Emerging International Dimensions In East Asian Higher Education:

Emerging International Dimensions in East Asian Higher Education Akiyoshi Yonezawa, Yuto Kitamura, Arthur Meerman, Kazuo Kuroda, 2014-04-07 In East Asia higher education has relied heavily on private and marketized forces in its rapid development process. At the same time, state governments have introduced strong initiatives especially in upgrading the global positioning of their flagship universities through their pursuit of international competitiveness. Currently, these well-known characteristics of East Asian higher education are challenged by the necessity to formulate international dimensions for regional and global well-being without a clear consensus as to a regional future vision. The changing roles of East Asian higher education in a new global environment have implications for academics and policy makers who not only wish but also need to understand the most recent developments and future prospects of higher education from an East Asian point of view. In Emerging International Dimensions in East Asian Higher Education, authors from a wide variety of cultural and academic backgrounds examine the changing context of East Asian higher education in the global, regional, and national dimensions. The analysis and case study material in this volume are strengthened by the wealth of contributors' diverse national and professional backgrounds. Most have practical experience in the formulation of higher education policy in two or more countries. The range of disciplinary perspectives that contributors brought to the book, including sociology, political science, anthropology, economics, philosophy, and history, strengthen the multi-disciplinary approach. The credibility and uniqueness of the work. Each chapter considers the impact of the emergence of international dimensions in East Asian Higher Education through detailed consideration of trends and debates over higher education reforms at the regional, sub-regional, inter-regional, and national levels. Issues such as student mobility, cross-border higher education programs, quality assurance, and demands from the market economy among others are examined.

The Palgrave Handbook of Asia Pacific Higher Education Christopher S. Collins, Molly N.N. Lee, John N. Hawkins, Deane E. Neubauer, 2016-10-06 This volume seeks to identify and explore the forces affecting higher education in the Asia Pacific region today. It includes a set of conceptually rich organizing chapters followed by detailed country-specific studies that detail both the underlying dynamics of these forces and the manner in which they have affected specific countries. In this way, the chapters touch on the complex demographics of the region, how continued and continuous economic development impinges on higher education, and how neoliberalism has affected higher education across many dimensions. The volume also addresses the complex issues associated with cross-border education and the daunting challenges of both national and cross-national quality assurance.

Higher Education: From Region to Nation for the Community Morshidi Sirat, Norzaini Azman, Mahiswaran Selvanathan, 2022-10-18 This book is a recommended reading for academics, practitioners, and policymakers working in the higher education setting and in the context of U4S University for Society envisioned by the Ministry of Education Malaysia early 2019. The chapters illustrate by way of examples from many countries a top-down approach to engaging local communities based on the strategic intent designed and formulated at the regional level and cascaded down via the nation. The editors acknowledge that a bottom up approach to engaging communities from the local to the regional is also possible. But this is not the focus of this book which is based on updated version of papers presented at the Global Higher Education Forum 2018. Professor Dr Mansor Abu Talib, Professor of Human Development Counseling Department of Human Development Family Universiti Putra Malaysia. Comparative and International Education C. C. Wolhuter, 2019-08-26. This book explores the evolution and current state of the scholarly field of comparative and international education over 200 years of development. Experts in the field explore comparative and international education in each of the major world regions.

This volume investigates the global education effect, the impact of global education initiatives on institutional and individual practices and perceptions with a special focus on the dynamics of border construction, recognition, subversion and erasure regarding Japan. The Japanese government's push for global education has taken shape mainly in the form of English medium instruction programs and bringing in international students who sometimes serve as a foreign workforce to fill the declining labour force. Chapters in this volume draw from education, anthropology, sociology, linguistics and psychology to examine the ways in which demographic changes, economic concerns, race, politics and nationhood intersect with the efforts to globalize education and create specific global education effects in the Japanese archipelago. This book will provide a valuable resource for anyone who is interested in Japanese studies and global education. Routledge Handbook of Asian Migrations Gracia Liu-Farrer, Brenda S.A.
