Hit List Richard Belzer,David Wayne,2016-06-07 Richard Belzer and David Wayne are back to set the record straight after Dead Wrong this time they re going to uncover the truth about the many witness deaths tied to the JFK assassination For decades government pundits have dismissed these coincidental deaths even regarding them as myths as urban legends Like most people Richard and David were initially unsure about what to make of these coincidences After all events don t consult the odds prior to happening they simply happen Then someone comes along later and figures out what the odds of it happening were Some of the deaths seemed purely coincidental heart attacks hunting accidents Others clearly seemed noteworthy witnesses who did seem to know something and did seem to die mysteriously Hit List is a fair examination of the evidence of each case leading to necessarily different conclusions The findings were absolutely staggering as some cases were clearly linked to a clean up operation after the murder of President Kennedy while others were the result of other forces The impeccable research and writing of Richard Belzer and David Wayne show that if the government is trying to hide anything they re the duo who will uncover it

On the Trail of the D.C. Sniper Jack R. Censer,2010-04-06

For a month in the fall of 2002 a series of sniper attacks suddenly dominated the headlines in the nation s capital Beginning in the Washington suburbs these crimes eventually stretched over one hundred miles along I 95 to Richmond More than a thousand law officers would pursue the perpetrators an enormous number for one case The number of reporters covering the story however was even greater On the Trail of the D C Sniper uses the remarkable events of that October to explore the shifting character of journalism as it entered the twenty first century and to question how this change in the way news is gathered and reported impacted the events it covered Because of its political significance Washington D C although not a huge population center is home to an international news corps rivaling that of London or New York The sniper story thus gained unusually broad media coverage These events also coincided with the rise of cable network news meaning that the story would be delivered through a greatly accelerated news cycle Continuous coverage on television meant a more intense race for scoops when a major development wasn't available lesser incidents were sometimes played up in an attempt to maintain the sense of an always unfolding story Jack Censer looks at the atmosphere of heightened anxiety in which this killing spree occurred coming only a year after the 9/11 attacks as well as the unsolved anthrax scare centered in the D.C. area and asks if the press by intensifying its focus also intensified the sense of fear To bring in another perspective Censer looks closely at the elementary and secondary schools in the area comparing their experience of the threat with the press's perception and presentation of it In most cases school officials chose a course of precaution in which life could carry on rather than one of hypervigilance and lockdowns Although it is widely thought that journalists have strong political and commercial biases Censer reveals that in this case the press was motivated above all by the creation of a gripping story to evoke emotion from its audience One of the most detailed studies yet published of how the press follows a story in the twenty-four hour news era this book provides a window on post-9/11 anxiety and the relationship between those fears public events and the news media The Economist, 2006
