Critical Pedagogy The State And Cultural Struggle Teacher Empowerment And School Reform:

Critical Pedagogy, the State, and Cultural Struggle Henry A. Giroux, Peter L. McLaren, 1989-07-03 Schools have been traditionally defined as institutions of instruction but the authors of this volume challenge that position in order to generate a new set of cultural categories and constructs through which the nature and process of schooling can be more appropriately understood Giroux and McLaren develop a theory of schooling that takes into account not only the more traditional relationship between teaching and learning but also the import of wider cultural dynamics such as language mass culture popular culture the state theories of readership ethnographic research and subcultural studies Critical Pedagogy, the State, and Cultural Struggle Peter McLaren, 1989 Multicultural Education, Critical Pedagogy, and the Politics of Difference Christine E. Sleeter, Peter McLaren, 1995-01-01 This book explores and expands upon linkages between multicultural education and critical pedagogy drawing on the shared goal of challenging oppressive social relationships

Emotion and Traumatic Conflict Michalinos Zembylas, 2015-07-01 Do the emotional responses of students and to traumatic conflict constitute insurmountable obstacles in peace education efforts How do hegemonic narratives shape the emotions of ethnic identity and collective memory and what can be done pedagogically to transform the powerful influence of such narratives and emotions Can peace education efforts that foreground emotion in critical ways become a productive pedagogical intervention in conflicted societies Emotion and Traumatic Conflict takes us through an ethnographic journey into a specific site of conflict to show how emotions are entangled with educational efforts towards peacebuilding healing and reconciliation While sociologists anthropologists historians and political scientists have long analyzed the emotional dynamics of conflict and peace rarely have educators looked into the emotional complexities of traumatic conflict the impact of emotion in everyday school interactions and pedagogical practices and the consequences of the role of emotion in what has become known as critical peace education This book not only offers an analysis of the emotional consequences of traumatic conflict in schools it also develops an innovative compelling and cross disciplinary perspective on the entanglement of emotion power politics trauma healing and critical education The book provides a detailed ethnographic analysis of the ideological appropriation of emotions of conflict in schools yet it pushes boundaries further through a theorization of the consequences of this appropriation and the pedagogical interventions required to challenge undermine or subvert this process Zembylas argues that these pedagogical interventions rooted in both psychoanalytic and socio political perspectives of trauma and emotion ought to engage emotions as critical and transformative forces in peace education Grounded in recent literature on affect and emotion that spans the social sciences Zembylas's analysis of the emotions of traumatic conflict in education offers a provocative proposal for the role of critical peace education in healing and reconciliation Critical Literacy Eugene F. Provenzo, Michael W. Apple, 2015-12-03 In Critical Literacy Eugene F Provenzo Jr challenges E D Hirsch's assumptions about culture and education Calling for a broader and more democratic vision than Hirsch Provenzo critiques Hirsch's legacy up through the current conservative educational agenda for education which he argues denies not only the United States diversity but its democratic traditions of democratic participation His book shows why critical faculties and skills of students are essential not only to the success of individual students but to their participation in a healthy democracy Provenzo offers a list of 5 000 things every educated American ought to know none of them the same items as those included on Hirsch s list in Cultural Literacy Critical Literacy is essential reading for those concerned with our schools and the future of our children

Critical Literacy Maxine Greene,1993-03-18 Illustrates the differences and similarities between modernist and postmodernist theories of literacy and suggests how the best elements of both can be fused to provide a more rigorous conception of literacy that will bring theoretical ethical political and practical benefits Some of the 14 essays are theoretical other present case studies of literacy programs for adults and other applications Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Postmodernism, Feminism, and Cultural Politics Henry A. Giroux,1991-01-01 This book introduces central assumptions that govern postmodern and feminist theory offering educators a language to create new ways of conceiving pedagogy and its relationship to social cultural and intellectual life It challenges some of the major categories and practices that have dominated educational theory and practice in the United States and in other countries since the beginning of the twentieth century Rejecting the apolitical nature of some postmodern discourses and the separatism characteristic of some versions of cultural feminism the contributors take a political stand rooted in concern with cultural and social justice In so doing these essays represent a linguistic shift regarding how we think about ethics foundationalism difference and culture The selections present a concern with developing a language that is critical of master narratives racism sexism and those technologies of power in schools that subjugate infantilize and oppress students The authors also develop a language of possibility that focuses on analyzing how power can be linked productively to knowledge how teachers can construct classroom social relations based on notions of equity and justice how critical pedagogy can contribute to an identity politics that is grounded in democratic relations and how teachers can develop analyses that enable students to become self reflective actors as they transform themselves and the conditions of their social existence

Educating the Global Environmental Citizen Greg William Misiasek,2017-12-15 Misiasek examines the dis connection between critical global citizenship education models and ecopedagogy which is grounded in Paulo Freire s pedagogy Exploring how concepts of citizenship are affected by globalization this book argues that environmental pedagogues must teach critical environmental literacies in order for students to understand global environmental issues through the world s diverse perspectives Misiasek analyses the ways environmental pedagogies can use aspects of critical global citizenship education to better understand how environmental issues are contextually experienced and understood by societies locally and globally through issues of globalization colonialism socio economics gender race ethnicities nationalities indigenous issues and spiritualities

Curriculum and Imagination James McKernan,2007-08-07 Curriculum and Imagination describes an alternative process model for designing developing implementing and evaluating curriculum suggesting that curriculum may be designed by specifying an educational process which contains key principles of procedure This comprehensive and authoritative book offers a practical and theoretical plan for curriculum making without objectives shows that a curriculum can be best planned and developed at school level by teachers adopting an action research role complements the spirit and reality of much of the teaching profession today embracing the fact that there is a degree of intuition and critical judgement in the work of educators presents empirical evidence on teachers human values Curriculum and Imagination provides a rational and logical alternative for all educators who plan curriculum but do not wish to be held captive by a mechanistic ends means notion of educational planning Anyone studying or teaching curriculum studies or involved in education or educational planning will find this important new book fascinating reading

Experiencing Fieldwork William Shaffir, Robert A. Stebbins, 1991 How do you gain entry into a research setting What tricks are there to learning the rules of the community without alienating the people you came to study How are good relations maintained with informants What happens after you leave the field In Experiencing Fieldwork top ethnographers address these and other questions bring fieldwork alive for the reader and provide invaluable advice for those entering the field

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Border Crossings Henry A. Giroux, 2007-05-11 The concept of border and border crossing has important implications for how we theorize cultural politics power ideology pedagogy and critical intellectual work This completely revised and updated edition takes these areas and draws new connections between postmodernism feminism cultural studies and critical pedagogy Highly relevant to the times which we currently live Giroux reflects on the limits and possibilities of border crossings in the twenty first century and argues that in the post 9 11 world borders have not been collapsing but vigorously rebuilt The author identifies the most pressing issues facing critical educators at the turn of the century and discusses topics such as the struggle over the academic canon the role of popular culture in the curriculum and the cultural war the New Right has waged on schools New sections deal with militarization in public spaces empire building and the cultural politics of neoliberalism Those interested in cultural studies critical race theory education sociology and speech communication will find this a valuable source of information

Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09

Why is Corporate America Bashing Our Public Schools? Mary Kathleen Emery, Susan Ohanian, 2004 Where exactly did high stakes testing come from anyway Neither parents teachers administrators nor school boards demanded it and now many communities feel powerless to reverse its appalling effect on our schools Hot on the heels of the testing masterminds and peeling back layer upon layer of documentation Kathy Emery and Susan Ohanian found a familiar scent at the end of the paper trail Corporate money CEOs and American big business have blanketed United States public education officials with their influence and as Emery and Ohanian prove their fifteen year drive to undemocratize public education has yielded a many tentacled private public monster With stunning clarity and meticulous research Emery and Ohanian take you on a tour of board rooms rightist think tanks nonprofit concerned citizens groups and governmental agencies to expose the real story of how current education reform arose how its deceptive rhetoric belies its goals and the true nature of its polarizing and disenfranchising mission Why is corporate America bashing our schools Because it s in their interests not yours What can you do to promote your best educational interests Read this expose and get ready to dismantle the education reform machine Annual Editions Fred Schultz, 1995 Articles reprinted from various periodicals Critical Theory and Educational Research Peter McLaren, James M. Giarelli, 1995-01-01 Applies European critical theory to North American educational research Critical Multiculturalism Barry Kanpol, Peter McLaren, 1995-02-28 This collection explores the way in which critical theory and practice can unite into a common vision of democratic hope While each author has his or her own specialty the thread of shared dreams is portrayed in a call for solidarity The separate viewpoints are drawn together to constitute a democratic platform for an enlightened critical education agenda From narrative to critical ethnography case studies explore the multicultural and power struggles of states districts and schools Intimately connected to all contributions in this collection is the commitment of each author to similarly share a common pregnancy of intention within a language of possibility Erkennen - Bewerten - (Fair-)Handeln Hannah Gritschke, 2011 Critical Discourses on Teacher Development John Smyth, 1995 The central thesis of this book is that reclaiming teaching depends upon reclaiming the language within which dialogue about schooling can occur The contributors provide both a rationale and some pointers on how this process might proceed in this respect this is an important book at a critical period in the history of schools Practice Makes Practice Deborah P. Britzman, 2012-02-16 This revised edition of the classic text explores the complexity of what learning to teach means While the research on teacher education continues to proliferate Practice Makes Practice remains the discipline s indispensable classic text Drawing upon critical ethnography this new edition of this best selling book asks the question what does learning to teach do and mean to newcomers and to those who surround them Deborah P Britzman writes poignantly of the struggle for significance and the contradictory realities of secondary teaching She offers a theory of difficulty in learning and explores why the blaming of individuals is so prevalent in education The completely revised introduction presents a refined and further developed theoretical framework and analysis discussing why we might return to a study of teaching and learning Also included in this updated edition is an insightful hidden chapter that comments on the methodology of the study and some of the dilemmas the author continues to face as her own thinking develops around the issues of representing teaching and learning for those just entering the profession Deborah P Britzman is Distinguished Research Professor at York University She is the author of many books including The Very Thought of Education Psychoanalysis and the Impossible Professions After Education Anna Freud Melanie Klein and Psychoanalytic Histories of Learning and Lost Subjects Contested Objects Toward a Psychoanalytic Inquiry of Learning all published by SUNY Press
