History Education in Lebanon and the Borders of the Nation Bouchra Saab, 2025-09-01 This study shows that widely used history textbooks in Lebanon are more standardized and censored than in most liberal democratic countries and relatively similar in form and content to textbooks from Syria and Iraq A diversity of historical narratives has progressively converged into one dominant narrative which entails a standard definition of the self In contrast the other is defined through the exclusion of religious groups considered exogenous and ethnicities considered inferior In addition women are marginalized Surprisingly the textbooks affiliated with Hezbollah a Shiite militia financed by the Iranian regime depart to a certain extent from this definition While most previous research on Lebanese history textbooks has focused on the diverging narratives of religious communities this study views these textbooks as the outcome of a tension between two major forces educational traditions on the one hand and contemporary politics on the other

Beyond Zion Laura Almador, 2022-05-01 Finalist for National Jewish Book Award for Writing Based on Archival Material 2022 Jewish political and cultural behaviour during the first half of the twentieth century comes to the fore in this portrayal of a forgotten movement with contemporary relevance Commencing with the Zionist rejection of the Uganda proposal in 1905 the Jewish Territorialist Movement searched for areas outside Palestine in which to create settlements of Jews This study analyses the Territorialists ideology and activities in the Jewish context of the time but their thought and discourse also reflect geopolitical concerns that still have resonance today in debates about colonialist attitudes to peoplehood territory and space As the colonial world order rapidly changed after 1945 the Territorialists did not abandon their aspirations in overseas lands Instead in their attempts to find settlement solutions for Europe's surplus Jews they moved from negotiating predominantly with the European colonizers to negotiating also with the ever more powerful non Western leaders of decolonizing nations This book reconstructs the rich history of the activities and changing ideologies of Jewish Territorialism represented by Israel Zangwill's Jewish Territorial Organisation the ITO and later by the Freeland League for Jewish Colonization under the leadership of Isaac Steinberg Via Uganda Angola Madagascar Australia and Suriname this story eventually leads us to questions about yidishkeit and to forgotten early twentieth century ideas of how to be Jewish
