Objections to Evolution Nirushan Sivanesan,2023-05-11

The theory of evolution as proposed by Charles Darwin in 1859 has been plagued by controversy and criticisms since its inception But in the Western world at least the fight seems to be almost over with evolution being seen by many as a sealed deal The theory has made its way into science textbooks and has firmly lodged itself there Could this be the biggest mistake the scientific community has ever made Objections to Evolution addresses this question It reexamines the evidence for evolution and brings forth a new case against it from a nonreligious perspective This case contains completely unique and thought provoking ideas arguments and theories It asks and answers fundamental questions which have not been addressed previously and attempts to create a revolution in the way we think about our origins

Religion and Knowledge Elisabeth Arweck,2016-04-15 Religions have always been associated with particular forms of knowledge often knowledge accorded special significance and sometimes knowledge at odds with prevailing understandings of truth and authority in wider society New religious movements emerge on the basis of reformulated often controversial understandings of how the world works and where ultimate meaning can be found Governments have risen and fallen on the basis of such differences and global conflict has raged around competing claims about the origins and content of religious truth Such concerns give rise to recurrent questions faced by academics governments and the general public How do we treat statements made by religious groups and on what basis are they made What authorities lie behind religious claims to truth How can competing claims about knowledge be resolved Are there instances when it is appropriate to police religious knowledge claims or restrict their public expression This book addresses the relationship between religion and knowledge from a sociological perspective taking both religion and knowledge as phenomena located within ever changing social contexts It builds on historical foundations but offers a distinctive focus on the changing status of religious phenomena at the turn of the twenty first century Including critical engagement with live debates about intelligent design and the new atheism this collection of essays brings recent research on religious movements into conversation with debates about socialisation reflexivity and the changing capacity of social institutions to shape human identities Contributors examine religion as an institutional context for the production of knowledge as a form of knowledge to be transmitted or conveyed and as a social field in which controversies about knowledge emerge Manufacturing Intelligence for Industrial Engineering: Methods for System Self-Organization, Learning, and Adaptation Zhou, Zude,Wang, Huaiqing,Lou, Ping,2010-03-31 This book focuses on the latest innovations in the process of manufacturing in engineering Provided by publisher Security in Computing and Communications Sabu M.
