Faces Of The State Secularism And Public Life In Turkey:

Faces of the State Yael Navaro-Yashin, 2002-04-21 Publisher Description Shari`a in the Secular State Russell Powell, 2016-06-10 Words in both law and religion can shape power relationships and are often highly disputed Shari`a lies within the overlap of these two spheres and provides a unique subject for the study of meaning in that liminal space This book contributes important insights related to Islamic jurisprudence and secularism in the Turkish context and regarding the role of language in contested legal and religious contexts The study begins by providing a historical framework for the ideas and terms covered including concepts of religion in general Shari`a in particular and secularism in the Turkish state It goes on to examine empirical research to describe and analyze contemporary Turkish understandings of religion and Shari`a The author's research indicates that there is often a disconnect between supporting the adoption of Shari`a and supporting the regulation of everyday behavior through civil codes Thus Shari`a seems to have taken on new meanings as groups have sought either to appropriate or criticize it It is a quintessential example of fractured and contextual meaning at the center of both religious and legal traditions This book is essential reading for both academics and those interested in law linguistics history political science anthropology sociology religious studies or Near Eastern studies Turkey's Engagement with Modernity C. Kerslake, K. Öktem, P. Robins, 2010-02-25 Turkey's Engagement with Modernity explores how the country has been shaped in the image of the Kemalist project of nationalist modernity and how it has transformed if erratically into a democratic society where tensions between religion state and society continue unabated Multiple Modernities and Postsecular Societies Kristina Stoeckl, 2016-04-15 Engaging with the idea that the world reveals not one but many routes to modernity this volume explores the role of religion in the emergence of multiple forms of modernity which evolve according to specific cultural conditions and interpretations of the modern project It draws upon case study material from Africa The Middle East Russia and South America to examine the question of whether modernity democracy and secularism are universalistic concepts or are on the contrary unique to Western civilization whilst considering the relationship of postsecularism to the varied paths of modern development Drawing together work from leading social theorists this critical theoretical contribution to current debates will appeal to sociologists social theorists and political scientists with interests in religion secularization and postsecularization theory and transitions to modernity in the contemporary globalized world The Sociology of Islam Tugrul Keskin, 2011 Attempts to make a connection between the economic system and its social and political consequences within Muslim societies To do this this book examines the role of Islam within Muslim societies in the context of neoliberal economic processes in a globalized world Between Islam and the State Berna Turam, 2007 Examines how shifting power dynamics between the state and Islamic forces during the 1990s have transformed both Islam and the Turkish state Political Islam and the Secular State in Turkey Evangelia Axiarlis, 2014-06-20 How safe is Turkey's liberal democracy The rise to power in 2002 of the right leaning Islamic Justice and Development Party ignited fears in the West that Turkey could no longer be relied upon to provide a buffer against the growth of Islamic fundamentalism in the Middle East Once hailed by the West as a model of secularism and moderation in the Muslim world Turkey is now seen to be under the influence of the creeping Islamisation of the JDP or AKP as it is known in Turkey Yet to what extent has this affected the lives of Turkish citizens Evangelia Axiarlis here explores the contribution of the JDP to civil liberties and basic freedoms long suppressed by secular and statist Kemalist ideology and how this has remained unexamined despite more than a decade in government In this the first detailed study of the policies and ideology of Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdoğan's government the author examines the extent to which the JDP has worked to improve civil life in Turkey and critically addresses whether a government built on Islamic principles can champion political reform Exploring how Islam and democracy are neither monoliths nor mutually exclusive this is a timely contribution to the wider understanding of political Islam

Women and Cultural Citizenship in Turkey Solen Sanli, 2015-12-10 In 2005 a Turkish woman was shot dead by her son in an honour killing for appearing on a popular women's talk show on television The show invited ordinary women from lower socio-economic classes to speak of their experiences of family life marriage divorce child custody rights and relations with in-laws Here Solen Sanli examines the diversification of mass media in Turkey following liberalization in the 1980s Specifically looking at popular women's talk shows Woman's Voice Television she explores the way in which groups with political and cultural power control public discourse and the public sphere in Turkey and how urban rural and Islamist secular oppositions play out Sanli traces the development of mass media in Turkey particularly television and closely examining how narrations of violence against women are presented Women and Cultural Citizenship in Turkey contains rigorous topical and original insights relevant for a range of disciplines such as Anthropology Gender and Communication Studies as well as those researching cultural and political participation in the Middle East

Headscarf Politics in Turkey M. Kavakci Islam, 2010-10-25 This book questions the role model status of the Turkish Republic with respect to the advancement of female agency in a secular context by using the study of women with headscarves as a case in point Turkey's commitment to modernization depends heavily on secularism which involves among other things the westernization of women's appearance

Intellectuals and Reform in the Ottoman Empire Stefano Taglia, 2015-04-24 This book uncovers Young Turk political and social ideas at the end of the nineteenth century during the intellectual phase of the movement Analysing the life in exile of two of the most charismatic leaders of the Young Turk movement Ahmed Rıza and Mehmet Sabahattin the book unravels their plans for the future of the Ottoman Empire covering issues of power religion citizenship minority rights the role of the West and the accountability of the Sultan The book follows Rıza and Sabahattin through their association with philosophical circles and highlights how their emphasis on intellectualism and elitism had a twofold effect On the one hand seeing themselves as enlightened and entrusted with a mission they engaged in enduring debates leaving an important legacy for both Ottoman and Republican rule On the other hand the rigidity resulting from elitism and intellectualism prevented the conception of concrete plans for change causing a schism at the 1902 Congress of Ottoman Liberals and marking the end of the intellectual phase Using bilingual period journals contemporary accounts police archives and political and philosophical treaties this book is of interest to students scholars and researchers of Middle East and Ottoman History and Political Science more broadly Islamic Schools in Modern Turkey Iren Ozgur,2012-08-13 In recent years the Islamization of Turkish politics and public life has been the subject of much debate in Turkey and the West This book makes an important contribution to those debates by focusing on a group of religious schools known as Imam Hatip schools founded a year after the Turkish Republic in 1924 At the outset the main purpose of Imam Hatip schools was to train religious functionaries However in the ensuing years the curriculum function and social status of the schools have changed dramatically Through ethnographic and textual analysis the book explores how Imam Hatip school education shapes the political socialization of the schools students those students attitudes and behaviours and the political and civic activities of their graduates By mapping the schools connections to Islamist politicians and civic leaders the book sheds light on the significant yet often overlooked role that the schools and their communities play in Turkey s Islamization at the high political and grassroots levels A History of Social Justice and Political Power in the Middle East Linda T. Darling,2013 This book provides a comprehensive survey of the exercise of political power and justice in the Middle East from ancient Mesopotamia through into the 20th century through a detailed examination of the Circle of Justice A must read for students policymakers and ordinary citizens this book will be an important contribution to the areas of political history political theory Middle East studies and Orientalism Muslim Civil Society and the Politics of Religious Freedom in Turkey Jeremy F. Walton,2017-04-03 The sway of Islam in political life is an unavoidable topic of debate in Turkey today Secularists Islamists and liberals alike understand the Turkish state to be the primary arbiter of Islam s place in Turkey as the coup attempt of July 2016 and its aftermath have dramatically illustrated Yet this emphasis on the state ignores the influence of another field of political action in relation to Islam that of civil society Based on ethnographic research conducted in Istanbul and Ankara Muslim Civil Society and the Politics of Religious Freedom in Turkey is Jeremy F Walton s inquiry into the political and religious practices of contemporary Turkish Muslim Nongovernmental Organizations Since the mid 1980s Turkey has witnessed an efflorescence of NGOs in tandem with a neoliberal turn in domestic economic policies and electoral politics One major effect of this neoliberal turn has been the emergence of a vibrant Muslim civil society which has decentered and transformed the Turkish state s relationship to Islam Muslim NGOs champion religious freedom as a paramount political ideal and marshal a distinctive nongovernmental politics of religious freedom to advocate this ideal Walton s accomplished study offers a fine grained perspective on this nongovernmental politics of religious freedom and the institutions and communities from which it emerges REFASHIONING MUSLIMS Merve Kütük-Kuriş,2025-02-13 Transnationalism in the Balkans Denisa Kostovicova,Vesna Bojicic-Dzelilovic,2013-10-18 After a decade of exclusive nationalism violence and isolation of the 1990s the Balkans has seen the emergence of transnational links between the former ethnic foes Do these new cross border links herald the era of inter ethnic reconciliation in place of the politics of ethnic exclusion Are they a proof of a successful transition from authoritarianism and war to democracy and peace Drawing on substantial empirical research by regional specialists Transnationalism in the Balkans provides a sobering insight into the nature of cross border links in the region and their implications Several of the authors show how transnational connections in the context of weak states and new borders in the region have been used by transnational actors be it in the politics economics and culture to undermine a democratic consolidation and keep the practice of exclusive ethnic politics and identities alive These findings make a strong case to go beyond the region and put forth a critical argument for rethinking the theories of transition to democracy in the post Communist and post conflict setting to incorporate a dimension of globalisation This book was previously published as a special issue of Ethnopolitics

Turkey between Democracy and Authoritarianism Yeşim Arat, Şevket Pamuk, 2019-09-05

Since the 1980 military coup in Turkey much of the history and politics of the country can be described as a struggle between democracy and authoritarianism In this accessible account of the country s politics society and economics the authors delve into the causes and processes of what has been called a democratic backsliding In order to explore this Ye im Arat and evket Pamuk two of Turkey s leading social scientists focus on the mutual distrust between the secular and Islamist groups They argue that the attempts by a secular coalition to circumscribe the Islamists in power had a boomerang effect The Islamists struck back first in self defence then in pursuit of authoritarian power With chapters on urbanization Kurdish nationalism women s movements economic development and foreign relations this book offers a comprehensive and lively examination of contemporary Turkey and its role on the global stage

Living and Dying in the Contemporary World Veena Das, Clara Han, 2015-11-17

Taking a novel approach to the contradictory impulses of violence and care illness and healing this book radically shifts the way we think of the interrelations of institutions and experiences in a globalizing world Living and Dying in the Contemporary World is not just another reader in medical anthropology but a true tour de force a deep exploration of all that makes life unbearable and yet livable through the labor of ordinary people This book comprises forty four chapters by scholars whose ethnographic and historical work is conducted around the globe including South Asia East Asia Latin America Africa the Middle East Europe and the United States Bringing together the work of established scholars with the vibrant voices of younger scholars Living and Dying in the Contemporary World will appeal to anthropologists sociologists health scientists scholars of religion and all who are curious about how to relate to the rapidly changing institutions and experiences in an ever more connected world

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Europe Grace Davie, Lucian Leuștean, 2022

Features contributions from leading scholars providing crucial insight into the role of religious ideas structures and institutions in the making of Europe Introduces the building blocks of Europe s religious and the part that they played in the formation of the continent Explores the relationship between religious communities and ideologies in the twentieth century

connections that play out very differently in East and West Europe Examines the role of religion in the construction of the European Union from the end of the Second World War until the present day Assesses the relationship between the major world religions and the idea of Europe Book jacket Islamic Conversation Smita Tewari Jassal, 2019-09-30 The book evaluates on going ethical conversations to learn how emotional communication is received teachings are internalized and a religious world view is brought to life Exploring how religious values saturate people s consciousness to induce subtle shifts in moral and ethical sensibilities this book is about people s practices that illuminate how Islam is lived Based on fieldwork conducted in Ankara between 2010 and 2016 the study enquires into people s ethical religious and moral motivations through the use of the ethnographic method and thick description Conversations and interviews with officials community leaders students entrepreneurs professionals and blue collar workers were subjected to close scrutiny to foreground societal change and churning To capture perspectives absent or deliberately overlooked in mainstream public discourse and scholarship fieldwork was conducted in locations ranging from homes offices and university dorms to the shrines of saints In listening closely to how people talk about their religious practices the book addresses the question of how Islamic subjectivities are being forged in Turkey The study unveils how people are pushed to re think old practices and attitudes in the process of reinterpreting Islam in light of contemporary concerns Filling a gap in the literature where micro level grounded analyses of culture and society are relatively rare this book is a key resource for readers interested in the anthropology of religion and gender ethnography Turkey and the Middle East Islamization of Turkey under the AKP Rule Birol Yesilada, Barry Rubin, 2013-09-13 This book examines the decade in office of the Justice and Development Party AKP and its efforts to transform the Turkish republic toward a more Islamist oriented system If it succeeds Turkey s dramatic shift will be the most important change in the Middle East power balance since the 1979 Iranian revolution and will have equally devastating effects on Western interests For more than 80 years Turkey has been ruled by the secular democratic structures created by Kemal Ataturk Now however the rise of the Justice and Development Party AKP and its series of electoral victories are creating a new system Whilst portraying itself as a centre right reform party the AKP has been accused of having an Islamist agenda After almost a decade in power there is serious evidence that this claim is true At home the AKP has been changing basic Turkish attitudes and institutions from buying up a large portion of the country s media to revising its laws and even taking the lead in the writing of a new constitution Internationally Turkey has moved away from the West and Israel toward Iran and radical Islamist groups While its intentions and ability to fulfil them are still unclear the AKP has been leading the most important transformation of Turkey since the formation of the republic after World War I This book systematically examines the AKP s ideology support base actions in office and goals This book was published as a special issue of the Turkish Studies
