Critiques Of Everyday Life An Introduction:

Critiques of Everyday Life Michael Gardiner, 2002-01-04 Recent years have witnessed a burgeoning interest in the study of everyday life within the social sciences and humanities In Critiques of Everyday Life Michael Gardiner proposes that there exists a counter tradition within everyday life theorising This counter tradition has sought not merely to describe lived experience but to transform it by elevating our understanding of the everyday to the status of a critical knowledge In his analysis Gardiner engages with the work of a number of significant theorists and approaches that have been marginalized by mainstream academe including The French tradition of everyday life theorising from the surrealists to Henri Lefebvre and from the Situationist International to Michel de Certeau Agnes Heller and the relationship between the everyday rationality and ethics Carnival prosaics and intersubjectivity in the work of Mikhail Bakhtin Dorothy E Smith s feminist perspective on everyday life Critiques of Everyday Life demonstrates the importance of an alternative multidisciplinary everyday life paradigm and offers a myriad of new possibilities for critical social and cultural theorising and empirical research

Critique of Everyday Life: Foundations for a sociology of the everyday Henri Lefebvre, 1991 Henri Lefebvre s three volume Critique of Everyday Life is perhaps the richest most prescient work by one of the twentieth century s greatest philosophers The first volume presented an introduction to the concept of everyday life Written twenty years later this second volume attempts to establish the necessary formal instruments for analysis and outlines a series of theoretical categories within everyday life such as the theory of the semantic field and the theory of moments The moment at which the book appeared 1961 was significant both for France and for Lefebvre himself he was just beginning his career as a lecturer in sociology at Strasbourg and then at Nanterre and many of the ideas which were influential in the events leading up to 1968 are to be found in this critique In its impetuous often undisciplined prose the reader may catch a glimpse of how charismatic a lecturer Lefebvre must have been

Critiques of Everyday Life Michael Gardiner, 2000 This book proposes that there exists a counter tradition within everyday life theorising This has sought not merely to describe lived experience but to transform it by elevating our understanding to the status of a critical knowledge

Critique of Everyday Life, Vol. 1

Henri Lefebvre, 2008-02-17 Henri Lefebvre s magnum opus a monumental exploration of contemporary society Henri Lefebvre s three volume Critique of Everyday Life is perhaps the richest most prescient work by one of the twentieth century s greatest philosophers Written at the birth of post war consumerism the Critique was a philosophical inspiration for the 1968 student revolution in France and is considered to be the founding text of all that we know as cultural studies as well as a major influence on the fields of contemporary philosophy geography sociology architecture political theory and urbanism A work of enormous range and subtlety Lefebvre takes as his starting point and guide the trivial details of quotidian experience an experience colonized by the commodity shadowed by inauthenticity yet one which remains the only source of resistance and change This is an enduringly radical text untimely today only in its intransigence and optimism

Physical Space and Spatiality in Muslim Societies Mahbub Rashid, 2021-08-10 Mahbub Rashid embarks on a fascinating journey through urban space in all of its physical and social aspects using the theories of Foucault Bourdieu Lefebvre and others to explore how consumer capitalism colonialism and power disparity consciously shape cities Using two Muslim cities as case studies Algiers Ottoman French and Zanzibar Ottoman British Rashid shows how Western perceptions can only view Muslim cities through the lens of colonization a lens that distorts both physical and social space Is it possible he asks to find a useable urban past in a timeline broken by colonization He concludes that political economy may be less relevant in premodern cities that local variation is central to the understanding of power that cities engage more actively in social reproduction than in production that the manipulation of space is the exercise of power that all urban space is a conscious construct and is therefore not inevitable and that consumer capitalism is taking over everyday life Ultimately we reconstruct a present from a fragmented past through local struggles against the homogenizing power of abstract space
