Chasing An Elusive God The Bible's Quest And Ours:

Chasing an Elusive God Ray Vincent, 2013-03-11 An essential guide to reading the Bible not to find answers but to hear the urgency of the questions Chasing the Wind Neil H. Williams, 2021-11-12 Chasing the Wind covers a variety of ideas from Christianity science philosophy ethics and psychology It starts with Socrates's statement an unexamined life is not worth living and asks how we might go about discovering what is a worthwhile life and what might motivate us to live such a life It is a vast topic that is narrowed down to two principal areas 1 a focus on relationships which are central to providing fulfillment worth and purpose to our lives and 2 an interaction with Christianity which claims to have answers as to what is a worthwhile life In summary this book is a dialog between these two questions What is a good life and how does Christianity help or hinder such a life Modern Woodman Magazine Frank O. A Light to the Nations Michael W. Goheen, 2011-04-01 There is a growing body of literature about the missional church but the word missional is often defined in competing ways with little attempt to ground it deeply in Scripture Michael Goheen a dynamic speaker and the coauthor of two popular texts on the biblical narrative unpacks the missional identity of the church by tracing the role God's people are called to play in the biblical story Goheen shows that the church's identity can be understood only when its role is articulated in the context of the whole biblical story not just the New Testament but the Old Testament as well He also explores practical outworkings and implications offering field tested suggestions for contemporary churches Enjoying the Closeness of God Roger C. Seekers in the Hands of an Elusive God Jeffery M. Leonard,2025-06-17 Some Christians experience the presence of God as readily as they feel a pleasant breeze or sunshine For others God s presence is often much more difficult to find Like the psalmists we struggle with asking Why O Lord do you stand far off Ps 10 1 At least part of the dynamic in this struggle lies in the fact that Scripture presents God as both everywhere and mysterious at the same time As Paul told the sages of the Areopagus In him we live and move and have our being yet it is God s will that we search for God grope for him and find him Acts 17 27 28 God is as present with his people as the tabernacle was with ancient Israel and yet even the tabernacle was meant to illustrate the fact that God cannot be pinned down contained or controlled We live in the tension of worshiping a God who is everywhere and yet must be sought Seekers in the Hands of an Elusive God explains the scriptural dynamic of this omnipresent but elusive God It is when we fail to search for God that our view of who God truly is becomes distorted and our own spiritual health diminishes when our relationship with God lacks this pursuit But how then are we called to seek God This book considers a variety of avenues in Scripture nature humanity worship silence doubt suffering death and joy In all these ways even those of us who wrestle with spiritual loneliness can join with saints of the past in pursuing the face of God
