Facing Mount Kenya The Tribal Life Of The Gikuyu

Philip Alston, Ryan Goodman

Facing Mount Kenya The Tribal Life Of The Gikuyu:

Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1978-12-29 Facing Mount Kenya first published in 1938 is a monograph on the life and customs of the Gikuyu people of central Kenya prior to their contact with Europeans. It is unique in anthropological literature for it gives an account of the social institutions and religious rites of an African people permeated by the emotions that give to customs and observances their meaning. It is characterised by both insight and a tinge of romanticism. The author, proud of his African blood and ways of thought, takes the reader through a thorough and clear picture of Gikuyu life and customs, painting an almost utopian picture of their social norms and the sophisticated codes by which all aspects of the society were governed. This book is one of a kind capturing and documenting traditions fast disappearing. It is therefore a must read for all who want to learn about African culture.

Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1962-02-12 With an Introduction by Bronislaw Malinowski. Facing Mount Kenya is a central document of the highest distinction in anthropological literature, an invaluable key to the structure of African society and the nature of the African mind. Facing Mount Kenya is not only a formal study of life and death, work and play, sex and the family in one of the greatest tribes of contemporary Africa, but a work of considerable literary merit. The very sight and sound of Kikuyu tribal life presented here are at once comprehensive and intimate and as precise as they are compassionate.

[With Plates, Including a Portrait, and a Map.]* Jomo Kenyatta, 1953 Facing Mount Kenya* Jomo Johnston Kenyatta, 1961 Facing Mount Kenya ; the tribal life of the Gikuyu. With an introduction by B. Malinowski* Jomo Kenyatta, 1962 Making the Revolution Global Theo Williams, 2022-10-18 How black radicals reshaped the British left. Making the Revolution Global shows how black radicals transformed socialist politics in Britain in the years before decolonisation. African and Caribbean activist intellectuals such as Amy Ashwood Garvey, C. L. R. James, Jomo Kenyatta, Kwame Nkrumah and George Padmore came to Britain during the 1930s and 1940s and intervened in debates about capitalism, imperialism, fascism and war. They consistently argued that any path towards international socialism must have colonial liberation at its heart. Although their ideas were met with opposition from many on the British Left, they convinced significant sections of the movement of the revolutionary potential of colonised peoples. By centring the entanglements between black radicals and the wider British socialist movement, Theo Williams casts new light on responses to the 1935 Italian invasion of Ethiopia, the 1945 Fifth Pan African Congress and a wealth of other events and phenomena. In doing so, he showcases a revolutionary tradition that, as illustrated by the global Black Lives Matter demonstrations of 2020, is still relevant today.

Military Anthropology Montgomery McFate, 2018-05-01 In almost every military intervention in its history, the US has made cultural mistakes that hindered attainment of its policy goals. From the strategic bombing of Vietnam to the accidental burning of the Koran in Afghanistan it has blundered around with little consideration of local cultural beliefs and for the long term effects on the host nation's society Cultural anthropology the so called handmaiden of colonialism has historically served as an intellectual bridge between Western powers and local nationals What light can it shed on the intersection of the US military and foreign societies today This book tells the story of anthropologists who worked directly for the military such as Ursula Graham Bower the only woman to hold a British combat command during WWII Each faced challenges including the negative outcomes of exporting Western political models and errors of perception Ranging from the British colonial era in Africa to the recent wars in Iraq and Afghanistan Military Anthropology illustrates the conceptual cultural and practical barriers encountered by military organisations operating in societies vastly different from their own , African Conceptions of Human Dignity Brett G. Scharffs, M. Christian Green, Simeon O. Ilesanmi, Contributors join together in this tenth ACLARS volume to propose a framing of human rights in terms of African conceptions of human dignity Following on the signing of the Punta del Este and Botswana Declarations of Human Dignity for Everyone Everywhere in 2018 and 2023 contributors discuss human dignity as an African and indigenous concept grounded in relationship community and an overarching ethic of Ubuntu Chapters further explore human dignity's many meanings and relation to other rights in the African context as well as human dignity's connection to basic human needs state obligations religion and theology gender and age and the environment Power and the Presidency in Kenya Anaïs Angelo, 2020 The first study to use Jomo Kenyatta's political biography and presidency as a basis for examining the colonial and postcolonial history of Kenya A Place in the World, 2021-10-01 Local histories written and published by non academic historians constitute a rapidly expanding genre in contemporary non Western societies However academic historians and anthropologists usually take little notice of them This volume takes a comparative look at local historical writing Thirteen case studies set in seven different countries of sub Saharan Africa India and Nepal examine the authors their books and their audiences From different perspectives they analyse the genre's intellectual roots its relationship to oral historical narratives and its relevance and impact in local and wider arenas Local histories it turns out pursue a variety of agendas They re construct local and communal identities affected by rapid social change Often they re write history as part of cultural and political struggles Openly or implicitly all of them place local communities on the map of the world at large International Human Rights Philip Alston, Ryan Goodman, 2013 The successor to International human rights in context law politics and morals The Human Factor in Changing Africa Melville J. Herskovits, 2013-11-05 Focussing on the problems of change and resistance to change that mark the African sub continent this book examines Africa's place in the world from earliest times It considers the nature of its peoples in their prehistoric development the ways in which their cultures were oriented and the ways in which these cultures guided their reactions to European ideas It also assesses the human responses to industrial technological and economic changes and the re discovery by the Africans of African culture Originally published in 1962 Shakespeare in Swahililand Edward Wilson-Lee,
