Sharing Thoughts José Luis Bermúdez,Matheus Valente,Víctor M. Verdejo,2025-07-08 Philosophical work on the nature of thought has until recently focused primarily on what it is for an individual to think leaving aside important questions about the intersubjective dimension of thought For example In what sense if any can thoughts really be shared Is there a shareability requirement on successful communication disagreement or the transmission of knowledge Do particular types of thought such as those based on perception or self location raise distinctive challenges to their shareability More generally how should we understand the communication and coordination of our thoughts in exchanges with others Are there distinctive rationality constraints governing the intersubjective aspects of thought Sharing Thoughts brings together original work by established and emerging philosophers to address these and related foundational issues while also paying attention to more specific questions such as the interplay between the intersubjectivity of thought and the internalism externalism debate the elucidation of first person or egocentric thought our capacity for joint thinking the conditions for knowledge transmission and collective inquiry the expression of thought in music and more
