Governance of Biotechnology in Post-Soviet Russia Tatyana Novossiolova, 2017-07-19 This book provides an up to date analysis of the governance of biotechnology in post Soviet Russia. The rapid advancement of the life sciences over the past few decades promises to bring tremendous benefits but also raises significant social ethical legal and security risks. Nations' adaptability to the twin challenges of attempting to secure the benefits while reducing the risks and threats is a large and still burgeoning governance challenge. Here Novossiolova cuts across several sets of literature bringing together elements of the anthropological study of culture history of science and technology management and international governance and Soviet history and politics. Due to its multidisciplinary approach in depth analysis accessible style and extensive reference list this text offers invaluable insights into the normative dimensions of the governance of biotechnology unpacking both the formal and intangible attributes and artefacts of biotechnology policy and practice in Russia.

The Oxford Handbook of China Innovation Xiaolan Fu, Bruce McKern, Jin Chen, 2021-11-16 Rising from a position of relative poverty in 1980 China is now the world s second largest economy and a leader in many fields of innovation Understanding

China's new status as a technologically advanced world power and the means by which it has reached that position will be critical to policy makers and business leaders in the years ahead. The Oxford Handbook of China Innovation provides a contemporary and authoritative view of the role of innovation in China's extraordinary emergence. The Handbook brings together over sixty experts from universities and research institutions worldwide to describe and analyze this phenomenon with criticism, policy discussion, and views about further development. The volume focuses on the microeconomic factors in China's growth and the way in which the steady drive for innovation has been a critical force. Chapters cover a wide scope of topics including China's development policies, the place of innovation in national priorities, the components of the national innovation system, and the resources required for their effective deployment. The issue of foreign influence is also addressed, including the evolution of policy towards inward foreign direct investment and knowledge transfer, and China's goals for outward foreign direct investment. As China emerges as a contender for global leadership, the Handbook provides a data-driven, accessible, and comprehensive foundation to understand and predict the challenges ahead. ECIE 2022 17th European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship Pantelis Sklias, Nikolaos Apostolopoulos, 2022-09-15
