The Land of Enchantria Bill Disputo, 2016-10-18 In the land of Enchantria there is an ancient prophecy handed down by the imperial wizard eons ago and passed down from generation to generation The prophecy states that during an age of darkness in a year of a constant moon to a mortal woman who is queen and a mortal man who is king will be born an enchanted boy child This child himself destined one day to be king will have the power to bring light to all creatures great and small He will right the wrongs done in the name of evil he will restore the land to its earthly form and he will forever drive the darkness from the hearts and souls of all beings Six beings all born on the same day but to different lives have their futures inexplicably and inexorably connected to serve the prophecy Two princesses one the golden haired daughter of a good king and queen and the other the raven haired daughter of a witch queen bent on revenge and power Two half bloods both exiled from the tribes of their parents find each other and form a lifetime bond of friendship and alliance pledging to protect the child princess And finally two mortal enemies born in the deepest reaches of the dark forest one half animal half man with only death and suffering in its heart and the other a member of the gifted tribe whose abilities will mean the balance of power between the powers of light and darkness As they grow their lives are all set upon the same path to locate and obtain a magical device of unspeakable power the diamond scepter It is said that the scepter can make a weak enchanter strong and make a strong enchanter invincible but legend has it that the scepter also controls the mythical Iron Army an undefeatable army of indestructible soldiers Both sides want the scepter the agents of the light want it returned to its rightful place in the Crystal City but the agents of the darkness want its power to destroy the light and rule of Enchantria

Complete Reign of King Edward the Third Donald Richardson, 2018-10-16 Proudfoot and Bennett remind us that the authorship of Edward III remains speculative 89 However they continue The circumstantial case for Shakespeare has sufficient dimensions to be persuasive especially the relation of Edward III to Shakespeare's early non-dramatic and dramatic writings 89 Whether Shakespeare wrote the play is less important perhaps than the fact that we have the work and can still appreciate it today

The Raw and the Cooked Claude Lévi-Strauss,1983-03-15 In anthropological terms the concept of the raw verses the cooked has long been associated with the dichotomy between the natural world and the world of human culture In a broad based empirical study of native mythologies Claude L vi Strauss proposes a structural and thematic link between the opposition of the raw and the cooked in mythological thought and man s attempt to establish a balanced relationship between natural and cultural forces L vi Strauss postulates that the raw cooked axis is characteristic of all human culture with elements falling along the raw side of the axis being those of natural origin and those on the cooked side being of cultural origin i e products of human creation Symbolically cooking marks the transition from nature to culture by means of which the human state can be defined in accordance with all its attributes In mythological thought the cooking of food is in effect a form of mediation between nature and society between life and death and between heaven and earth The cook in turn can be viewed as a cultural agent whose function is to mediate the conjunction of the raw product and the human consumer the operation of which has the effect of making sure the natural is at once cooked and socialized
