Emily Carr, 1871-1945 Emily Carr, British Columbia Archives Collection, National Museums of Canada, Phyllis Inglis Collection, 1985 Emily Carr Cat Klerks, 2015-10-06 This is the story of a rebellious girl from British Columbia who travelled the world in pursuit of her calling only to find her true inspiration in the Canadian landscape she left behind Both a prolific painter and an accomplished writer Carr was more comfortable in the raw wilderness than in the tea rooms of London and more at home with her unique pets than with the people around her Despite numerous setbacks and disappointments she persevered to become the West Coast's most celebrated artist and a Canadian icon Her story is a testament to individuality and an inspiration to all Emily Carr 2024 Wall Calendar Emily Carr, 2023-07-15 Canadian Foreign Policy Brian Bow, Andrea Lane, 2020-11-01 Canadian Foreign Policy as an academic discipline is in crisis Despite its value CFP is often considered a stale and pale subfield of political science with an unfashionably state centred focus This book asks why Contributors from both inside and around the field investigate how they came to view themselves as participating in CFP as an academic project or not and what that means for both their intellectual trajectory and the development of the field How were they taught to think about Canada How does that affect their interpretation of this country's place in the world And how do they teach the subject themselves The thoughtful essays in this nuanced collection shine a light on issues such as the casualization of academic labour the prospect of Indigenizing the field and the relationship between study and practice More broadly they offer a much needed assessment of the boundaries goals and values of the discipline and an important guide to its revitalization Emily Carr 2025 Wall Calendar Emily Carr, 2024-08-15 Artist Emily Carr and the Spirit of the Land Phyllis Marie Jensen, 2015-12-14 Emily Carr often called Canada's Van Gogh was a post impressionist explorer artist and writer In Artist Emily Carr and the Spirit of the Land Phyllis Marie Jensen draws on analytical psychology and the theories of feminism and social constructionism for insights into Carr's life in the late Victorian period and early twentieth century Presented in two parts the book introduces Carr's migr English family and childhood on the edge of nowhere and her art education in San Francisco London and Paris Travels in the wilderness introduced her to the totem art of the Pacific Northwest coast at a time Aboriginal art was undervalued and believed to be disappearing Carr vowed to document it before turning to spirited landscapes of forest sea and sky The second part of the book presents a Jungian portrait of Carr including typology psychological complexes and archetypal features of personality An examination the individuation process and Carr's embracement of transcendental philosophy reveals the richness of her personality and artistic genius Artist Emily Carr and the Spirit of the Land provides captivating reading for analytical psychologists academics and students of Jungian studies art history health gender and women's studies Timing Canada Paul Huebener, 2015-12-01 From punch clocks to prison sentences from immigration waiting periods to controversial time zone boundaries from Indigenous grave markers that count time in centuries rather than years to the fact that free time is shrinking faster for women than for men time shapes the fabric of Canadian society every day but in ways that are not always visible or logical In Timing Canada Paul Huebener draws from cultural history time use surveys political statements literature and visual art to craft a detailed understanding of how time operates as a form of power in Canada Time enables everything we do as Margaret Atwood writes without it we can't live However time also disempowers us divides us and escapes our control Huebener transforms our understanding of temporal power and possibility by using examples from Canadian and Indigenous authors including Jeannette Armstrong Joseph Boyden Dionne Brand Timothy Findley Lucy Maud Montgomery Gabrielle Roy and many others who witness question dismantle and reconstruct the functioning of time in their works As the first comprehensive study of the cultural politics of time in Canada Timing Canada develops foundational principles of critical time studies and everyday temporal literacy and demonstrates how time functions broadly as a tool of power privilege and imagination within a multicultural and multi temporal nation Circle of Stones Suzanne Alyssa Andrew, 2015-03-28 Nik is an eccentric art student obsessed with painting his dancer girlfriend Jennifer When one day she inexplicably disappears Nik's world is shattered Determined to find her he embarks on a cross country journey following a scant trail of clues He doesn't anticipate how far he'll have to travel what he'll do when he runs out of money or the fact that an intimidating stranger is looking for Jennifer too Nik and Jennifer fade into the background of their own tale surfacing now and again like ghosts as the rest of their mysterious story unfolds through a series of chance encounters with intricately linked strangers An English professor coping with a dying mother a rebellious teenage girl a debt ridden civil servant a disillusioned ex anarchist documentary filmmaker and other disparate characters who encounter the separate couple as they circle one another in a tentative dance Circle of Stones reveals as much about the grief and the grinding frustrations of contemporary life as it does about the pursuit of love at all costs Emily Carr Calendar 1998 Vancouver Art Gallery, 1997

A Victim Must Be Found Howard Engel, 2015-08-18 This tale of skullduggery in the art world is another winner from the Arthur Ellis Award winning author Publishers Weekly To say that Canadian private investigator Benny Cooperman is a novice in the art world would be an understatement Nevertheless he's hired by Pambos Kiriakis the manager of Grantham Ontario's poshest hotel to track down some valuable works that went missing while on loan from a local gallery But while Cooperman is hobnobbing with the art collecting glitterati things take a deadly turn His client is stabbed and a peculiar clue is left in a coffee cup at the crime scene But who would want to kill Kiriakis And could a painting really drive someone to murder The Cooperman novels are heavy on full bodied characters sharp dialogue and rich humor Benny just plain charms the socks off anyone he meets Booklist Benny Cooperman is a lot of fun to hang out with Donald E Westlake A Victim Must be Found is the sixth book in the Benny Cooperman Mysteries but you may enjoy reading the series in any order
