Intellectual History of Key Concepts Gregory Adam Scott, Stefania Travagnin, 2020-05-05 The three volume project Concepts and Methods for the Study of Chinese Religions is a timely review of the history of the study of Chinese religions reconsiders the present state of analytical and methodological theories and initiates a new chapter in the methodology of the field itself The three volumes raise interdisciplinary and cross tradition debates and engage methodologies for the study of East Asian religions with Western voices in an active and constructive manner Within the overall project this volume addresses the intellectual history and formation of critical concepts that are foundational to the Chinese religious landscape

These concepts include lineage scripture education discipline religion science and scientism sustainability law and rites and the religious sphere With these topics and approaches this volume serves as a reference for graduate students and scholars interested in Chinese religions the modern cultural and intellectual history of China including mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong and Chinese communities overseas intellectual and material history and the global academic discourse of critical concepts in the study of religions

Disability Media Studies Elizabeth Ellcessor, Bill Kirkpatrick, 2017-10-03 Introduces key ideas and offers a sense of the new frontiers and questions in the emerging field of disability media studies Disability Media Studies articulates the formation of a new field of study based in the rich traditions of media cultural and disability studies Necessarily interdisciplinary and diverse this collection weaves together work from scholars from a variety of disciplinary homes into a broader conversation about exploring media artifacts in relation to disability The book provides a comprehensive overview for anyone interested in the study of disability and media today Case studies include familiar contemporary examples such as Iron Man 3 Lady Gaga and Oscar Pistorius as well as historical media independent disability media reality television and media technologies The contributors consider disability representation the role of media in forming cultural assumptions about ability the construction of disability via media technologies and how disabled audiences respond to particular media artifacts The volume concludes with afterwords from two different perspectives on the field one by disability scholar Rachel Adams the other by media scholars Mara Mills and Jonathan Sterne that reflect upon the collection the ongoing conversations and the future of disability media studies Disability Media Studies is a crucial text for those interested in this flourishing field and will pave the way for a greater understanding of disability media studies and its critical concepts and conversations

Preaching Apocrypha in Anglo-Saxon England Brandon W. Hawk, 2018-01-01 Preaching Apocrypha in Anglo Saxon England is the first examination of Christian apocrypha in Anglo Saxon England focusing on the use of biblical narratives in Old English sermons This work demonstrates that apocryphal media are a substantial part of the apparatus of Christian tradition inherited by Anglo Saxons

Anteaesthetics Rizvana Bradley, 2023-10-24 In Anteaesthetics Rizvana Bradley begins from the proposition that blackness cannot be represented in modernity's aesthetic regime but is nevertheless foundational to every representation Troubling the idea that the aesthetic is sheltered from the antiblack terror that lies just beyond its sanctuary Bradley insists that blackness cannot make a home within the aesthetic yet is held as its threshold and aporia The book problematizes the phenomenological and ontological conceits that underwrite the visual sensual and abstract logics of modernity Moving across multiple histories and geographies artistic mediums and forms from nineteenth century painting and early cinema to the contemporary text based works video installations and digital art of Glenn Ligon Mickalene Thomas and Sonda Perry Bradley inaugurates a new method for interpretation an ante formalism which demonstrates how black art engages in the recursive deconstruction of the aesthetic forms that remain foundational to modernity Foregrounding the negativity of black art Bradley shows how each of these artists disclose the racialized contours of the body form and medium even interrogating the form that is the world itself Drawing from black critical theory Continental philosophy film and media studies art history and black feminist thought Bradley explores artistic practices that inhabit the negative underside of form Ultimately Anteaesthetics asks us to think philosophically with black art and with the philosophical invention black art necessarily undertakes

Media Theory in Japan Marc Steinberg, Alexander Zahlten, 2017-03-09 Providing an overview of Japanese media theory from the 1910s to the present this volume introduces English language readers to Japan's rich body of theoretical and conceptual work on media for the first time The essays address a wide range of topics including the work of foundational Japanese thinkers Japanese theories of mediation and the philosophy of media the connections between early Japanese television and consumer culture and architecture's intersection with communications theory Tracing the theoretical frameworks and paradigms that stem from Japan's media ecology the contributors decenter Eurocentric media theory and demonstrate the value of the Japanese context to reassessing the parameters and definition of media theory itself Taken together these interdisciplinary essays expand media theory to encompass philosophy feminist critique literary theory marketing discourse and art provide a counterbalance to the persisting universalist impulse of media studies and emphasize the need to consider media theory situationally Contributors Yuriko Furuhashi Aaron Gerow Mark Hansen Marilyn Ivy Takeshi Kadobayashi Keisuke Kitano Akihiro Kitada Thomas Looser Anne McKnight Ryoko Misono Akira Mizuta Lippit Miryam Sas Fabian Schfer Marc Steinberg Tomiko Yoda Alexander Zahlten

Through the Screen Francesco Striano, 2024-12-30 When Alice steps through the mirror in Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland she removes herself from the centre of vision and perspective restoring the autonomy of everything else that lies beyond the mirror Similarly the philosopher who wishes to engage with the contemporary medial system must pass through the screen recognising the autonomy of the non human components of the system but also understanding the human role within the system itself Perched between philosophy and other disciplines such as psychology sociology neuroscience computer science electronics cultural studies French media dialogues German Medienarch ologie and first order cybernetics this book challenges our contemporary screen experience and provides the reader with new tools with which to understand it as well as novel insights into the role of philosophy in the digital condition Its aim ultimately is to lay the foundations of a general theory of being and culture by examining them through their technological manifestations

The Visual Dynamics of Art, Black Care, and Ethics in South African Art Raél Jero Salley, 2025-02-18 This book interprets relationships between art and ethics in the context of contemporary South African art Nearly three decades after inaugurating political freedom in a democratic form the infrastructure of South Africa faces palpable issues and challenges to the social fabric The social tension involves painful struggles for decolonization and violent debates about the removal of colonial statues change of colonial names transformation of universities and curriculum change This book does critical work in art history theory criticism and visual culture by looking from and looking after social differences to interpret the potential impact of contemporary media and mediation Artists examined include Zanele Muholi Mohau Modisekeng Dineo Seshee Bopape Hasan and Husain Essop and Kemang Wa Lehulere This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history contemporary art visual culture art theory ethics aesthetics philosophy of art and African studies

The Archive of Fear Christina Zwarg, 2020-10-15 Focusing on U S slavery and its aftermath in the nineteenth century The Archive of Fear explores the traumatic force field that continued to inflect discussions of slavery and abolition both before and after the Civil War It challenges the long assumed distinction between psychological and cultural historical theories of trauma discovering a virtual dialogue between three central U S writers and Sigmund Freud concerning the traumatic response of slavery's perpetrators A strain of trauma theory and practice comes alive in the temporal and spatial disruptions of New World slavery and The Archive of Fear shows how key elements of that theory still inform the infrastructure of race relations today It argues that trauma theory before Freud first involves a return to an overlap between crisis insurrection and mesmerism found in the work of Frederick Douglass Harriet Beecher Stowe and W E B Du Bois Mesmer's crisis state has long been read as the precursor to hypnosis the tool Freud famously rejected when he created psychoanalysis But the story of what was lost to trauma theory when Freud adopted the talk cure can be told through cultural disruptions of New World slavery especially after mesmerism arrived in Saint Domingue where its implication in the Haitian revolution in both reality and fantasy had an impact on the history of emancipation in the United States The Routledge Companion to Media Studies and Digital Humanities Jentery Sayers, 2018-05-01 Although media studies and digital humanities are established fields their overlaps have not been examined in depth This comprehensive collection fills that gap giving readers a critical guide to understanding the array of methodologies and projects operating at the intersections of media culture and practice Topics include access praxis social justice design interaction interfaces mediation materiality remediation data memory making programming and hacking

The Stone and the Wireless Shaoling Ma, 2021-05-03 In the final decades of the Manchu Qing dynasty in China technologies such as the phonograph telephone telegraph and photography were both new and foreign In The Stone and the Wireless Shaoling Ma analyzes diplomatic diaries early science fiction feminist poetry photography telegrams and other archival texts and shows how writers intellectuals reformers and revolutionaries theorized what media does despite lacking a vocabulary to do so Media defines the dynamics between technologies and their social or cultural forms between devices or communicative processes and their representations in texts and images More than simply reexamining late Qing China's political upheavals and modernizing energies through the lens of media Ma shows that a new culture of mediation was helping to shape the very distinctions between politics gender dynamics economics and science and technology Ma contends that mediation lies not only at the heart of Chinese media history but of media history writ large

Shakespeare and YouTube Stephen O'Neill, 2014-04-24 The video sharing platform YouTube signals exciting opportunities and challenges for Shakespeare studies As patron distributor and archive

YouTube occasions new forms of user generated Shakespeares yet a reduced Bard too subject to the distractions of the contemporary networked mediascape This book identifies the genres of YouTube Shakespeare interpreting them through theories of remediation and media convergence and as indices of Shakespeare s shifting cultural meanings Exploring the intersection of YouTube s participatory culture its invitation to Broadcast Yourself with its corporate logic the book argues that YouTube Shakespeare is a site of productive tension between new forms of self expression and the homogenizing effects of mass culture Stephen O Neill unfolds the range of YouTube s Bardic productions to elaborate on their potential as teaching and learning resources The book importantly argues for a critical media literacy one that attends to identity constructions and to the politics of race and gender as they emerge through Shakespeare s new media forms Shakespeare and YouTube will be of interest to students and scholars of Shakespearean drama poetry and adaptations as well as to new media studies

Intermedial Studies Jørgen Bruhn, Beate Schirrmacher, 2021-11-17 Intermedial Studies provides a concise hands on introduction to the analysis of a broad array of texts from a variety of media including literature film music performance news and videogames addressing fiction and non fiction mass media and social media The detailed introduction offers a short history of the field and outlines the main theoretical approaches to the field Part I explains the approach examining and exemplifying the dimensions that construct every media product The following sections offer practical examples and case studies using many examples which will be familiar to students from Sherlock Holmes and football to news vlogs and videogames This book is the only textbook taking both a theoretical and practical approach to intermedial studies The book will be of use to students from a variety of disciplines looking at any form of adaptation from comparative literature to film adaptations fan fictions and spoken performances The book equips students with the language and understanding to confidently and competently apply their own intermedial analysis to any text

The Marvelous Clouds John Durham Peters, 2015-06-19 An ambitious re writing a re synthesis even of concepts of media and culture It is nothing less than an attempt at a history of Being Los Angeles Review of Books When we speak of clouds these days it is as likely that we mean data clouds or network clouds as cumulus or stratus In their sharing of the term both kinds of clouds reveal an essential truth that the natural world and the technological world are not so distinct In The Marvelous Clouds John Durham Peters argues that though we often think of media as environments the reverse is just as true environments are media Peters defines media expansively as elements that compose the human world Drawing from ideas implicit in media philosophy Peters argues that media are more than carriers of messages they are the very infrastructures combining nature and culture that allow human life to thrive Through an encyclopedic array of examples from the oceans to the skies The Marvelous Clouds reveals the long prehistory of so called new media Digital media Peters argues are an extension of early practices tied to the establishment of civilization such as mastering fire building calendars reading the stars creating language and establishing religions New media do not take us into uncharted waters but rather confront us with the deepest and oldest questions of society and ecology how to manage the relations people have with themselves others and the natural world A wide ranging meditation on the many means we have employed to cope with the struggles of existence from navigation to farming meteorology to Google The Marvelous Clouds shows how media lie at the very heart of our interactions with the world around us Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies Mona Baker, Gabriela Saldanha, 2019-09-20 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies remains the most authoritative reference work for students and scholars interested in engaging with the phenomenon of translation in all its modes and in relation to a wide range of theoretical and methodological traditions This new edition provides a considerably expanded and updated revision of what appeared as Part I in the first and second editions Featuring 132 as opposed to the 75 entries in Part I of the second edition it offers authoritative critical overviews of additional topics such as authorship canonization conquest cosmopolitanism crowdsourced translation dubbing fan audiovisual translation genetic criticism healthcare interpreting hybridity intersectionality legal interpreting media interpreting memory multimodality nonprofessional interpreting note taking orientalism paratexts thick translation war and world literature Each entry ends with a set of annotated references for further reading Entries no longer appearing in this edition including historical overviews that previously appeared as Part II are now available online via the Routledge Translation Studies Portal Designed to support critical reflection teaching and research within as well as beyond the field of translation studies this is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of translation interpreting literary theory and social theory among other disciplines Image Science W. J. T. Mitchell, 2018-01-30 Almost thirty years ago W J T Mitchell's Iconology helped launch the interdisciplinary study of visual media now a central feature of the humanities Mitchell's now classic work introduced such ideas as the pictorial turn the image picture distinction the metapicture and the biopicture These key concepts imply an approach to images as true objects of investigation an image science Continuing with this influential line of thought Image Science gathers Mitchell's most recent essays on media aesthetics visual culture and artistic symbolism The chapters delve into such topics as the physics and biology of images digital photography and realism architecture and new media and the occupation of space in contemporary popular uprisings The Look of the Past L. J. Jordanova, 2012-09-27 Visual and material sources are central to historical practice and this is a much needed introduction to using artefacts as evidence Shakespeare Performance Studies W. B. Worthen, 2014-06-26 This book looks at Shakespeare through performance capturing the dialogue between performance Shakespeare and contemporary concerns in the humanities The Intermediality of Narrative Literature Jørgen Bruhn, 2016-06-29 This book argues that narrative literature very often if not always include significant amounts of what appears to be extra literary material in form and in content and that we too often ignore this dimension of literature It offers an up to date overview and discussion of intermedial theory and it facilitates a much needed dialogue between the burgeoning field of intermedial studies on the one side and the already well developed methods of literary analysis on the other The book aims at working these two fields together into a productive working method It makes evident in a methodologically succinct way the necessity of approaching literature with an intermedial terminology by way of a relatively simple but never the less productive three step analytic method In four in depth case studies of Anglophone texts ranging from Nabokov Chandler and Tobias Wolff to Jennifer Egan it demonstrates that medialities matter
