Digital Influence Warfare in the Age of Social Media James J. F. Forest, 2021-09-09 Spotlights how various entities are using the Internet to shape people's perceptions and decision making and describes detailed case studies as well as the tools and methods used to identify automated fake accounts This book brings together three important dimensions of our everyday lives First is digital the online ecosystem of information providers and tools from websites blogs discussion forums and targeted email campaigns to social media video streaming and virtual reality Second influence the most effective ways people can be persuaded in order to shape their beliefs in ways that lead them to embrace one set of beliefs and reject others And finally warfare wars won by the information and disinformation providers who are able to influence behavior in ways they find beneficial to their political social and other goals The book provides a wide range of specific examples that illustrate the ways people are being targeted by digital influencers There is much more to digital influence warfare than terrorist propaganda fake news or Russian efforts to manipulate elections chapters examine post truth narratives fabricated alternate facts and brainwashing and disinformation within the context of various political scientific security and societal debates The final chapters examine how new technical tools critical thinking and resilience can help thwart digital influence warfare efforts

The Gentrification of the Internet Jessa Lingel, 2023-02-07 How we lost control of the internet and how to win it back The internet has become a battleground Although it was unlikely to live up to the hype and hopes of the 1990s only the most skeptical cynics could have predicted the World Wide Web as we know it today commercial isolating and full of even fueled by bias This was not inevitable The Gentrification of the Internet argues that much like our cities the internet has become gentrified dominated by the interests of business and capital rather than the interests of the people who use it Jessa Lingel uses the politics and debates of gentrification to diagnose the massive systemic problems blighting our contemporary internet erosions of privacy and individual ownership small businesses wiped out by wealthy corporations the ubiquitous paywall But there are still steps we can take to reclaim the heady possibilities of the early internet Lingel outlines actions that internet activists and everyday users can take to defend and secure more protections for the individual and to carve out more spaces of freedom for the people not businesses online
