Focus Study Guide Matric:

The Pearson Guide to the SSC Combined Matric-Level (Preliminary) Examination Thorpe, Becoming a Top High School Matric Achiever Dr Patience Nombeko Mbava, 2021-07-01 Coming from a modest background in the dusty streets of Gugulethu Dr Mbava gives an inspiring account of how through hard work and perseverance she rose above her circumstances and chose to live a life without limits Her schooling journey in the turbulent and politically fraught last dying decade of apartheid in South Africa miraculously took an astounding turn when she was a top matric student and found herself as a freshman at an elite liberal arts college for women in New England Massachusetts on the other side of the world This book part of a short story collection on her intellectual journey will inspire many to leverage opportunities that are within reach and most of all to rise above perceived limitations Ultimately our destinies are the results of our choices given our circumstances

Focus on South Africa, 1989-02 South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaul, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa's leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people's future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at
