Exotics at Home Micaela di Leonardo, 2000-03-16 What is the exotic after all In this study Micaela di Leonardo reveals the face of power within the mask of cultural difference Focusing on the intimate and shifting relations between popular portrayals of exotic Others and the practice of anthropology that profession assumed to be America s Guardian of the Offbeat she casts new light on gender race and the public sphere in America s past and present Chicago s 1893 Columbian World Exposition and today s college town ethnic boutiques frame di Leonardo s century long analysis The Exotic Self Assistant Professor of Music Theory Butler School of Music Chelsea Burns, Chelsea Burns, 2025 I explore how market and political forces composer biography and aesthetic and intellectual concerns expressed in the composer s writings and compositions all complicate ascriptions of nationalism in the case of Mexican composer Carlos Ch vez I focus on La aloma azul a work Ch vez wrote for 1940 concerts at New York s Museum of Modern Art providing an alternative reading of the work and highlighting features that would be missed in a reading concerned with characterizing the work as nationalist Exotic Commodities Frank Dikötter, 2007-03-27 Exotic Commodities is the first book to chart the consumption and spread of foreign goods in China from the mid nineteenth century to the advent of communism in 1949 Richly illustrated and revealing this volume recounts how exotic commodities were acquired and adapted in a country commonly believed to have remained hostile toward alien things during the industrial era China was not immune to global trends that prized the modern goods of civilized nations Foreign imports were enthusiastically embraced by both the upper and lower classes and rapidly woven into the fabric of everyday life often in inventive ways Scarves skirts blouses and corsets were combined with traditional garments to create strikingly original fashions Industrially produced rice sugar wheat and canned food revolutionized local cuisine and mass produced mirrors were hung on doorframes to ward off malignant spirits Frank Dikötter argues that ordinary people were the least inhibited in acquiring these products and therefore the most instrumental in changing the material culture of China Landscape paintings door leaves and calligraphy scrolls were happily mixed with kitschy oil paintings and modern advertisements Old and new interacted in ways that might have seemed incongruous to outsiders but were perfectly harmonious to local people This pragmatic attitude would eventually lead to China s own mass production and export of cheap modern goods which today can be found all over the world The nature of this history raises the question which Dikötter pursues in his conclusion If the key to surviving in a fast changing world is the ability to innovate could China be more in tune with modernity than Europe Exotic Alternative Investments Kevin R.
