien and George Szirtes present an in depth account of the significance of poetry archives for contemporary literature The collection provides a new cross disciplinary agenda for thinking about the archive as both a source for scholarship and inspiration for creative practice New Quotatoes: Joycean Exogenesis in the Digital Age ,2016-04-26 New Quotatoes Joycean Exogenesis in the Digital Age offers fourteen original essays on the genetic dossiers of Joyce s fiction and the ties that bind the literary archive to the transatlantic print sphere of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century Availing of digital media and tools online resources and new forms of access the contributions delve deeper than ever before into Joyce s programmatic reading for his oeuvre and they posit connections and textual relations with major and minor literary figures alike never before established The essays employ a broad range of genetic methodologies from traditional approaches to intertextuality and allusion to computational methods

s expansive life and imagination through her archives giving particular focus to her manuscripts authored from 1940 to 1975 Through its attentiveness to Spencer s published and unpublished work her work as a librarian and an activist and the political dimensions of her writing Anne Spencer between Worlds transforms our understanding of Spencer It offers a sustained examination of poetry and ecology and the relationships among race gender and archives through its analysis of the manuscripts that Spencer produced and revised throughout her life Morrisette argues that the expansiveness depth and range of Spencer s writing has not been appreciated because she did not publish this incomplete ongoing work She also demonstrates that careful reading of the manuscripts challenges many of the assumptions that have governed Spencer s reception In Anne Spencer between Worlds Spencer emerges as a deeply engaged political poet who used the creative possibilities of the unpublished manuscript to explore pressing political and cultural concerns and to develop experimental cultural forms In her unpublished manuscripts Spencer pushed beyond the lyric mode to develop experimental forms that were alert to the expressive possibilities of the epic prose correspondence and mixed genres Indeed Spencer s manuscripts serve as witnesses of historical and poetic junctions for the poet and for the attentive reader of her archives

Walter de la Mare Yui Kajita,Angela Leighton,A. J. Nickerson,2022-08-12 This book aims to put Walter de la Mare back on the literary map A writer beloved by many he has nevertheless remained on the sidelines of literary history Walter de la Mare Critical Appraisals promises to restore his reputation as one of the most memorably haunting of poets as well as a peculiarly unnerving writer of ghost stories A collection of varied wide ranging essays on de la Mare s poetry stories novels reviews and lectures it puts his work beside that of many of his famous contemporaries including Thomas Hardy Robert Frost W H Auden T S Eliot and Katherine Mansfield It also contains an invaluable survey of his archive much of it unpublished and a number of newly commissioned poems reflecting on his legacy This multifaceted volume will be of interest to students working on twentieth century poetry the short story the nature and limits of modernism and British intellectual history as well as on de la Mare himself List of contributors Catherine Charlwood Guy Cuthbertson Peter Davidson Giles de la Mare Andrew Doyle Suzannah V Evans Adam Guy Robin Holloway Yui Kajita Zaffar Kunial Gregory Leadbetter Angela Leighton Erica McAlpine Jenny McDonnell Will May Andrew Motion Paul Muldoon A J Nickerson Seamus Perry Adrian Poole Camille Ralphs Vidyan Ravinthiran Peter Scupham A E Stallings Mark Valentine Rory Waterman Anne Welsh David Wheatley Rowan Williams William Wootten

Poet of the Medieval Modern Francesca Brooks,2021 The early Middle Ages provided twentieth century poets with the material to re imagine and rework local religious and national identities in their writing Poet of the Medieval Modern focuses on a key figure within this tradition the Anglo Welsh poet and artist David Jones 1895 1974 representing the first extended study of the influence of early medieval English culture and history on Jones and his novel length late modernist poem The Anathemata 1952 Jones s second major poetic project after In Parenthesis 1937 The Anathemata fuses Jones s visual and verbal arts to write a Catholic history of Britain as told through the history of man as artist Drawing on unpublished archival material including manuscripts sketches correspondence and most significantly the marginalia from David Jones's Library this volume reads with Jones in order to trouble the distinction between poetry and scholarship Placing this underappreciated figure firmly at the centre of new developments in Modernist and Medieval Studies Poet of the Medieval Modern brings the two fields into dialogue and argues that Jones uses the textual and material culture of the early Middle Ages including Old English prose and poetry Anglo Latin hagiography early medieval stone sculpture manuscripts and historiography to re envision British Catholic identity in the twentieth century long poem Jones returned to the English record to seek out those moments where the histories of the Welsh had been elided or erased At a time when the Middle Ages are increasingly weaponised in far right and nationalist political discourse the book offers a timely discussion of how the early medieval past has been resourced to both shore up and challenge English hegemonies across modern British culture

Conrad's Reading Helen Chambers, 2018-04-18 This book aligns concepts and methods from book history with new literary research on a globally studied writer An innovative three part approach combining close reading the evidence of reading scrutiny of international book distribution circuits and of Conrad's many fictional representations of reading illuminates his childhood maritime and later shore based reading After an overview of the empirical evidence of Conrad's reading his sparsely documented twenty years reading at sea and in port is reconstructed An examination the reading practices of his famous narrator Marlow then serves to link Conrad's own maritime and shore based reading Conrad's subsequent networked reading shared with his closest male friends and with literate multilingual women is examined within the context of Edwardian reading practices His fictional representations of reading and material texts are highlighted throughout including genre trends periodical reading reading spaces and their lighting and the use of reading as therapy The book should appeal both to Conrad scholars and to historians of reading

Handbook of Research on Academic Libraries as Partners in Data Science Ecosystems Mani, Nandita S., Cawley, Michelle A., 2022-05-06 Beyond providing space for data science activities academic libraries are often overlooked in the data science landscape that is emerging at academic research institutions Although some academic libraries are collaborating in specific ways in a small subset of institutions there is much untapped potential for developing partnerships As library and information science roles continue to evolve to be more data centric and interdisciplinary and as research using a variety of data types continues to proliferate it is imperative to further explore the dynamics between libraries and the data science ecosystems in which they are a part The Handbook of Research on Academic Libraries as Partners in Data Science Ecosystems provides a global perspective on current and future trends concerning the integration of data science in libraries It provides both a foundational base of knowledge around data science and explores numerous ways academicians can reskill their staff engage in the research enterprise contribute to curriculum development and help build a stronger ecosystem where libraries are part of data science Covering topics such as data science initiatives digital humanities and student engagement this book is an indispensable particularly for those supporting the higher education research community as more and more digital information is created and stored. As budgets shrink and funders of research demand evidence of value for money and demonstrable benefits for society, there is increasing pressure to provide plans for the sustainable management of data. Ensuring that important data remains discoverable, accessible, and intelligible and is shared as part of a larger web of knowledge will mean that research has a life beyond its initial purpose and can offer real utility to the wider community. This edited collection bringing together leading figures in the field from the UK and around the world provides an introduction to all the key data issues facing the HE and information management communities. Each chapter covers a critical element of data management: Why manage research data; The lifecycle of data management; Research data policies, principles, requirements, and trends; Sustainable research data; Data management plans and planning; Roles and responsibilities: libraries, librarians, and data; Research data management opportunities and challenges for HEIs; The national data centres; Contrasting national research data strategies: Australia and the USA; Emerging infrastructure and services for research data management and curation in the UK and Europe. Readership: This is essential reading for librarians and information professionals working in the higher education sector, the research community, policy makers, and university managers. It will also be a useful introduction for students taking courses in information management, archivists, and national library services.
