Emotional Intelligence 3 Lesson Plan:

Lesson Planning Jonathan Savage, 2014-07-25 Lesson planning is an essential component of every teacher's practice. It is part of a three-tiered integrated pedagogy: planning, teaching, and evaluation. Drawing on the work of skilful teachers and the latest research, this book provides a rationale for lesson planning as an integral part of a teacher's work. It introduces the key concepts and skills of lesson planning and provides a practical framework for their development. The book helps the reader to make an informed choice about the approaches they use to plan lessons, taking into account their subject area and the requirements of individual learners. Covering all aspects of short, medium, and long-term planning, chapters include Writing Appropriate Learning Objectives and Outcomes, Designing and Structuring Engaging Teaching Activities, Resourcing the Lesson, Assessing Students' Learning Strategies for Personalised Learning, and Evaluating Your Lesson. The book also includes practical and reflective activities to help the reader apply the ideas discussed to their own work and key questions to encourage the development of their skilful pedagogy. This highly practical book is essential reading for trainee and practising teachers.

The Ultimate Guide to Lesson Planning Carol Thompson, Lydia Spenceley, Mark Tinney, Elaine Battams, Ann Solomon, 2024-02-29 This practical guide will help you to plan evidence-informed, innovative lessons that can be adapted to meet your individual student's needs. Modelled on a typical lesson plan, the book covers all aspects of planning, such as learning aims, starting a lesson, resources and activities, embedding skills and assessment. Each chapter features a wide range of activities and strategies that can be used every day and easily adapted for different learners. The chapters also explore what to do when lessons don't go to plan and how to use technology effectively to support learning. Throughout, there are nuggets of useful theory to help you reflect not only on what works in the classroom but why. Written by an expert author team and linked to the early career framework, this is essential reading for all trainee and early career teachers across a wide range of educational settings.

Lesson Planning with Purpose Christy McConnell, Bradley Conrad, P. Bruce Uhrmacher, 2020 This book takes readers on a journey through many pathways to engaging and meaningful educational experiences. The text first discusses Perceptive Teaching and then explores five unique approaches to lesson planning: behaviorist, constructivist, aesthetic, ecological, and integrated social-emotional learning. Chapters end with a sample lesson that can be compared across approaches.
