Research on the Image Construction of ASEAN in Chinese Mainstream Media Qiong Dang, 2025-05-09. The book offers an in-depth analysis of how the ASEAN Association of Southeast Asian Nations is portrayed in the Chinese media, focusing on the multifaceted dynamics of economic cooperation, regional connectivity, cultural exchange, and non-traditional security governance. With the rise of China's global influence, understanding the strategic role ASEAN plays in this complex relationship has never been more critical. The book explores ASEAN's image as a cooperative, open, and innovative economic partner, examining digitalization, cross-border synergy, regional trade hubs, and infrastructure collaborations. It delves into how the region's growing role as a technological and green transition hub enhances its position in global trade networks, offering valuable insights for scholars, policymakers, and business leaders. Key chapters highlight ASEAN as an emerging key player in logistics, air freight, and rail transport, focusing on vital trade corridors like Vietnam and the strategic cooperation between regions such as Chongqing, Yunnan, and Guangxi. It also showcases ASEAN's importance as a cultural bridge, highlighting the region's active role in tourism, cultural heritage preservation, and educational exchanges. A special emphasis is placed on ASEAN's involvement in non-traditional security cooperation, including its resilience against natural disasters and growing cybersecurity challenges. The book also underscores ASEAN's importance as a host and participant in major international sporting events, contributing to its growing global profile. Combining scholarly research with practical insights, this work provides readers with a comprehensive understanding of ASEAN's image construction in Chinese media, illustrating how ASEAN is not just a regional grouping but a pivotal player in shaping the future of international relations, trade, and cooperation.

The Hospitality and Tourism Industry in ASEAN and East Asian Destinations Jinlin Zhao, Lianping Ren, Xiangping Li, 2021-07-15. This new volume addresses the growing interest to understand tourism and hospitality in Southeast and South Asia, two regions that have seen tremendous growth in international tourists in recent years. It explores the current development of the hospitality and tourism industry in the regions of Hong Kong, Macao, and Taiwan, as well as other key countries in Southeast and South Asia. The Hospitality and Tourism Industry in ASEAN and East Asian Destinations: New Growth Trends and Developments provides updated findings and case studies that highlight opportunities and issues of tourism and hospitality development in ASEAN. Chapters cover such diverse topics as online marketing strategies, sustainable hospitality development, diversification efforts of the tourism industry, innovations in independent hotels, wildlife tourism in urban destinations, the Vietnamese national park system, consumers' positive and negative images of certain destinations, and much more. While academicians will benefit from the updated research findings summarized by the respected scholars hospitality professionals will also find the book a valuable source of information as the chapters delve into the most recent topical and industry focused issues      Rethinking South China Sea Disputes Katherine Tseng, 2016-12-08 The proposed book draws on the on going South China Sea dispute and the multifaceted challenges wrought by the South China Sea issue that requires an inter disciplinary perspective It employs legal analytical methods to emphasize the nuances of the role and interpretation of international law and treaties by China in different periods while taking into account policy and strategic concerns which generally cast great sways in decision making The re introduction of interdisciplinary concerns straddling law and history illustrates that the historical dimension which has long been neglected is an emerging concern that poses looming dangers that may unexpectedly radicalize the friction Contributing to debunking the mystique wrought by confrontations between a historical and a law dominated perspective these perspectives are supported by a more nuanced analytical framework featuring theoretical concerns with a tinge of practicality The South China Sea Dispute aims to unveil a nuanced evolution of the issue with a confluence of inter temporal law policy and maritime practices in the South China Sea      Follow the Leader, Lose the Region Jeffrey Reeves, 2023-03-01 As competition among the traditional great powers in the Asia region intensifies Canada faces a stark choice Should it align its foreign policy with the US led free and open Indo Pacific strategy Shared values and material ties give Canada a clear incentive to follow the lead of the United States and Western aligned democracies in the region However there are other considerations to take into account Follow the Leader presents the case for the development of a foreign policy based on understanding how Asia sees itself rather than Western presumptions Examining a range of key issues it draws on Asian scholarship leadership statements polling and media to demonstrate Western misunderstanding of regional developments and to outline alternative regionally based perspectives on Asia s contemporary dynamics This critical analysis urges the Canadian government to chart an independent policy arguing that whatever Canada might gain from following its traditional allies it equally stands to lose by aligning itself with a consortium of states committed to self preservation over regional stability      2017 Annual Competitiveness Analysis And Impact Of Exchange Rates On Foreign Direct Investment Inflows To Sub-national Economies Of Indonesia Khee Giap Tan, Mulya Amri, Nursyahida Binte Ahmad, Diamanta Vania Lavi, 2018-11-30 Indonesia s diverse economic landscape and growing importance in the global and regional stages warrant deeper understanding of the economy at sub national levels This book by the Asia Competitiveness Institute ACI is an update of ACI s annual study of the competitiveness landscape of 34 Indonesian provinces With 100 indicators covering four environments and 12 sub environments of competitiveness the study s unique methodology incorporates comparative strengths and weaknesses and what if policy simulations aimed at policy suggestions for each province This fifth instalment will continue to feature a structure and graphical presentation that offer investors an overview of each province s competitiveness landscape A novel addition to this update is the chapter co authored by academics from Indonesian provinces which details recent developments in 34 provinces of Indonesia This latest edition also introduces a novel approach of weights assignment in the form of Shapley values as a robustness test to our findings Additionally a new appendix has been included which provides a richer visual representation of each province s competitiveness profile Finally our study on the impact of exchange rates on foreign direct investment inflows to the provinces of Indonesia is also featured as a chapter in this book Coupled with practical insights and policy implications this book is a recommended read for policymakers researchers and the general audience interested in Indonesia s economic development

ASEAN Law and Regional Integration Diane A Desierto, David J Cohen, 2020-12-29 Since the passage of the ASEAN Charter in 2008 ASEAN has transformed itself from a loose economic cooperation into a formal intergovernmental organization designed to create an ASEAN Community forged together in three pillar communities the ASEAN Political Security Community ASEAN Economic Community and tASEAN Socio Cultural Community Forty years of pre Charter ASEAN practices coupled with over ten years of post Charter ASEAN practices thus far has witnessed the conclusion of hundreds of legally binding regional treaties and similarly binding international instruments in all areas of economic political security and socio cultural concerns for Southeast Asia to achieve ASEAN s rule of law based development objective Pre Charter and post Charter ASEAN Law is variably implemented under a hybrid governance system that depends heavily on ASEAN Member State national implementation alongside ASEAN s evolving regional institutions The result is not a model of deep integration as in the case of the European Union but a particular paradigm of horizontal embeddedness of ASEAN Law in all its norms and operational practices contingent on the capacities and compliance of national government bureaucracies in Southeast Asia This edited collection is a concise authoritative volume covering the practical doctrinal legal and policy aspects of the new regime of ASEAN Law and its consequences for realizing rule of law based development in Southeast Asia s emerging single market and production base Drawing together contributions from a range of key thinkers in the field the editors present the legal and policy making issues implicated in the practical implementation of Southeast Asia s single market and its regime for the free movement of goods services foreign investment and cross border labor The book also examines the nature of regional law making under ASEAN before and after the commencement of regional integration in 2015 the nature of ASEAN s economic regulators as well as the evolving structure for enforcement and harmonization of ASEAN Law through the array of Southeast Asian national courts arbitral tribunals and incipient mechanisms for inter State intra regional and individual State conflict management and dispute resolution This book is highly relevant to students scholars and policy makers with an interest in ASEAN Law and regional policy and to Southeast Asian studies in general
