

Business Plans

Executive Summary

An executive summary is a quick overview of the key issues it explains the main purpose of the business. It is normally written sections are complete but is put at the start of the business plan in the business plan that people will read to show people to read what the business involves in a short space of time. They can sections in more detail if necessary.

Objectives

Objectives are used in a business plan to ensure the owner of clear set of goals to aim for. All objectives should be SMART. business owner understand why they are running the business might be broken down into Long, Medium or Short Term One business to establish whether or not they have been successful period of time.

The business might also have a Statement defines the company's those objectives in just one sentence desired future position of the company.

Products

The products section of a business plan will explain everything product and/or service a business provides.

This will include the key features of the product or service, how is the target market, how the product or service be supplied (or business will use as their main suppliers) and any other logos quality and distribution. It might also include pictures or drawings and what any Unique Selling Points are.

Market Research

Market research will normally include both primary and secondary information analysis. Primary research for a small business is usually limited to questionnaires and focus groups. Secondary research could consist of research carried out online. The market research in a business plan will try to identify customer needs and opinions in the local area and perhaps issues affecting the market for the product or service they wish to provide. Market research must prove there is a suitable opportunity in the market (Gap in the Market).

Competition

Competition could be included in the market research section but it is also

Ownership and Management

A business plan will explain who owns and manages the business. It will give some details about the key personnel involved in running and running the business (biographies of key personnel and members of the Board of Directors). It might also highlight the benefits that each member of the team brings to the business, including past experience, significant attributes and his or her key responsibilities in the company. It might also show the organisational structure of the business so that readers have a clear understanding of how the business will manage day-to-day operations. If there are many owners, it will discuss the structure of the business.

Human Resources

This section details the number of employees that are working in the business and where they are employed in the various departments. It will list the skills needed and responsibilities of the staff in different departments with monthly personnel cost estimates and an overview of issues relating to Recruitment, Training and Retention. It might also include an Organisational Chart to show just how the business is structured and how many people work in each department of the of different details in it, it shows, the full name of the business has branches in different areas) but also the Legal Structure of the business (whether the business is a Partnership or who the Shareholders might be if the business is a Private Limited Company).

Marketing

Marketing is everything to do with communicating with customers and meet customer needs. The marketing section of a business plan may explain how business will achieve high levels of customer service and mainly how the business intends to communicate with its target market. It will explain why the business will use the way that it has, the promotional strategies it will use such as advertising, sales promotions, fairs, radio adverts. It will also show where it will be able to buy their product or service.

Financial Forecasts

Financial forecasts such as a cash flow forecasts, sales revenue, cost and profit targets and break even analysis are very important to a business plan. Businesses will judge their success by looking at their sales and profits and even if they don't (e.g. a charity) they must still have enough finance and cash to run smoothly. Financial forecasts help a business identify any potential problems with money and help them make decisions on how the business will be financed. Effective financial forecasts will also show any potential lender of money whether they will get their money back!
