Emotions International Politics Mainstream Relations:

Emotions in International Politics Yohan Ariffin, Jean-Marc Coicaud, Vesselin Popovski, 2016-01-11 In recent years social scientists have increasingly recognized the interconnectedness of thought on emotions. Nowhere is the role of passions more evident than in international politics where pride, anger, guilt, fear, empathy, and other feelings are routinely on display. But in the absence of an overarching theory of emotions, how can we understand their role at the international level? Emotions in International Politics fills the need for theoretical tools in the new and rapidly growing subfield of international relations. Eminent scholars from a range of disciplines consider how emotions can be investigated from an international perspective involving collective players, drawing evidence from such emotionally fraught events as the Rwandan genocide, World War II, the 9/11 attacks, and the Iranian nuclear standoff. The path-breaking research collected in Emotions in International Politics will be a valuable theoretical guide to understanding conflict and cooperation in international relations. Researching Emotions in International Relations Maéva Clément, Eric Sangar, 2017-12-05 This edited volume is the first to discuss the methodological implications of the emotional turn in International Relations. While emotions have become of increasing interest to IR theory, methodological challenges have yet to receive proper attention. Acknowledging the plurality of ontological positions, concepts, and theories about the role of emotions in world politics, this volume presents and discusses various ways to research emotions empirically. Based on concrete research projects, the chapters demonstrate how social scientific and humanities-oriented methodological approaches can be successfully adapted to the study of emotions in IR. The volume covers a diverse set of both well-established and innovative methods, including discourse analysis, ethnography, narrative, and visual analysis. Through a hands-on approach, each chapter sheds light on practical challenges and opportunities, as well as lessons learnt for future research. The volume is an invaluable resource for advanced graduate and postgraduate students, as well as scholars interested in developing their own empirical research on the role of emotions.

The Emotions of Internationalism Ilaria Scaglia, 2020 By examining a broad range of individuals and institutions engaged in international cooperation in the Alps in the 1920s and 1930s, this book explains how internationalists constructed and used emotions to attain their goals. It undertakes a journey through the most diverse terrains and venues, from the international art exhibitions and congresses organized by the Union Internationale des Associations d'Alpinisme (also known as UIAA) or the International Mountaineering and Climbing Federation, to the summer camps and schools run by transnational bodies such as the League for Open Air Education, to the international sanatoria for students, workers, and soldiers healing from tuberculosis in the Swiss village of Leysin. Along the way, this study encounters a broad spectrum of state and non-state actors involved in a variety of cross-border endeavors, from large-scale infrastructure projects akin to the tunnel under the Mont Cenis to the League of Nations and its propaganda efforts, to the plethora of smaller international organizations emulating the League's work in fields as diverse as leisure, health, and education. Through this metaphorical travel, this book thus argues that starting from the nineteenth century and accelerating in the interwar years emotions became a fundamental feature of internationalism shaped its development and constitute an essential dimension of international history to this day

Emotions in International Politics Yohan Ariffin, 2015 Emotional Choices Robin Markwica, 2018-03-06 Why do states often refuse to yield to military threats from a more powerful actor such as the United States Why do they frequently prefer war to compliance International Relations scholars generally employ the rational choice logic of consequences or the constructivist logic of appropriateness to explain this puzzling behavior Max Weber however suggested a third logic of choice in his magnum opus Economy and Society human decision making can also be motivated by emotions Drawing on Weber and more recent scholarship in sociology and psychology Robin Markwica introduces the logic of affect or emotional choice theory into the field of International Relations The logic of affect posits that actors behavior is shaped by the dynamic interplay among their norms identities and five key emotions fear anger hope pride and humiliation Markwica puts forward a series of propositions that specify the affective conditions under which leaders are likely to accept or reject a coercer s demands To infer emotions and to examine their influence on decision making he develops a methodological strategy combining sentiment analysis and an interpretive form of process tracing He then applies the logic of affect to Nikita Khrushchev s behavior during the Cuban missile crisis in 1962 and Saddam Hussein s decision making in the Gulf conflict in 1990 1 offering a novel explanation for why U S coercive diplomacy succeeded in one case but not in the other

Revisiting State Personhood and World Politics Bianca Naude, 2021-12-16 Breathing fresh air into debates surrounding foreign policy and interstate relations Bianca Naude presents a holistic theory of states as collectives of people that cannot be reduced to their individual constituents Moving among current research on the ontological status of the state alongside important arguments in support of the state personhood thesis Naude begins by exploring Freud s personality theory and the ways in which this theory has evolved over time in response to newer insights from the field of experimental psychology Recognizing that Freud s work is in many ways outdated she considers more recent literature on narcissism as an aspect of self esteem rather than a form of psychopathology drawing specifically on Kohut s expansion of the concept of narcissism as a normal feature of personality development Using the South African state as a case study Naude demonstrates the various ways in which the state presents itself to the outside world on the one hand and how it wishes to see itself on the other She further considers how narcissistic defenses help protect the state s ego from criticism and self judgments Revisiting State Personhood and World Politics will help readers understand how the state sees itself why or when the state experiences shame humiliation guilt or pride and how it responds to these self conscious emotions It will be a valuable resource to researchers and students of International Relations Handbook of Critical International Relations Steven C. Roach, 2020-02-28 Comprising a plurality of perspectives this timely Handbook is an essential resource for understanding past and current challenges to democracy justice social and gender equality identity and freedom It shows how critical international relations IR theory functions as a broad based and diverse critique of society The Psychology of Foreign Policy Christer Pursiainen, Tuomas Forsberg, 2021-10-16 This book focuses on foreign policy decision making from the viewpoint of psychology Psychology is always present in human decision making constituted by its structural determinants but also playing its own agency level constitutive and causal roles and therefore it should be taken into account in any analysis of foreign policy decisions The book analyses a wide variety of prominent psychological approaches such as bounded rationality prospect theory belief systems cognitive biases emotions personality theories and trust to the study of foreign policy identifying their achievements and added value as well as their limitations from a comparative perspective Understanding how leaders in world politics act requires us to consider recent advances in neuroscience psychology and behavioral economics As a whole the book aims at better integrating various psychological theories into the study of international relations and foreign policy analysis as partial explanations themselves but also as facets of more comprehensive theories It also discusses practical lessons that the psychological approaches offer since ignoring psychology can be costly decision makers need to be able to reflect on their own decision making process as well as the perspectives of the others Paying attention to the psychological factors in international relations is necessary for better understanding the microfoundations upon which such agency is based Soft Power and Diplomatic Strategies in Asia and the Middle East Zreik, Mohamad, 2024-04-01 In a world witnessing the transformative rise of China the intricate dynamics of its soft power diplomacy have become a focal point of global attention As geopolitical landscapes shift the need to understand how China crafts its foreign policy especially through the strategic use of soft power becomes imperative Soft Power and Diplomatic Strategies in Asia and the Middle East is a crucial resource to unraveling these complexities The book addresses the post COVID 19 changes in China's soft power application providing an in depth comparative analysis of its diplomatic endeavors in the Middle East and East Asia By exploring cultural exchanges economic collaborations and religious engagements the book offers nuanced insights into China's strategies making it an indispensable tool for academics policymakers diplomats and those intrigued by contemporary geopolitics This book aims to dissect the multifaceted approaches China employs to achieve its diplomatic objectives From cultural initiatives to economic partnerships and religious engagements the book unravels the adaptability and complexity of China's foreign policy mechanisms Its primary objective is to provide a comparative framework for studying China's soft power diplomacy filling a notable gap in existing scholarship The interdisciplinary approach ensures rich diverse analyses fostering dialogues across international relations Asian studies and political science By offering new theories methodologies and empirical data the book not only challenges existing notions but also sparks further academic inquiry into the strategic use of soft power in foreign policy The Origins of Overthrow Payam Ghalehdar, 2021-08-06 Why has the United States repeatedly engaged in the overthrow of foreign leaders and regimes Although most regime change interventions have neither furthered US national security nor improved the fate of targeted states the US has turned to this foreign policy instrument in at least sixteen cases from 1906 to 2011 In The Origins of Overthrow Payam Ghalehdar explains US imposed regime change by focusing on its emotional underpinnings Based on a thorough analysis of the emotional state of five US presidents he shows how emotional frustration an emotional syndrome that combines hegemonic expectations perceptions of hatred in target state obstructions and negative affect has repeatedly influenced US regime change decisions When US presidents have been gripped by this emotion Ghalehdar argues they have turned to the use of force and targeted perceived sources of obstruction in order to ameliorate their emotional state and discharge frustration Examining five US regime change episodes in two world regions Cuba 1906 Nicaragua 1909 12 and the Dominican Republic 1963 65 in the Western hemisphere and Iran 1979 80 and Iraq 2001 03 in the Middle East he empirically illustrates the emotional sources of US intervention decisions A novel explanation for a puzzling phenomenon in US foreign policy The Origins of Overthrow sheds light on how emotions play a previously overlooked role in US regime change decisions

Quantum-Social Investigations across Transnational Movements Mehmet Akif Kumral, 2025-01-06 This book weaves theoretical empirical threads beyond pragmatic philosophy quantum cosmology and world affairs It offers a quantum social approach to inquire solidarity configurations among transnational movements The first part of the book develops an integrative framework to foreground quantum type features of social fields virtual movements and complex encounters Quantum conceptual keys open new gates for macro theorizing of non locality and comprehending fields around cognate disciplines like psychology and sociology as well as international studies Accordingly emotional indeterminacy is found fundamental for understanding mesoscopic dynamics of virtual mobilizations All along micro layers phenomena of entanglement mold multiple pathways for transversal solidarities The empirical second part looks at how transnational solidarity springs emerge under quantum like contexts of liberation revolution redemption resistance movements Emotional memories and affective imageries dynamically co mingle across flowing fields and moving habitats of 1968 71 and 2008 11 Affective waves and sentimental circulations shape sanctified secularized constellations of altruisms and sacrifices through which solidarities spin

Law and Film Vittoria Becci, Alexia Katsiginis, Edward Van Daalen, 2024-12-31 This book explores how law can be understood through film by engaging creatively with the intellectual and aesthetic dimensions of both fields Challenged to go beyond an instrumental analysis of a law and film the contributors to this book instead consider instead the need to turn to film and what this means for how we come to understand law and its absences The chapters explore a variety of narratives aesthetics cinematic epistemologies and legal phenomena from assessing law in social debates to film as legal critique from notions of justice to contemplations on evil and from masculine vigilantism to radical feminism Taken together they constitute an inspiring body of work that embodies an urgency for diverse and subversive ways to challenge law s formalism and authority and to think about and respond variously to law s impotence its disappointment or its boredom This book will appeal to legal scholars and students in law and the humanities especially those with interests in aesthetics law and literature law and culture law and society and critical legal theory Dismantling the League of Nations Jane Mumby, 2023-11-30 The League of Nations one of the world's first multi function intergovernmental organisations was also one of the first to undergo liquidation This book unveils the last chapter in its story showing how complex and time consuming the end of this great experiment truly was Starting with the signing of the Charter of the United Nations in 1945 the death knell of the League Mumby traces the closure process that followed From the final meeting of the Assembly in April 1946 the transfer of assets and functions to the UN the liquidation of the Secretariat and the last acts of business through 1948 this book follows the story through the eyes of those who made it happen It demonstrates why this process took longer than expected highlights the importance of human agency in even the most bureaucratic of institutions and points to the lingering impact of the League on international organisations today Uncovering both the institutional and personal aspects of the League of Nations final chapter this book furthers our understanding of this famous institution shedding light on those that continue to dominate contemporary international relations and exposing the unavoidable complexity of dismantling an intergovernmental organisation Affective Justice Kamari Maxine Clarke, 2019-11-15 Kamari Maxine Clarke explores the African Union's pushback against the International Criminal Court in order to theorize affect's role in shaping forms of justice Exploring Emotions in Turkey-Iran Relations Mehmet Akif Kumral, 2020-05-15 This book explores emotional affective implications of partnership and rivalry in Turkey Iran relations The main proposition of this research underlines the theoretical need to reconnect psycho social conceptualizations of emotionality affectivity normativity and relationality By combining key theoretical findings the book offers a holistic conceptual framework to better analyze emotional affective configuration of relational rules and roles in trans governmental neighborhood interactions The empirical chapters look at four consecutive periods extending from the end of First World War November 1918 to the resuscitation of US sanctions against Iran November 2018 In each episode global regional contours and dyadic dynamics of Ankara Tehran relationship are examined critically The century long history of emotional entanglements and affective arrangements exposes complex patterning of feeling rules Two countervailing constellations still reign over relational narratives While the 1514 aldran war myth reproduces sectarian resentment and confrontational climate the 1639 Kasr irin peace story reconstructs secular sympathy and collaborative atmosphere in Turkish Iranian affairs Reflecting on the GCC Crisis David B. Roberts, 2022-03-16 In June 2017 Saudi Arabia the UAE Bahrain and Egypt the quartet enacted a diplomatic economic and physical blockade of Qatar Gulf politics has always been fractious but this stunning political gambit took everyone Qatari leaders scholars the international community entirely by surprise The quartet assailed Qatar with a litany of charges mostly relating to its support of a motley array of sub state actors across the Middle East However few out with the quartet thought that Qatar's purported crimes warranted such a unique and all encompassing punishment The blockade ended in January 2021 just as it began out of the blue without any obvious instigating factors The puzzle of the Gulf blockade and its myriad impacts are examined in this volume which benefits from certain distance. It builds upon early analyses to offer a range of crisp insightful reflections many based on new primary sources. The chapters take a multidisciplinary and diverse theoretical approach to the crisis. In this way the blockade is evaluated from multiple novel angles presenting the most rounded analysis of one of the most surprising and impactful events in the contemporary diplomatic history of one of the world's key strategic crossroads. The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Arabian Studies. 21st-Century Statecraft Nayef Al-Rodhan, 2022-07-28. From civilisational frontier risks associated with new challenges like disruptive technologies to the shifting nature of great power conflicts and subversion the 21st century requires a new approach to statecraft. In 21st Century Statecraft Professor Nayef Al Rodhan proposes five innovative statecraft concepts. He makes the case for a new method of geopolitical analysis called meta geopolitics and for dignity based governance. He shows how in an interdependent and interconnected world traditional thinking must move beyond zero sum games and focus on multi sum and symbiotic realist interstate relations. This requires a new paradigm of global security premised on five dimensions of security and a new concept of power just power which highlights the centrality of justice to state interests. These concepts enable states to balance competing interests and work towards what the author calls reconciliation statecraft. Throughout Professor Al Rodhan brings his philosophical and neuroscientific expertise to bear providing a practical model for conducting statecraft in a sustainable way. Rethinking Security in the Twenty-First Century Edwin Daniel Jacob, 2016-12-09. This edited volume helps bridge the elusive gap between theory and practice in dealing with the issue of security broadly conceived. A quarter of a century has passed since the crumbling of the Berlin Wall. Yet our notions of security remain mired in Cold War thinking whose realist ethos is predicated on holding the nation state's power interests and survival as the guiding unit of analysis in international relations. Security is ever changing. Confronting new dangers to the individual, the state and the international order calls for new categories that speak to the new influence of globalization, international institutions and transnational threats. Composed of original essays by a cosmopolitan mix of leading figures inside and outside the academy, this book proves relevant to any number of classes and courses and its controversial character makes it all the more necessary and appealing. Explaining Foreign Policy in Post-Colonial Africa Stephen M. Magu, 2021-01-02. This book explores foreign policy developments in post colonial Africa. A continental foreign policy is a tenuous proposition yet new African states emerged out of armed resistance and advocacy from regional allies such as the Bandung Conference and the League of Arab States. Ghana was the first Sub Saharan African country to gain independence in 1957. Fourteen more countries gained independence in 1960 alone and by May 1963 when the Organisation of African Unity (OAU) was formed 30 countries were independent. An early OAU committee was the African Liberation Committee (ALC) tasked to work in the Frontline States (FLS) to support independence in Southern Africa. Pan Africanists in alliance with Brazzaville, Casablanca and Monrovia groups approached continental unity differently and regionalism continued to be a major feature. Africa's challenges were often magnified by the capitalist democratic versus communist socialist bloc rivalry but through Africa's use and leveraging of IGOs the UN UNDP UNECA GATT NIEO and others to advance development the formation of the African Economic Community OAU's evolution into the AU and other alliances belied collective actions even as Africa implemented decisions that required cooperation uti possidetis maintaining colonial borders containing secession intra and inter state conflicts rebellions and building RECs and a united Africa as envisioned by Pan Africanists worked better collectively

Ontological Security in International Relations Brent J. Steele, 2008-03-10 This volume demonstrates that ontological security is a major motivating rationale for state action and inaction challenging and complementing realist liberal and constructivist accounts to international politics

The Top Books of the Year Emotions International Politics Mainstream Relations The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Emotions International Politics Mainstream Relations : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Emotions International Politics Mainstream Relations : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Emotions International Politics Mainstream Relations : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
