democracy take a minimalistic quality While voting and fair treatment are important to this vision of democracy ideas about equality are mostly limited to civil liberties In contrast social views of democracy incorporate both civil and economic equality according to people with these views democracy ought to meet the basic social and material needs of citizens Complementing these two groups are moderate and indifferent views about democracy While moderate views sit somewhere in between procedural and social perspectives regarding the role of democracy in producing social and economic equality indifferent views of democracy involve disaffection toward it For a small group of apathetic citizens democracy is an ambiguous and ill defined concept
