Encountering The Transnational Gender In A Globallocal World:

Encountering the Transnational Meena Sharify-Funk, 2016-04-29 When Muslim women from diverse national and cultural contexts meet one another through transnational dialogue and networking what happens to their sense of identity and social agency Addressing this question Meena Sharify Funk encountered women activists and intellectuals in North America the Middle East South Asia and Southeast Asia women whose lives and visions have become linked by the transnational despite their differing circumstances and intellectual backgrounds The resultant work provides a rich and cliché bursting account of women's reflections on a wide range of topics including the status of women in Islam the role of women as interpreters of religious norms the relationship between secular and religious forms of self identification perceptions of Islamic Western relations experiences of marginalization and opportunities for empowerment Giving careful attention both to common threads in Muslim women's experiences and to the unique voices of remarkable women this is a compelling account of conversations that are bringing new energy and dynamism into women's activism in a world of collapsing distances

Women and Gender in the Qur'an Celene Ibrahim, 2020 Stories related to gendered social relations permeate the Qur'an and nearly three hundred verses involve specific women or girls These stories weave together theology and ethics to reinforce central Qur'anic ideas regarding submission to God and moral accountability Women and Gender in the Qur'an outlines how women and girls old young barren fertile chaste profligate reproachable and saintly enter Qur'anic sacred history and advance the Qur'an's overarching didactic aims Islam and Gender Adis Duderija, Alina Isac Alak, Kristin Hissong, 2020-05-17 Given the intense political scrutiny of Islam and Muslims which often centres on gendered concerns Islam and Gender Major Issues and Debates is an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the key topics problems and debates in this engaging subject Split into three parts this book places the discussion in its historical context provides up to date case studies and delves into contemporary debate on the subject This book includes discussion of the following important topics Marriage and divorce Interpretations of the Qur'an and Sunna Male and female sexuality and sexual diversity Classical Islamic thought on masculinity and femininity Gender and hadith Polygamy and inheritance Adultery and sexual violence Veiling female circumcision and crimes of honour Lived religiosities Gender justice in Islam Islam and Gender is essential reading for students in religious studies Islamic studies and gender studies as well as those in related fields such as cultural studies politics area studies sociology anthropology and history Growing Up Canadian Peter Beyer, Rubina Ramji, 2013-06-01 A significant number of Canadian raised children from post 1970s immigrant families have reached adulthood over the past decade As a result the demographics of religious affiliation are changing across Canada Growing Up Canadian is the first comparative study of religion among young adults of Muslim Hindu and Buddhist immigrant families Contributors consider how relating to religion varies significantly depending on which faith is in question how men and women have different views on the role of religion in their lives and how the possibilities of being religiously different are greater in larger urban centres than in surrounding rural communities Interviews with over two hundred individuals aged 18 to 26 reveal that few are drawn to militant politicized religious extremes how almost all second generation young adults take personal responsibility for their religion and want to understand the reasons for their beliefs and practices The first major study of religion among this generation in Canada Growing Up Canadian is an important contribution to understanding religious diversity and multiculturalism in the twenty first century Contributors include Peter Beyer Kathryn Carri re Wendy Martin and Lori Beaman University of Ottawa Rubina Ramji Cape Breton University Nancy Nason Clark and Cathy Holtmann University of New Brunswick Shandip Saha Athabasca University John H Simpson University of Toronto and Marie Paule Martel Reny Concordia University

The Gender Question in Globalization Francien van Driel, 2020-11-25 Orthodox views of globalization assume that it has the same features and impact everywhere i e the feminization of poverty labour and even peace As these ideas circulate in official documents and scientific writings they settle practically as truths This challenging and unique book is amongst the first to deconstruct these orthodoxies using a multi layered gender analysis where globalization is not treated as a linear and top down process with a known outcome and a pre conceived definition of gender Instead the authors scrutinize the dynamics of each context on its own merits including the agency of women and men resulting in unexpected and groundbreaking insights into the variety of differences apparent even in sometimes seemingly similar global processes Through this gender lens different and new meanings of gender appear rooted in multiple modernities The book will be a seminal contribution to debates in the fields of international labour sexuality identity feminism peace studies and migration

Gendered Struggles against Globalisation in Mexico Teresa Healy, 2016-04-15 Teresa Healy here examines resistance within Mexican society during a period of sustained crisis at the regional and national level as well as at the level of world order She analyzes how working class men organized to fight for the recognition of their citizenship rights how they defended those rights when faced with repression and economic restructuring and how they contested the terms of globalization as it wrested from them their masculine identity of worker fathers Healy also demonstrates how these men battled employers and masculinized political power at every level within the state to maintain their livelihoods and resist the feminization of their work and their own identities These were gendered struggles against globalizations as they were experienced and carried out by men The volume uncovers the limits and possibilities of working class men and women in transforming the conditions in which they live and work and highlights the diversity and rich political history of social movements in Mexico

Mappings Susan Stanford Friedman, 1998-10-19 In this powerful work Susan Friedman moves feminist theory out of paralyzing debates about us and them white and other first and third world and victimizers and victims Throughout Friedman adapts current cultural theory from global and transnational studies anthropology and geography to challenge modes of thought that exaggerate the boundaries of gender race ethnicity sexuality class and national origin The author promotes a transnational and heterogeneous feminism which she maintains can replace the proliferation of feminisms based on difference She argues for a feminist geopolitical literacy that goes beyond fundamentalist identity politics and absolutist poststructuralist theory and she continually focuses the reader's attention on those locations where differences are negotiated and transformed Pervading the book is a concern with narrative the way stories and cultural narratives serve as a primary mode of thinking about the politically explosive question of identity Drawing freely on modernist novels contemporary film popular fiction poetry and mass media the work features narratives of such writers and filmmakers as Gish Jen Julie Dash June Jordan James Joyce Gloria Anzaldua Neil Jordan Virginia Woolf Mira Nair Zora Neale Hurston E M Forster and Irena Klepfisz Defending the pioneering role of academic feminists in the knowledge revolution this work draws on a wide variety of twentieth century cultural expressions to address theoretical issues in postmodern feminism

Gender Transitions Along Borders Marlene Solis, 2016-04-28 In recent decades women living in border cities have taken on new roles and have become one of the most vulnerable population groups experiencing the effects of the economic crisis of the early 21st century and the consequent increase in social inequality and violence This situation is particularly evident for the northern borderlands of Mexico and Morocco The geopolitical position of these regions is defined by their strong existing asymmetry with their neighbouring countries the United States in the case of Mexico and the Mediterranean European countries in the case of Morocco This book contributes to the understanding of current changes in the workplace in family in sexuality and sexual violence within the setting of the borderlands through various studies addressing the manner in which these transformations are interpreted and experienced by women in everyday life and in their individual and collective agency

Empowering Migrant Women Leah Briones, 2017-03-02 Based on insights from Filipina experiences of domestic work in Paris and Hong Kong this volume breaks through the polarized thinking and migration centric policy action on the protection of migrant women domestic workers from abuse to link migrants rights and victimization with livelihood migration and development The book contextualizes agency and rights in the workers capability to secure a livelihood in the global political economy and is instrumental in making the problem of migrant women workers empowerment both a migration and development agenda The volume is essential reading for social scientists bureaucrats and non governmental political activists interested in the protection of the rights and livelihoods of migrants It will also appeal to migration and feminist scholars who have yet to adopt the contribution of critical development studies in the analysis of low skilled female labour migration

Gender and Space in Rural Britain, 1840-1920 Charlotte Mathieson, Gemma Goodman, 2015-10-06 The essays in this collection focus on the ways rural life was represented during the long nineteenth century Contributors bring expertise from the fields of history geography and literature to present an interdisciplinary study of the interplay between rural space and gender during a time of increasing industrialization and social change

Federalism, Feminism and Multilevel Governance Jill Vickers, Marian Sawyer, Professor Melissa Haussman, 2013-03-28 Until recently few gender scholars took notice of the impact of state architecture on women's representation political opportunities and policy achievements Likewise scholars of federalism devolution and multilevel governance have largely ignored their gender impact For the first time this book explores how women s politics is affected by and affects federalism whether in Australia Canada India Mexico Nigeria Russia or the US Equally it assesses the gender implications of devolution and multilevel governance in the European Union including case studies of the UK and Germany Globally multilevel governance is providing new arenas for women s politics For example CEDAW the UN Convention for the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women has led most governments to adopt gender equality norms while other UN instruments have supported Aboriginal self government Gender scholars will find especially valuable what is revealed about the impact of political architecture on a broad range of policy issues including gay marriage reproductive rights and childcare Federalism scholars will benefit from the book s wide range of cases comparative themes and combination of gender and federalism perspectives Written by leading experts this book fills an important gap in both literatures

Gender and Globalization in Asia and the Pacific Kathy E. Ferguson,Monique Mironesco,2008-08-01 What is globalization How is it gendered How does it work in Asia and the Pacific The authors of the sixteen original and innovative essays presented here take fresh stock of globalization s complexities They pursue critical feminist inquiry about women gender and sexualities and produce original insights into changing life patterns in Asian and Pacific Island societies Each essay puts the lives and struggles of women at the center of its examination while weaving examples of global circuits in Asian and Pacific societies into a world frame of analysis The work is generated from within Asian and Pacific spaces bringing to the fore local voices and claims to knowledge The geographic emphasis on Asia Pacific highlights the complexity of globalizing practices among specific people whose dilemmas come alive on these pages Although the book focuses on global gendered flows it expands its investigation to include the media and the arts intellectual resources activist agendas and individual life stories First rate ethnographies and interviews reach beyond generalizations and bring Pacific and Asian women and men alive in their struggles against globalization Globalization cannot be summed up in a neat political agenda but must be actively contested and creatively negotiated Taking feminist political thinking beyond simple oppositions the authors ask specific questions about how global practices work how they come to be who benefits and what is
