Cross Talk Preaching Redemption Here And Now:

Cross Talk Sally A. Brown, 2008-03-03 Contending that preachers have become silent on a major doctrinal theme of the Christian faith the meaning of the crucifixion and the cross as a theological symbol Sally A Brown describes the nature and causes of this phenomenon and provides a strategy for reclaiming cross talk in the pulpit Brown proposes a metaphorical and pastoral model for preaching about the cross Preachers can reclaim preaching on the cross she urges by joining New Testament metaphors to pastoral situations rather than adapting atonement theories for the pulpit She offers specific examples in sermons designed for particular homiletical occasions

Cross Talk Sally Ann Brown, 2008 Stumbling over the Cross Joni S. Sancken, 2016-04-21 It has never been easy to preach about the cross and resurrection of Jesus but difficulties today are particularly challenging Hearers ask tough questions of the church and the Christian faith and they are not satisfied by formulaic answers People are often suspicious of doctrine and are attracted to a broad but vague or pluralistic spirituality rather than the classical claims of Christianity In this climate preachers often see preaching on the central events of the Christian story the crucifixion and resurrection as more of a problem than a possibility more of a burden than a joy They wonder not only how to preach the old old story of cross and resurrection but whether they should preach these themes at all This book addresses these concerns and shows preachers how to preach the cross and resurrection in fresh culturally relevant ways that deepen Christian discipleship Each chapter shows the relevance of preaching the cross for addressing a particular congregational concern What has ironically become a stumbling block in the pulpit the stone that preachers often reject preaching on the cross and resurrection of Jesus can serve as the cornerstone for building up the congregation for discipleship in our world

Homiletical Theology in Action David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-11-17 Homiletics is taking a theological turn But what does the preaching task look like if we think of it not so much as a mastery of technique but an exercise in theological method Homiletical Theology in Action The Unfinished Theological Task of Preaching tries to envision the work of homiletics as theological in root and branch By placing theological questions at the center of the process the authors some of the leading lights of the field of homiletics try to show how their work as preachers and homileticians is a thoroughgoing theological activity By beginning with troublesome texts and problematic doctrines they seek to show how preachers and homileticians engage in theology not as consumers but as producers and in the thick of the kinds of questions that preachers have to ask Practitioners and theological educators alike will catch a glimpse of how they too are residential theologians in their own preaching praxis

Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku, 2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God's saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God's image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God

Mission moves Malan Nel,2021 This scholarly book is the final result of a team research project done by ten Practical Theologians from three denominations in the Reformed tradition in South Africa The authors posed the following research problem and question What would be the relationship if any between preaching and the liturgy of which it is a part and the development of missional congregations And secondly what kind of preaching and preacher would best serve even facilitate such a process of missional congregational development in preaching and worship

God's Being in Reconciliation Adam J. Johnson,2012-03-01 One of the most pressing issues in the doctrine of the atonement today is the question of the unity and diversity of the work of Christ What are we to make of the diversity within the biblical witness and the history of doctrine when it comes to explanations of the meaning and significance of Jesus death and resurrection Without a grasp of the unity of his work our understanding and use of the diversity runs the risk of becoming haphazard and disordered Proposals regarding the unity of Christ s work today tend to focus on the metaphorical nature of language the role of culture and various possible conceptual schemes rarely reflecting on unity and diversity proper to the being God To fill this gap Johnson draws on Karl Barth s integrated account of the doctrines of God and reconciliation harnessing the resources contained within the doctrines of the Trinity and divine perfections to energize a properly theological account of the unity and diversity of the atonement

The Overshadowed Preacher Jerusha Matsen Neal,2020-10-08 The Overshadowed Preacher breaks open one of the most important unexamined affirmations of preaching the presence of the living Christ in the sermon Jerusha Matsen Neal argues that Mary s conceiving bearing and naming of Jesus in Luke s nativity account is a potent description of this mystery Mary s example calls preachers to leave behind the false shadows haunting Christian pulpits and be overshadowed by the Spirit of God Neal asks gospel proclaimers to own both the limits and the promise of their humanness as God s Spirit filled servants rather than disappear behind a pulpit prince ideal It is a preacher s fully embodied witness lived out through Spirit filled acts of hospitality dependence and discernment that bears the marks of a fully embodied Christ This affirmation honors the particularity of preachers in a globally diverse context challenging a status quo that has historically privileged masculinity and whiteness It also offers hope to ordinary souls who find themselves daunted by the impossibility of the preaching task Nothing in the angel s words is impossible with God

The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching Kenyatta R. Gilbert,2011-04-01 The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching is a constructive effort to examine the historical contributions of African American preaching the challenges it faces today and how it might become a renewed source of healing and strength for at risk communities and churches from publisher description Preaching the Manifold Grace of God, Volume 2 Ronald J. Allen,2022-07-05

Preaching the Manifold Grace of God is a two volume work describing theologies of preaching from the historical and contemporary periods Volume 1 focuses on historical theological families Orthodox Roman Catholic Lutheran Reformed Anabaptist Anglican Episcopal Wesleyan Baptist African American Stone Campbell Friends and Pentecostal Volume 2 focuses on families that are evangelical liberal neo orthodox postliberal existential radical orthodox deconstructionist Black liberation womanist Latinx liberation Mujerista Asian American Asian American feminist LGBTQAI Indigenous postcolonial and process In each case the author describes the circumstances in which the theological family emerged describes the purposes and characteristics of preaching from that perspective and assesses the strengths and limitations of the approach The Continuum Companion to Hume Alan Bailey,Dan O'Brien,2012-03-08 With chapters written by internationally renowned experts in their field this is an authoritative reference guide to the work thought and influence of David Hume

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen,2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task Exodus

Preaching Dr. Kenyatta R. Gilbert,2018-03-20 Exodus Preaching is the first of its kind It is an exploration of the African American prophetic rhetorical traditions in a manner that makes features of these traditions relevant to a broad audience beyond the African American traditions It provides readers a composite picture of the nature meaning and relevance of prophetic preaching as spoken Word of justice and hope in a society of growing pluralism and the world shaping phenomenon of racial economic and cultural diversity African American preachers have distinctively invested great symbolic significance in the Exodus story the messianic witness of Jesus and the prophetic literature for developing and shaping prophetic sermons Kenyatta Gilbert demonstrates how four distinctive features of discourse can shape sermon preparation for effective preaching in a period of intense social change racial unrest and violence Gilbert includes dozens of practical suggestions and five practical exercises to equip the reader for preaching in new ways and in new environments He offers an holistic approach fully equipping the reader with the theological and practical resources needed to preach prophetically

Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World Sally A. Brown, 2020-04-07 What can preachers do to help congregants navigate everyday life with the courage imagination and savvy it takes to testify in action and word to God's mercy and justice Christianity's witness depends on credible Christian lives carried out in ordinary settings of everyday life Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World helps preachers design sermons that equip believers to act with improvisational creative courage in the ordinary settings of their Monday to Saturday lives How can we who preach inspire the ordinary prophets of our time those who in Christ's name will act in great or small ways as agents of redemptive interruption Sally A Brown with her extensive experience both in parish ministry and training others for ministry shares preaching strategies that equip these ordinary prophets to take daring action Brown begins by reconsidering the power and limits of the missional model of Christian witness and argues that Christian witness today must be adaptive and therefore imaginative and improvisational She then turns to the connection between the sermons our listeners hear on Sunday and their capacity to timely inventive action in everyday situations Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World will inspire both preachers and those who listen to them to move from sanctuary to street week after week eager to discern and participate in the ongoing redemptive work of God already under way amid the ordinary scenes and settings of their Monday to Saturday lives Slow of Speech and Unclean Lips

Robert Stephen Reid, 2010-01-01 Historically people who have risen to the occasion to speak of faith for their generation have been keenly aware of their own limitations whether Moses who was slow of speech or Isaiah who was concerned that he spoke with unclean lips The question both Moses and Isaiah seem to be asking is who am I to speak for God And we wonder in turn was it they who spoke or God who spoke through them These biblical images carry the weight of the question raised by the essays in this volume How is preaching both the work of God and yet also a function of the individual's own person and identity How is the preacher to conceive the identity he or she assumes when proclaiming the Word of God Some of the leading educators in homiletics today propose a variety of possible preaching identities in this volume preacher as messenger of hope as lover as God's mystery steward as ridiculous person as fisher as host and guest as one out of one's mind and as one entrusted The result is an open ended invitation for readers to identify their own preaching identity either in concert with one of the images presented here or of their own making appropriately contextualized to their own ministry and theology Contributors Andre Resner Anna Carter Florence Chuck Campbell James Kay John McClure Lincoln Galloway Lucy Hogan Robert Stephen Reid and Thomas Long Groans of the Spirit Timothy Matthew Slemmons, 2010-09-10 Groans of the Spirit constitutes a rousing challenge to mainline churches and their practice of preaching In this inventive work Timothy Slemmons calls preachers beyond the formalism of the New Homiletic and beyond the ethical proposals that have arisen in the frustrated struggle to transcend it and toward what the author calls a penitential reformed homiletic This new homiletical proposal is distinctive in that it faithfully adheres to the Christological content of preaching finds its inspiration in the promise of the real presence of Christ and trusts in the ministry of the Holy Spirit from whom alone the power for the renewal of the mainline church shall come This book includes a thorough reconsideration of the infinite qualitative difference between God and humanity in Barth's thought an important critique of Gadamer's reception of Kierkegaard's concept of contemporaneity an undelivered lecture on the content of preaching and two sermons that illustrate Slemmons's important proposals Groans of the Spirit is a long considered calculated and overdue break with conventional hermeneutics that proposes a vital homiletical pneumatology which draws the art of the sermon out of the ghetto of mere rhetoric and presents it as it truly is as theological reflection of the first order the church's primary language of faith Dem Dry Bones Luke A. Powery, 2012-12-01 In an age when the so called prosperity gospel holds sway in many Christian communities or the good news of Christ is reduced to feel good bromides it would seem that death has little place in contemporary preaching Embracing the vision of the valley of dry bones in Ezekiel 37 as a metaphor for preaching in the Spirit acclaimed homiletician Luke Powery asserts that death is the context for all preaching In fact the Spirit leads preachers to the context of death each Sunday in order to proclaim a word of life that ultimately breathes hope into people's lives Yet many preachers avoid death because they are at a loss of what to say about it and do not realize its vital connection to the substance of Christian hope As a result the church is too often left with sermons that are fundamentally devoid of hope Dem Dry Bones aims to remedy some of the theological and homiletical shortcomings in contemporary preaching by looking closely at the African American spirituals tradition Through this study Powery demonstrates how to preach in the Spirit so that proclaiming death becomes an avenue toward hope In short no death no hope Living into Lent Donald K. McKim, 2020-01-14 The Lenten journey is a shared journey Christians join with others along the way of faith following Jesus and seeking to live out the will and purpose of God Living into Lent written by noted theologian educator and author Donald K McKim sets aside time during the Lenten season for readers to reflect on their Christian identities listen to God's Word and will and engage in practices that deepen the Christian experience through discipleship Whether used for congregational study or personal reflection each reading features Scripture devotion theological quote response and prayer Theological quotes drawn from the history of the Reformed church will help readers better understand God's Word and its implications for the Lenten journey Readings are enhanced by a seven session study guide and questions for conversation Heavenly Imagery and Symbolism in Matthew's Gospel Daehoon Kang, 2023-11-21 The present study explores the role of heavenly imagery and symbolism in the Gospel of Matthew Historical background and narrative criticism are my main methods because the Old Testament and Second Temple Jewish texts form the historical backgrounds for the understanding of Matthew's heaven and Matthew uses heavenly imagery and symbolism to highlight his main themes in the gospel as a whole This study investigates Matthew's distinctive materials and important texts having to do with heaven exploring their meanings and establishing their roles in each narrative section Matthew describes heaven as the space where certain events reveal God's plan of salvation Heaven is associated with such key matters as revelation and judgment Each major discourse of Matthew focuses on heavenly imagery with judgment at its end culminating in the parable of the sheep and the goats Matt 25 31 46      Of Seeds and the People of God Michael P. Knowles, 2015-02-06 Preachers mount the pulpit steps terribly burdened by the conviction that they are somehow responsible for the growth and spiritual well being of their congregants How they ask themselves can mere words communicate the reality of God bring life to a congregation or foster spiritual growth This study argues that effective sermons function much like Jesus parables by bearing witness to divine power Parables and preaching both testify to something beyond themselves to a life giving dynamic that far outstrips the force of words alone Preachers are not go betweeners or gatekeepers for the kingdom of heaven rather they imitate Jesus by dying to themselves in the very act of proclamation relying directly on God for their sermons to bear fruit As well as offering a novel interpretation of Jesus agricultural parables Of Seeds and the People of God presents a Christ shaped theology of preaching Beyond exegesis or rhetoric alone faithful proclamation is a question of spirituality of preachers and listeners together yielding to God s gift of new life
