Encountering Religious Pluralism The Challenge To Christian Faith Mission:

Encountering Religious Pluralism Harold Netland, 2001-08-14 Harold Netland traces the emergence of the pluralistic ethos that challenges Christian faith and mission interacting heavily with philosopher John Hick and providing a framework for developing a comprehensive evangelical theology of religions

Christianity and Religious Diversity Harold A. Netland, 2015-05-12 This book explores how religions have changed in a globalized world and how Christianity is unique among them Harold Netland an expert in philosophical aspects of religion and pluralism offers a fresh analysis of religion in today's globalizing world He challenges misunderstandings of the concept of religion itself and shows how particular religious traditions such as Buddhism undergo significant change with modernization and globalization Netland then responds to issues concerning the plausibility of Christian commitments to Jesus Christ and the unique truth of the Christian gospel in light of religious diversity The book concludes with basic principles for living as Christ's disciples in religiously diverse contexts

Vodou and Christianity in Interreligious Dialogue Celucien L. Joseph, Charlene Desir, Lewis A. Clormeus, 2023-10-30 Vodou and Christianity in Interreligious Dialogue addresses both historical factors and ideological issues that created antagonism and conflict between Christians and Vodouists in Haiti The book offers practical solutions and strategies to help create a harmonious and peaceful environment between religious practitioners associated with Vodou and Christianity Toward this goal this volume considers various perspectives and theories such as autobiography anthropology ethnographic fieldwork religious experience and gender to examine the subject matter This volume offers practical examples and resources on how to engage in interreligious dialogue and promote interreligious education in Haiti There are three philosophical and practical ideas underlying this book project 1 it is grounded on the belief that religion has value and it could bring social goods to different communities and enhance human dignity and justice 2 it is premised on the idea that dialogue and cooperation are necessary for nation building and human development as democratic ideals and that one of the leading functions of the world's religious traditions is to promote both cooperation and dialogue through mutual understanding and for the common good and 3 that the power and public role of religion in society can be used as a major force of unification and peace building among divergent factions and schools of thought and to promote reconciliation mutual respect and friendship in the world

Contemporary Muslim and Christian Responses to Religious Plurality Lewis E Winkler, 2012-04-26 In our rapidly changing and progressively globalized world Christians and Muslims are faced with the prospect of directly encountering and responding to people of other faiths and cultures This has pushed us all to address the vital question of how best to live with work beside and love one another as fellow citizens of our planet Using resources from Christian theologian Wolfhart Pannenberg Muslim ethicist Abdulaziz Sachedina and several others Winkler argues that we must continually dialogue with one another not only about the beliefs and practices held in common between us but also about the ways in which we are distinctively different Only then can we take the opportunity more comprehensively to understand appreciate and cooperate with each other to build just moral and cohesive communities of hope in our often uncertain and unsettling times
