Cultivating Adolescent Literacy Gregory Berry,2017-10-04 This book offers middle and high school teachers useful suggestions and strategies for cultivating literacy in their classrooms focusing primarily on the key skills of reading and writing. It discusses the nature of standards based education and emphasizes the power and importance of good literature in the ELA curriculum. Included are detailed approaches to reading and writing with simple strategies for teaching close reading of complex text as well as textual evidence and elaboration. A variety of sample performance tasks are included for commonly taught works of American and world literature as well as a variety of strategies to strengthen students reading and writing skills needed for success in college and the workplace. This book is a practical handbook for teachers who can easily find appropriate strategies to use in their classrooms and begin implementing them right away. It is a useful collection of tips with suggestions and instructions for implementing effective and engaging literacy strategies and performance tasks.

In the Mind's Eye
Emily Mofield, Tamra Stambaugh, 2021-09-03
Winner of the 2012 NAGC Curriculum Studies Award
In the Mind's Eye: Truth Versus Perception invites students on a philosophical exploration of the themes of truth and perception. Lessons include a major emphasis on rigorous evidence based discourse through the study of common themes and content rich challenging informational and fictional texts. This unit developed by Vanderbilt University's Programs for Talented Youth and aligned to the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) applies concepts from Plato's Allegory of the Cave to guide students to discover how reality is presented and interpreted in fiction, nonfiction, art, and media. Students engage in activities such as Socratic seminars, literary analyses, skits, and art projects and creative writing to understand differing perceptions of reality. Lessons include close readings with text dependent questions, choice based differentiated products, rubrics, formative assessments, and ELA tasks that require students to analyze texts for rhetorical features, literary elements, and themes through argument, explanatory and prose constructed writing. Ideal for pre-AP and honors courses, the unit features art from M.C. Escher and Vincent Van Gogh, short stories from Guy de Maupassant and Shirley Jackson, longer texts by Daniel Keyes and Ray Bradbury, and informational texts related to sociology, Nazi propaganda, and Christopher Columbus. This unit encourages students to translate learning to real life contexts and problems by exploring themes of disillusionment, social deception, and the power of perception. Grades 6-8

Can I Teach That?
Suzanne Linder, Elizabeth Majerus, 2016-07-11
Can I Teach That? Negotiating Taboo Language and Controversial Topics in the Language Arts Classroom is a collection of stories, strategies, advice, and documents collected for teachers who are using or plan to use materials or implement policies they know may be controversial. It is for any teacher dedicated to engaging their students in the complex, challenging, and rewarding activities of reading and writing for any teacher committed to speaking honestly with students. For any teacher, period. Because when we decide to work with young people, when we commit to sharing books and ideas that engage their hearts and minds, when we strive to get adolescents to think critically and write honestly, we open ourselves up to suspicion and critique from someone somewhere, no matter how above reproach we feel. Our materials and strategies are. Few language arts teachers will experience a full-blown challenge to the content of their curriculum, but many may self-censor or suffer through awkward and challenging conversations with colleagues administrators parents and other members of their community This book is for those times when teachers are called on to defend and legitimize their use of controversial material in their classroom material that they know reflects students reality even as it makes adults uncomfortable and fearful about their inability to protect children from that very reality
