Fitzpatrick's life fell apart overnight. Her beloved sister Dara was killed in a helicopter crash. Soon afterwards Niamh's marriage disintegrated and she feared she would lose her house. Life as she knew it had ended and the loss she suffered was staggering. A psychologist for many years, Niamh's job was to guide clients through the worst times in their lives. Drawing on everything she learned first to survive and then in time to begin to thrive, Tell Me the Truth about Loss is a psychologist's journey through loss, grief, and the worst of times while finding hope along the way. A beautiful book for when life isn't what you expect it to be. Empty Arms, Hope-Filled Heart Kristin Lemus, 2012-09-13 When you lose a child through miscarriage, stillbirth, or infant or child death, it is so painful and heart-breaking. Empty Arms, Hope Filled Heart is a book that is meant not to belittle the grief a mom goes through but rather offer her hope in the midst of it. The book is in the form of a prayer from one mother who suffered the loss of her newborn son to another mom experiencing a loss. This book speaks truth from God's Word to the heart of the grieving Mother. Learn how God sees our grief and pain and where He is in our circumstances. Empty Arms, Hope Filled Heart makes a beautiful and thoughtful gift for a friend or family member who has lost a baby. The book is short and easy to read and something that a mom can go back to again and again to be encouraged. So God Made a Mother Leslie Means, 2023-04-18 Publishers Weekly and Wall Street Journal Bestseller When God made a mother, He had you in mind. Are you a mother? Do you have a mother? Do you know a mother? If the answer to any of these questions is yes, So God Made a Mother is for you. Join Leslie Means, founder of the popular website Her View From Home, as she weaves together a powerful emotional collection of essays from women of all ages and stages. These relatable, real-life, straight-to-the-heart stories will make you laugh, cry, and nod along. No two moms are alike. No two experiences in motherhood mirror each other. But something powerful happens when our stories come together: they speak love, worth, value, and beauty. They take the undefinable experience of Christian motherhood and give it shape and substance and strength. They speak to us all. Explore how God made moms to be: Both tender and strong. Faithful in serving their families. Worthy of their precious calling. Beautiful at every stage of the parenting journey. So God Made a Mother promises to show you the incomparable heart of a mother, a mother just like you. A Mother's Journey Libby Muller, 2014-03-04 Libby Muller turned forty the same year as her young son Joe died suddenly at home in what was described as a freak accident. Libby relives with a compelling raw honesty the heartbreak of what is one of the greatest sufferings imaginable: a mother's loss of her only child. She explores grief in the first year after her son's death. This journey starts as she navigates those first dark days of overwhelming sadness. But gradually the resilience of the human spirit shines. She finds solace in surfing, experiences the healing energy of the Torres Strait Islands, and follows a deeply spiritual path in the search to find inner peace. What results is a deeper understanding of life and death. In sharing her story, Libby hopes to offer some comfort to others who may have also suffered the grief of losing a child. Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover, Professor Emeritus, Susan G. Fowler, 2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources.

Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one. For example, children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age, such as sibling and parent death, adoption or divorce, and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations. For gay, lesbian, or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner, societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve. Helping Those Experiencing Loss: A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other, supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime, as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving. It explains the grieving process, interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups: children, young adults, parents who have lost a child, adults who have lost spouses, and the aging population. Empty Arms, 2005. Empty Arms is intended to share the painful reality of post-abortion and its effects on families. Read real life stories from people who have faced the serious consequences of their choice. Learn the ramifications of abortions. Come face to face with the reality that an abortion does not fix a problem pregnancy, even though one out of four women have an abortion. Grief Unseen, Laura Seftel, 2006. At least one in five pregnancies ends in miscarriage, yet aftercare is rarely available for those who have experienced it. Grief Unseen explains different kinds of childbearing losses, such as failed fertility treatment, ectopic pregnancy, and stillbirth, and explores their emotional impact on women and their partners and the process of healing.
