Evil Arabs In American Popular Film Evil Arabs In American Popular Film:

"Evil" Arabs in American Popular Film Tim Jon Semmerling, 2006-09-01 The evil Arab has become a stock character in American popular films playing the villain opposite American good guys who fight for the American way It s not surprising that this stereotype has entered American popular culture given the real world conflicts between the United States and Middle Eastern countries particularly since the oil embargo of the 1970s and continuing through the Iranian hostage crisis the first and second Gulf Wars and the ongoing struggle against al Qaeda But when one compares the evil Arab of popular culture to real Arab people the stereotype falls apart In this thought provoking book Tim Jon Semmerling further dismantles the evil Arab stereotype by showing how American cultural fears which stem from challenges to our national ideologies and myths have driven us to create the evil Arab Other Semmerling bases his argument on close readings of six films The Exorcist Rollover Black Sunday Three Kings Rules of Engagement and South Park Bigger Longer Uncut as well as CNN s 9 11 documentary America Remembers Looking at their narrative structures and visual tropes he analyzes how the films portray Arabs as threatening to subvert American truths and mythic tales and how the insecurity this engenders causes Americans to project evil character and intentions on Arab peoples landscapes and cultures Semmerling also demonstrates how the evil Arab narrative has even crept into the documentary coverage of 9 11 Overall Semmerling s probing analysis of America s Orientalist fears exposes how the evil Arab of American popular film is actually an illusion that reveals more about Americans than Arabs

Arab Americans in Film Waleed F. Mahdi, 2020-10-21 Selected for Arab America s Best Arab American Books of 2020 list It comes as little surprise that Hollywood films have traditionally stereotyped Arab Americans but how are Arab Americans portrayed in Arab films and just as importantly how are they portrayed in the works of Arab American filmmakers themselves In this innovative volume Mahdi offers a comparative analysis of three cinemas yielding rich insights on the layers of representation and the ways in which those representations are challenged and disrupted Hollywood films have fostered reductive imagery of Arab Americans since the 1970s as either a national security threat or a foreign policy concern while Egyptian filmmakers have used polarizing images of Arab Americans since the 1990s to convey their nationalist critiques of the United States Both portrayals are rooted in anxieties around globalization migration and US Arab geopolitics In contrast Arab American cinema provides a more complex realistic and fluid representation of Arab American citizenship and the nuances of a transnational identity Exploring a wide variety of films from each cinematic site Mahdi traces the competing narratives of Arab American belonging how and why they vary and what s at stake in their circulation

Arab American Drama, Film and Performance Michael Malek Najjar, 2015-01-09 Beginning with early Arab American playwright poet and novelist Kahlil Gibran and concluding with contemporary playwright Youssef El Guindi this book provides an historical overview and critical analysis of the plays films and performances of self identified Arab Americans Playwrights filmmakers and performers covered include Ameen Fares Rihani Danny Thomas Heather Raffo Ahmed Ahmed Mona Mansour and Cherien Dabis These artists traditionally underrepresented in entertainment publishing and academia have created works that exemplify the burgeoning Arab American arts movement By addressing cinema stand up comedy and solo performance the author introduces audiences to contemporary genres that are shaping Arab American culture in the United States

Films of Arab Loutfi and Heiny Srour Terri Ginsberg, 2021-11-15 This book places long overdue focus on the Palestine solidarity films of two important Arab women directors whose cinematic works have never received due attention within the scholarly literature or the cultural public sphere Through an analysis that situates these largely overlooked films within the matrix of an anti Zionist critique of cinematic ontology this book offers a materialist feminist appreciation of their political aesthetics while critiquing the ideological enabling conditions of their academic absencing The study of these daring films fosters a much needed sustained understanding of the meaning and significance of Palestine solidarity filmmaking for and within the Arab world

Reimagining the Promised Land Rodney Wallis, 2020-09-17 While Israel has seemingly been a minor presence in Hollywood cinema Reimagining the Promised Land argues that there is a long history of Hollywood deploying images of Israel as a means of articulating an idealized notion of American national identity This argument is developed through readings of The Ten Commandments Cecil B DeMille 1956 Ben Hur A Tale of the Christ William Wyler 1959 Exodus Otto Preminger 1960 Cast a Giant Shadow Melville Shavelson 1966 Black Sunday John Frankenheimer 1977 The Delta Force Menahem Golan 1986 and Munich Steven Spielberg 2005 The mobilization of Israel that pervades this eclectic group of films effectively demonstrates one of the more surreptitious ways in which Hollywood has historically constructed and circulated dominant notions of American national identity Moreover in examining the most notable Hollywood representations of the Jewish state the book offers an informed historical overview of the cultural forces that have contributed to popular understandings within the United States of the state of Israel Israel s Arab neighbours and also the Arab Israeli conflict

Framing Violence Banu Baybars, 2016-12-14 Framing Violence Conflicting Images Identities and Discourses explores many of the questions surrounding challenges in framing the rising violence across the globe and in its emerging new forms The chapters in this volume provide multidisciplinary case studies and theoretical debates with violence being discussed not only in its political form but also in its domestic financial and artistic forms This collection will provide a venue for discussions on the diverse issues surrounding the theme of violence and conflict from international and interdisciplinary perspectives and divided into three parts the first of which focuses on how the culture industry frames violence and violent actors The second part investigates how violence is framed in legal structures and mediascapes Finally the third part of the book discusses the new conceptualisations in violence studies and covers chapters analysing artistic expressions of violence

Transgressive Truths and Flattering Lies Markus Schmitz, 2020-04-02 This book explores the formative correlations and inventive transmissions of Anglophone Arab representations ranging from early 20th century Mahjar writings to contemporary transnational Palestinian resistance art Tracing multiple beginnings and seminal intertexts

the comparative study of dissonant truth making presents critical readings in which the notion of cross cultural translation gets displaced and strategic unreliability representational opacity or matters of act advance to essential qualities of the discussed works aesthetic devices and ethical concerns Questioning conventional interpretive approaches Markus Schmitz shows what Anglophone Arab studies are and what they can become from a radically decentered relational point of view Among the writers and artists discussed are such diverse figures as Rabih Alameddine William Blatty Kahlil Gibran Ihab Hassan Jabra Ibrahim Jabra Emily Jacir Walid Raad Ameen Rihani Edward Said Larissa Sansour and Raja Shehadeh

Historical Dictionary of Middle Eastern Cinema Terri Ginsberg, Chris Lippard, 2020-09-15 To a substantial degree cinema has served to define the perceived character of the peoples and nations of the Middle East This book covers the production and exhibition of the cinema of Morocco Algeria Tunisia Egypt Palestine Jordan Lebanon Syria Iraq the United Arab Emirates Saudi Arabia Yemen Kuwait and Bahrain as well as the non Arab states of Turkey and Iran and the Jewish state of Israel This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Middle Eastern Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on individual films filmmakers actors significant historical figures events and concepts and the countries themselves It also covers the range of cinematic modes from documentary to fiction representational to animation generic to experimental mainstream to avant garde and entertainment to propaganda This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Middle Eastern cinema

Roberts,David Welky,2016-01-04 Fully revised updated and extended the fifth edition of Hollywood s America provides an important compilation of interpretive essays and primary documents that allows students to read films as cultural artifacts within the contexts of actual past events A new edition of this classic textbook which ties movies into the broader narrative of US and film history This fifth edition contains nine new chapters with a greater overall emphasis on recent film history and new primary source documents which are unavailable online Entries range from the first experiments with motion pictures all the way to the present day Well organized within a chronological framework with thematic treatments to provide a valuable resource for students of the history of American film

The Notion of Space within Diverse Fields of Cognizance Driss Bouyahya,2021-07-28 This volume provides a multifaceted approach to how meanings of space are created and how they impact individuals perceptions sense of belonging identity actions and ideologies It brings together various contributions that shed light on the multiplicity of voices and narratives on space on their co existence and forms of interactions and on the ways in which they emerged from and reshaped relations of power

The Muslim World in Post-9/11 American Cinema Kerem Bayraktaroğlu,2018-08-24 Focusing on the decade following 9 11 this critical analysis examines the various portrayals of Muslims in American cinema Comparison of pre and post 9 11 films indicates a stereotype shift influenced by factors other than just politics The evolving definitions of male female and child characters and of setting and landscape are described The rise of the formidable American female character who dominates the weak Muslim male emerges as a common theme      Racism, Sexism, and the Media Clint C. Wilson, Felix Gutierrez, Lena Chao, 2013 This fourth edition presents current information in the rapidly evolving field of minorities interaction with mass communications including the portrayals of minorities in the media advertising and public relations      Imperfect Strangers Salim Yaqub, 2016-08-10 In Imperfect Strangers Salim Yaqub argues that the 1970s were a pivotal decade for U S Arab relations whether at the upper levels of diplomacy in street level interactions or in the realm of the imagination In those years Americans and Arabs came to know each other as never before With Western Europe s imperial legacy fading in the Middle East American commerce and investment spread throughout the Arab world The United States strengthened its strategic ties to some Arab states even as it drew closer to Israel Maneuvering Moscow to the sidelines Washington placed itself at the center of Arab Israeli diplomacy Meanwhile the rise of international terrorism the Arab oil embargo and related increases in the price of oil and expanding immigration from the Middle East forced Americans to pay closer attention to the Arab world Yaqub combines insights from diplomatic political cultural and immigration history to chronicle the activities of a wide array of American and Arab actors political leaders diplomats warriors activists scholars businesspeople novelists and others He shows that growing interdependence raised hopes for a broad political accommodation between the two societies Yet a series of disruptions in the second half of the decade thwarted such prospects Arabs recoiled from a U S brokered peace process that fortified Israel s occupation of Arab land Americans grew increasingly resentful of Arab oil pressures attitudes dovetailing with broader anti Muslim sentiments aroused by the Iranian hostage crisis At the same time elements of the U S intelligentsia became more respectful of Arab perspectives as a newly assertive Arab American community emerged into political life These patterns left a contradictory legacy of estrangement and accommodation that continued in later decades and remains with us today      At War David Kieran, Edwin A. Martini, 2018-04-05 The country s wars in Iraq and Afghanistan its interventions around the world and its global military presence make war the military and militarism defining features of contemporary American life The armed services and the wars they fight shape all aspects of life from the formation of racial and gendered identities to debates over environmental and immigration policy Warfare and the military are ubiquitous in popular culture At War offers short accessible essays addressing the central issues in the new military history ranging from diplomacy and the history of imperialism to the environmental issues that war raises and the ways that war shapes and is shaped by discourses of identity to questions of who serves in the U S military and why and how U S wars have been represented in the media and in popular culture      Catholics in the Movies Colleen McDannell, 2008 Catholicism was all over movie screens in 2004 Mel Gibson s The Passion of the Christ was at the center of a media firestorm for months A priest was a crucial character in the Academy Award winning Million Dollar Baby Everyone it seemed was talking about how religious stories should be represented marketed and received Catholic characters spaces and rituals have been stock features in popular films since the silent era An intensely visual religion with a well defined ritual and authority system

Catholicism lends itself to the drama and pageantry of film Moviegoers watch as Catholic visionaries interact with the supernatural priests counsel their flocks reformers fight for social justice and bishops wield authoritarian power Rather than being marginal to American popular culture Catholic people places and rituals are all central to the world of the movie Catholics in the Movies begins with an introductory essay that orients readers to the ways that films appear in culture and describes the broad trends that can be seen in the movies hundred year history of representing Catholics Each chapter is written by a noted scholar of American religion who concentrates on one movie that engages important historical artistic and religious issues and then places the film within American cultural and social history discusses the film as an expression of Catholic concerns of the period and relates the film to others of its genre Tracing the story of American Catholic history through popular films Catholics in the Movies should be a valuable resource for anyone interested in American Catholicism and religion and film

The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory Hunter Vaughan,Tom Conley,2018-07-30 The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory offers a unique and progressive survey of screen theory and how it can be applied to a range of moving image texts and sociocultural contexts Focusing on the handbook angle the book includes only original essays from established authors in the field and new scholars on the cutting edge of helping screen theory evolve for the twenty first century vistas of new media social shifts and geopolitical change This method guarantees a strong foundation and clarity for the canon of film theory while also situating it as part of a larger genealogy of art theories and critical thought and reveals the relevance and utility of film theories and concepts to a wide array of expressive practices and specified arguments The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory is at once inclusive applicable and a chance for writers to innovate and really play with where they think the field is can and should be heading
